NO NAME GIVEN.—The Guardian has been forwarded a letter from No. 98 Can. Seige Battery, Sussex, England, but the sender has omitted the name of writer or receiver, consequently it cannot be inserted until same is given.

FAREWELL PARTY.—Mr. John P. Monaghan, son of Mr. James R. Monaghan, left last week for Philadelphia, where he has secured a good position. He has a first cousin there, a son of Mr. Ambrose Monaghan, Kinkora, who has prospered in that city. Previous to his departure a most enjoyable social party gathered in his honor at his home, where they were kindly and generously entertained by the kind host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Monaghan. Mr. Monaghan has the best wishes for his future well and will no doubt command respect and success in his adopted home.

CARD OR SERVICE ROLL.—Card certificates make application to join the 105th Overseas Battalion and who are rejected by the Medical Officer on account of inability to pass the prescribed medical tests. Those who have already been turned down and would like to have one of these cards may obtain same by applying at the Orderly Room. Every other young unmarried man of military age ought to see the Regimental Medical Officer at once and either get a card or else get into the One Hundred and Fifth. Any employer and business men will doubtless give special consideration when filling vacancies to those whose physical unfitness for military service is certified to by the possession of one of these cards.

SCHOOL WORK.—The semi-annual examination of New Haven school which was held on Monday, Jan. 31st proved a grand success, upwards of fifty visitors being present. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by the visiting teachers, Mary Edmond and Phil. An employer, and Bessie McEwen, and by their prompt and ready answers, showed the careful training they had received from their energetic and painstaking teachers, Miss Sadie Currie and Miss Katie McNeill. An interesting feature of the afternoon was a spelling contest for which prizes were awarded to the best speller of each class, won by Mary Devereaux, Andrew Tierney and Katherine Nolan. Prizes were also awarded for the best attendance, won by Emma Frizzell and Mary Gass. The teachers were highly complimented on the artistic decoration of the school for the occasion and also for the grand program so ably rendered by the pupils, which was as follows: Chorus—"Till the Boys Come Home. Dialogue, Poor Work Don't Pay, Malcolm Lamont, Marjorie Barrach, Edna Frizzell, Katherine Nolan, Recitation, Duncan Cass; Recitation, Michael Murphy. Dialogue—"How the Quarrel Began," by Emma Frizzell and Mary McManus. Recitation—Edna Frizzell. Recitation—Andrew Tierney. Dialogue—"Taking the Census—Joseph Berrigan, Marjorie Barrach, Malcolm McPhee, Jack Beaton and James Berrigan. Song—"Scuse Me Teacher," by Verna Barrach and Agnes Nolan. Recitation—Jack Beaton. Dialogue—"Mr. Barr as Teacher," by Malcolm Lamont, Anna McManus, Florence Murphy, Katie McPhee, Florence Cavanagh, Katie Frizzell, Michael Murphy, Jack Devereaux, Joseph McQuillan. Recitation—Ivan Devereaux. Recitation—Wendall Boyce. Dialogue—"The Lost Knife," by Florence Murphy, Emma Frizzell, Katherine Nolan and Katie McPhee. Recitation—Joseph Barrach. Recitation—Lucy McKinnon. Recitation—Linnie Newman. Recitation—Nellie Clow. Instrumental Music—James Berrigan. Dialogue—"The Whipping Johnny, Didn't Get," by Mary Devereaux and Theodore Tierney. Recitation—Verna Barrach. Recitation—Malcolm Lamont. Recitation—Emma Frizzell. Dialogue—"The Lost Pig," by Frank Devereaux and Andrew Tierney. Chorus—"We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall," also several gramophone selections by Mr. John McKinnon. After the program the pupils and teachers were treated to a generous supply of confectionery and after singing the National Anthem, all dispersed to their respective homes satisfied that not only a pleasant but also very profitable afternoon was spent.
