PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND TUNNEL

Speech Made By Alexander Martin, M. P. For Queen's in The Dominion House of Commons In Moving For Papers And Correspondence.

(From Hansard.)

The present Prime Minister was then in opposition, but, not to be outdone by Sir John A. Macdonald, he wrote a letter a few days later. He was going to be in the swim, I have here a fac-simile of that letter and I have no doubt the right hon gentlemen will recognize his own handwriting when I show it to him. it is so well reproduced. I have no doubt the right hon. gentleman intended every word he then wrote. I shall not enter into a discussion of his motives; it would not be proper for me to do so, and I do not wish to. I think he meant every word of it —but he has taken a little too long to do it. This letter is addressed, not to the governor of Prince Edward Island or to any very important personage in Prince Edward Island but to a party paper in Prince Edward Island, no less a prson than D. B. Higg, Esq, of the Charlottetown 'Patriot.' His letter reads:

Dear Sir,—I have your favour of the 2nd of February, instant. I hardly thought that an expression of opinion as to the construction of a tunnel to connect the Island of Prince Edward Island with the mainland should be required. Every man who has given any attention to the condition of things and the necessities involved by the island entering into confederation must admit that such a tunnel must be constructed if the thing is reasonably practicable. The first thing to be done is to have an accurate survey and estimates. I am only sorry that it was not done long ago.

Yours very truly,
(Sgd.) WILFRID LAURIER.

I will say this much for Sir John, and I wish from the bottom of my heart that I could say the same thing for the present premier, that he did something to carry out his promise—he undertook a survey. He got one of the most eminent engineers in the world to commence borings for the construction of a tunnel. He secured the services of Sir Douglas Fox who sent his expert here and began the survey. That survey was not carried to completion owing to the season being too short. But why has the premier not moved a hand or finger to complete that survey? It would not have cost a great deal of money and he has told us, so he was sixteen years ago, sorry it was not done long ago.

I shall quote from other public men, first from one whose name will be a household word in Canada so long as the Dominion lasts. D'Arcy McGee, who said:

I stand here prepared to maintain the allegation of the address that not only as to its substance but as to the mode of its preparation and passage into law, this British North America Act is a glorious and most timely charter for which we all have cause to be thankful. I stand up to maintain that all its provisions were honestly meant and fairly meant towards every province.

If D'Arcy McGee were here to-day I am sure he would say that every word he then uttered had been fulfilled to the letter with respect to most of the provinces. But as far as my province is concerned, what has happened?

D'Arcy McGee referred to another eminent Canadian whose name is a household word in the maritime provinces, Joseph Howe, of whom McGee said:

He leaves us unabridged our square miles of territory. I trust he will leave us unshaken, what is more essential, the faith of our people in their own future, the faith of every man Canadian in Canada, and of every province in its sister province.

That is that the provinces should look on each other as brothers, and not one of the provinces should have any cause of complaint.

I wish to remind the Prime Minister whose speeches I have always admired, of another incident. I had not the honour of being in the House at that time, but I remember reading with great pleasure his beautiful address in regard to the North-west rebellion. You, Mr. Speaker, remember that a handful of people in the west were oppressed. It touched the heart of the present Prime Minister who was then in opposition, and I am about to quote the hearty, warm words which he uttered, as he only can, in defence of that handful of half-breeds in the Northwest, and in the effort to protect them in their rights. When I heard him utter these burning words in favour of these oppressed people I felt: Here we have a man who, if he comes to be at the head of affairs in Canada will be sure to come to the rescue of the oppressed and helpless. Here is what the premier said in 1885. I wish to remind him of it to see if it will not warm his heart towards Prince Edward Island.

HOW TO TELL
If The Kidneys And Livers Are Not Acting Right

Thousands die every year from aggravated kidney distress that could have been saved—if they only knew.

Your back may ache—you think it's tiredness or physical weakness.

You grow irritable and nervous — it's put down to loss of sleep.

Joints ache, muscles get sore — that's all put down to bad weather.

Then digestion gets poor, appetite fades away, color bleaches, spirits droop.

Can't you see it's all from your overworked kidneys which can't keep the body clear of poisons that are now surging through the whole system.

Cure your kidneys with Dr. Hamilton's Pills—"When I was so stooped and back weary, so lame and sore with kidney and bladder trouble, I cured myself quickly with Dr. Hamilton's Pills" writes G. C. Ferrier, a well known merchant in Plainsville. Dr. Hamilton's Pills touched the spot at once, gave my back ease, lifted depression and weariness, made a new man of me. I can also say for a good spring medicine to clear and enrich the blood Dr. Hamilton's Pills have no equal.

The housewife, whose aching back makes very little duty a burden the working man who is tired all day and can't rest at night, whose back aches, and whose feet swell—these people have kidney trouble. Women whose kidneys are sick suffer continually from blind and sick headaches, faint and dizzy spells, bearing down pains, sharp twinges when stooping, distressing urinary troubles, aching muscles and joints, lack of appetite and loss of sleep. Reach the cause. Cure the kidneys. Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut which have cured thousands. 25c. a box at all dealers.

WANT PRINCESS WHO ELOPED

The Princess Amelie Louise Who Ran Away With Chauffeur.

GENEVA, May 30.—Princess Amelia Louis of Furstenburg and Gustav Kozian, an employe of an automobile firm, with whom she eloped recently from Vienna, have been traced to Zurich by detectives. Learning that their whereabouts had been discovered, however, they immediately left on Monday last for some unknown destination. It is said that the princess had with her a large quantity of jewellery, including several valuable tiaras, a description of which had been sent to the principal jewellers of Europe, with warning not to purchase.

HARVESTER CO'Y PUT UP FIGHT

International Concern Struggling For Existence In Kansas.

CHICAGO, May 30.—The International Harvester Company of America begins a final fight for existence in the State of Kansas today when a dozen or more witnesses will attempt to show special commissioner Henry E. Ganse, sitting in Chicago, that it is not restraining trade. By this hearing the Harvester Company endeavors to improve these three things: That the price of harvester implements has not been raised.

The prices were a great deal higher before the formation of the combination than they have since been.

That it abandoned exclusive contracts (prohibiting its agents from handling other goods), in 1905.

IS YOUR STOMACH SOUR?

Just notice if you belch gas and have sour risings. Ten drops of Nerviline in sweetened water will instantly give relief. Nerviline sweetens the stomach, aids digestion, dispels gas, makes you fit and fine in a few minutes. No treatment for stomach and bowel troubles to compare with Polson's Nerviline, thousands have proved it.
