James Oliver Curwood presents

Nomads of the North

From the novel by James Oliver Curwood

Directed by David M. Hartford

A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION.

Through! Challoner and Nanette with their baby, and the big black bear and dog, had fought their way through the flaming forest to safety—but still the shadow of the gallows hung over the man! FOR SENSATION, FOR DRAMA, FOR WILD ANIMAL WONDERS—"NOMADS OF THE NORTH" HAS ONLY HAD ONE EQUAL.

Meet Neewa the Bear and Brimstone the Pup

SEE The greatest forest fire, the greatest animal actors, the greatest love drama. SEE The deadly combat between a man and a pet bear, defending its mistress.

A Picture that will charm every man, woman and child. Roaring rivers and fire—girt forests—real men and splendid women—beasts of play and beasts of prey! They startle and delight you as no other drama of the wilds ever did.

With Lon Chaney, Betty Blythe and Lewis Stone

STUDENTS' SOCIAL.—The Students' Social at the Baptist School on Monday evening was a most delightful affair. The social and reception was rendered the students of the Prince of Wales College and the Business Colleges, at the opening of their school year. The evening of the school room was fixed to accommodate the gay crowd of happy young folks, who spent a jolly evening together on the terrace. The chair was taken by Mr. Donnell, who in a brief cordial address welcomed the young people. A splendid program was presented consisting of Piano Solo by Miss Susan Wood, Solo by Miss Annie Wood, Miss Edith Paul, Miss Leah D'Amore, and Miss Helen Jones, by Mrs. Freeman and Miss Hazel, Miss Hazel and Miss Annie, readings by Miss Edna and Miss Annie, and a solo by Miss Edna and Miss Annie. The program was rendered by the students of the Prince of Wales College and the Business Colleges, at the opening of their school year.
