Service That is Service At ROPER'S Imperial Service Station. As Mr. Roper so sagely points out in his advertisement on this page, "we help you get the most out of your car." There is no type of automobile servicing that ARTHUR H. ROPER'S IMPERIAL SERVICE STATION is not prepared to handle efficiently and promptly—and the station is so handily located at the corner of Great George and Euston Streets that you can conveniently drive in. With Mr. Roper actively engaged in the business, he is in a position to give that careful personal supervision which may be lacking where the principals are not themselves directly supplying the service to the public. It is this intimate service, where he becomes acquainted with the personal requirements of your car, and in this believes that his service excels. Mr. Roper sells Imperial Oil service products, and the Atlas tires and batteries obtainable at this popular station are guaranteed to satisfy. ARTHUR H. ROPER, Imperial Service Station.
