Whirly second In Butler 'cap

NEW YORK, July 5—(AP)—An old jinx and a couple of new hoodoos beat Whirlaway Saturday in one of the year's outstanding racing upsets.

Although he gained his usual city block in the stretch, the combination of a milk wagon load on his back and a short, strange stretch worked enough of a bugaboo to make Warren Wright's whizzer wind up second to A. J. Sackett's lightly regarded Tola Rose in the Rich Butler Handicap at Empire City, before a crowd of 34,728.

As was the case the last time Whirly was beaten, it took a new track record to do it.

Budge wins Pro tennis title

NEW YORK, July 5—(AP)—Don Budge's crackling forehand drives exploded around Bobby Riggs Saturday and hoisted the red-head into the United States Professional Tennis Championship before 8,000 fans at the West Side Tennis Club in Forest Hills.

The score was 6-2,6-2,6-2, figures which hardly explain the complete mastery of the Oakland, Calif., star. Budge was swinging from the floor all day, chasing Riggs to all corners of the court, and giving the little Chicagoan the most uncomfortable day he has spent since he hit the big time.

Big Program

Officer Commanding, Lt.-Col. F. I. Andrew, M.M., will give the "Eyes Right" and the salute will be taken by His Honor, Lieutenant Governor, B. W. LePage standing in the centre of the Grand Stand. Two of the bands will then break off but continue to play. The parade, headed by one band will march around the track, completing the full half mile and break off when the head of the column is opposite the east bleacher. This parade will be one well worth witnessing by everyone in Charlottetown and vicinity.

A sports program will then take place consisting of 100-yard dash, relay race, gas-mask race, tug-of-war, etc. Teams from the army, navy and air force will take part in the latter. The Red Cross will give a demonstration and a program of songs, band music and other features will keep everything going in a lively manner. A realistic modern infantry attack which will see smoke bombs, flashes and fireworks, used will end in the capture of a pill-box to conclude an evening —w such as citizens have never yet seen. The Grounds are free to all but citizens and children are respectively requested to seat themselves in the Grand Stand and Bleachers. The race track and centre field must be left for the use of the military and others taking part in the program.

There is accommodation for 8,000 to 10,000 people—so come one, come all and see the army boys demonstrate.

This Evening's Program

7.15 p. m.—A Grand Parade headed by Military Bands and consisting of detachments from the 17th (Reserve) Armored Regiment, 204th (Reserve) Field Battery, R. C. A., 6th (Reserve) District Signals, R. C. C. S., No. 62 Canadian Army (Basic) Training Centre, Canadian Legion, B. E. S. L., Canadian Red Cross Corps, and City Firemen will proceed from the Armouries to the Provincial Exhibition Grounds.

8.00 p. m.—Following the "March Past" of the various Prince Edward Island Units there will be a program of band and musical selections. Demonstration by the Canadian Red Cross Corps, and a sports programme consisting of relay races, tug-of-war between the Navy, Army and Air Force teams, etc.

Newark sweeps Doubleheader From Royals

MONTREAL, July 5—(CP)—Montreal pitchers weren't as good as Newark hitters today, and the Bears made 28 hits good for a twin victory, 12-5 and 8-6. It was the first time Royals had dropped a doubleheader this season.

The explosive power of the Bears' bats shattered seven Royals' pitchers in the course of the afternoon, with Frankie Kelleher, Bud Metheny and Tome Byrne injecting home runs into the proceedings.

Saturday Jersey City Giants defeated Newark Bears in both ends of a twin bill, 6-5 and 3-0.

Southpaw Andy Sierra of Buffalo Bisons blocked Montreal Royals from moving into a first-place tie with Newark as he scattered five Royal hits to down the Montrealers 3-1 in the nightcap of a doubleheader.

In the first game Royals pounded two Buffalo hurlers for 17 hits and downed the Bisons 13-7.

Toronto Maple Leafs handed Rochester Red Wings a double trimming, taking the opening game of a twin bill 6-0 and coming back again in the nightcap to win 4-1.

In the other I.L. twin bill, Baltimore Orioles took both games from Syracuse Chiefs, the first by a 5-3 count and the nightcap 10-3.

French Runs String To Nine Games As Dodgers And Braves Split Bill

NEW YORK, July 5—(AP)—Boston Braves and Brooklyn Dodgers broke even today in a doubleheader at Boston, Jim Tobin scoring his eighth verdict of the season for Boston in the opener, 6-5, while Larry French, the veteran southpaw, ran his unbeaten string to nine while capturing the nightcap, 2-1.

Brooklyn scored the winning run in the eighth inning of the second game without making a hit. Arky Vaughan opened by drawing a base on balls and was sacrificed to second by Pete Reiser. Al Javery, the Boston hurler, tried to pick him off second and Vaughan went to third when the throw was wide. Joe Medwick brought him home with a long fly.

Miller broke up the first game with an eighth-inning double which scored Waner, who had walked

Cards Whip Cubs Twice

At St. Louis, sweeping both ends of a bargain bill with Chicago Cubs, the Cardinals won the opener 5-3 and the nightcap 11-6.

The determined Cubs used seven pitchers, five of them in the final game, in an effort to halt the Cards, who got by with Harry Gumbert in the first fray, and trotted a trio out in the afterpiece

Reds and Pirates Split

At Pittsburgh, pitcher Ray Starr won his 12th game of the season 5-2 to give Cincinnati an even split in a double bill with Pittsburgh after the Pirates had taken the opener 4-3, but the National League lost one of its pitchers, Paul Derringer, for tomorrow's All-Star game in New York.

