How To Hold FALSE TEETH
 More Firmly in Place
 Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug store.

Beer—Nicholson Wedding At Trinity United Church

Yesterday afternoon at 2.30 in Trinity United Church, Miss Joyce Frances Nicholson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Nicholson, was united in marriage with Mr. William Arthur Beer, younger son of Mrs. Ernest W. Beer and the late Mr. Beer. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. E. Duddy, assisted by Rev. J. T. Ibbott, Rector of St. Paul's Anglican Church. The wedding music was played by Prof. A. Roy Kendall and the soloist, Mrs. C. J. Fear, of Dalhousie, N.S., sang "Because" while the church register was being signed. The church was decorated with lilac boughs, and bouquets of snapdragon and tulips formed a background for the lighted tapers which were placed on the communion rail in front of which the marriage ceremony was performed.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in an Edwardian gown of silk brocade fashioned with a yolk of tulle illusion, the side panels of the skirt falling back into a long train. A coronet of seed pearls held her full length veil of French tulle, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink, delight roses and lily-of-the-valley. Attending the bride as matron of honour was Mrs. Percival Simmonds, who wore a gown of yellow moiré taffeta having a French bouffant skirt with slight train with which she wore a matching tiara and elbow length mitts. Her bouquet was of Talsman roses.

Miss Shirley Stacey was bridesmaid, and she wore a puffed gown of aqua taffeta which had a portrait neckline and bouffant skirt. Her accessories were a matching tiara and mitts, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groomsmen was Mr. Douglas Hill, and the guests were ushered by Mr. Percival Simmonds and Mr. Albert Douglas.

The bride's mother wore an aqua afternoon dress with black accessories, her corsage being pink roses, while the groom's mother chose a gown of tawny blue with navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by tall white tapers and baskets of snapdragon. Mrs. C. J. Fear sang several solos during the reception.
 For travelling the bride chose a cape dress of navy blue crepe with white pique trim, navy blue accessories and a matching white wool shortcoat. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Beer will spend their honeymoon motoring to the White Mountains, Boston and New York.

TO ORGANIZE FIRST AID—The members of the Forest Hill and Strathcona Women's Institutes met in Forest Hill Hall on Saturday evening, June 11th to organize a First Aid Class. Mrs. Harry Cudmore, Director of Red Cross First Aid Services outlined the First Aid Programme. Mrs. Ira Stewart, Midgell, who is a qualified First Aid Instructor has agreed to teach this Standard Class which will be carried on in Forest Hill for the next nine weeks.

WHIM ROAD W. I.
 The ladies of the Whim Road W. I. met at the school house on Tuesday night, June 7th, for their monthly meeting. Six members and three visitors were present to answer roll call with a joke. Mrs. Wesley Campbell presided over the meeting. The minutes of last month's meeting were read and approved and all correspondence was given attention. Plans were made for the annual convention and two delegates were chosen to attend this convention in Charlottetown. The delegates named were Mrs. Wesley Campbell and Mrs. Mac Munroe.
 When the school picnic came up for discussion it was decided best not to hire a truck as in former years. The picnic would probably be held at Robertson's Cove. The amount voted for the school treat was $4.
 A number of members purchased tickets on the doll which is being raffled by the Hospital Nursery Club in Montague.
 The different committees for the month gave their reports and the following new ones were appointed:

Mrs. Russel MacBeth. Programme: Mrs. Wesley Campbell and Mrs. Pete McCarron. The next meeting will be held at either Mrs. Russell MacBeth's or at Mrs. J. N. MacDonald's home. Next roll call is to be answered by having a question ready for the Question Box at the district convention in Caledonia. A penny sale was conducted by Mrs. Wesley Campbell and won by Mrs. Geo. Clary. After a program had been put on by the Entertainment Committee, the members enjoyed a "pot-luck" lunch. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.