Derringer, who started the opener for the Reds, was felled by a line smash from Bob Elliott's bat during a three-run Pirate rally in the sixth inning. Physicians ordered an x-ray to determine the full extent of an injury above the left knee cap.

Phils Delight Home Fans

At Philadelphia, the last-place Phils delighted a crowd of 8,539 by sweeping a doubleheader from New York Giants, 3-2 and 5-3.

Splendid pitching in the pinches by Tommy Hughes, who won his third straight Sunday victory, gave the Phils the opener.

A four-run outburst off Tom Sunkel in the first inning put the Phils far in front in the nightcap.

Saturday Brooklyn Dodgers rode roughshod over Philadelphia Phillies and after it was all over the Dodgers had won a doubleheader, 14-0 and 5-4.

New York Giants handed Boston Braves a double defeat in another twin bill, 11-5 and 3-2.

Bucky Walters beat Max Butcher in a hurling duel as Cincinnati Reds won the opening half of a doubleheader from Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-0. The second game was called because of the weather.

Chicago Cubs knocked Mort Cooper out of the box in the fifth inning and defeated St. Louis Cardinals 6-5 in the first game of a doubleheader but the Cards battered five Chicago hurlers for 13 hits and trounced the Cubs 9-3 in the nightcap.

Passeau Slated To Start For National League In All-Star Contest Tonight

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Staf Writer

NEW YORK, July 5—(AP)—The character of tomorrow night's 10th annual major league All-Star game began to take shape today as Claude Passeau of Chicago Cubs was tabbed for the National League's opening pitcher and Manager Joe McCarthy revised his tentative American League lineup.

American League stock suffered a severe blow as Bill Dickey, veteran catcher of the world champion Yankees, disclosed that a shoulder injury would keep him out of the game. He wrenched his right shoulder at Philadelphia the middle of last week and has not been able to perform since.

Manager McCarthy, rejoining his club today after a siege of illness which separated him from the Yanks when they were in Chicago on their western trip, announced the following batting order for tomorrow.

Boudreau, Cleveland, ss
Henrich, New York, or Spence, Washington rf
Williams, Boston, lf
Dimaggio, New York, cf
York, Detroit, 1b
Gordon, New York, 2b
Keltner, Cleveland, 3b
Tebbetts, Detroit, c

McCarthy indicated his choice of a starting pitcher rested between Spurgeon (Spud) Chandler of his own team and Al Benton and Lefty Harold Newhouser of Detroit.

At Boston today Manager Leo Durocher of Brooklyn Dodgers, who will guide the National League All-Stars, said he will start Passeau "unless he pitches for the Cubs today."

Durocher said that if anything keeps him from using Passeau he will open with Mort Cooper of St. Louis Cardinals.

The National League's probable batting order against a right-handed starter is:—

Brown, St. Louis, 2b
Vaughan, Brooklyn, 3b
Reiser, Brooklyn, cf
Mize, New York, 1b
Ott, New York, rf
Medwick, Brooklyn, lf
Owen, Brooklyn, c
Miller, Boston, ss

Yanks Split Twin Bill With A's To Hang On To Four-Game Lead

NEW YORK, July 5—(AP)—New York Yankees divided a doubleheader with Philadelphia Athletics today, hanging on to their four-game lead in the American League as the second-place Boston Red Sox split with Washington Senators.

Roger Wolff pitched the Athletics to a 5-4 triumph in the opener, although he gave up 11 hits, and the Yankees came back to take the nightcap, 4-2, with a nine-hit attack on Herman Besse.

Bosox Divide With Nats

At Washington, Boston's pennant-hungry Red Sox split a doubleheader with Washington, dropping the opener 4-3 due to a ninth-inning Senator rally but winning the nightcap handily, 5-0, behind Joe Dobson's five-hit hurling.

Rookie Johnny Sullivan doubled in the ninth inning of the opener and scored the winning run on George Case's single.

Tigers and Indians Split

At Detroit, Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers took turns punching each other around in a doubleheader before 31,032 spectators, the Tigers unleashing a 16-hit attack to win the opener 10-1 and Mel Harder pitching a three-hitter to give the Tribe the nightcap, 5-1.

Chisox Break Losing Streak

At Chicago, the White Sox broke a six-game losing streak by pasting St. Louis Browns 14-2 but fell back on their beaten path by dropping the nightcap 13-2.

In the opener, Ted Lyons, pitching eight-hit ball, breezed to his season's seventh victory and his fourth in succession as he and his Sox mates ran up 16 hits against Eldon Auker and Stan Ferens. Auker was shelled from the mound under an 11hit attack in less than three innings.

Saturday New York Yankees downed Boston Red Sox 6-3 in the opening game of a doubleheader but in the nightcap the Sox surged back, despite Joe DiMaggio's 12th homer of the season, and won behind Tex Hughson, 6-4.

Cleveland Indians pounded two Detroit pitchers for 15 hits and halted the Tigers 10-3.

Washington Senators pounded three Philadelphia hurlers for 16 hits and won the nightcap of a double bill 12-2 after Luman Harris had limited the Senators to six scattered hits to help the A's to a 5-2 win in the opener.

St. Louis Browns tallied a run in the 13th inning to break a 7-7 tie and beat Chicago White Sox 8-7 in the nightcap of a twin bill after the Browns had taken the first game 8-5.
