LEAVE ON MOTORING TRIP - Mr. E. Claude Holman, manager of the Salt Manufacturing Co. of Summerside leaves this morning on a motoring trip to Boston. He will be away about one week.

ENJOYABLE SOCIAL - Monday evening thirty relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cousins, Baltic, where a very enjoyable time was spent in social intercourse, music, games, etc.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS - The new motor grader, hauling a scraper is being used on the dirt streets of Summerside with excellent effect. The results are so good and the cost of the work is so small as the men employed are on the regular staff of the town.

TO FLORIDA BY CAR - Mr. James Duffy, Mrs. Duffy and two little children who have been visiting Mr. Duffy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Chertney, Hensley Street, accompanied by Mr. Duffy's mother and her young son, left yesterday on return to Tampa, Florida, going by automobile via Boston where they will stop off for a few days with friends.

RETURNS HOME - Dr. F. W. Christopher returned to Boston today after spending a most enjoyable vacation. The Doctor spent a very pleasant week at the races, and says that in all his career in attending races, he has never seen better racing or keener competition in every heat raced with a glow of good cheer prevailing at all times. In his opinion the change from the late fall to the mid-summer racing will make Prince Edward Island the mecca of harness racing in the Maritime Provinces.

ISLANDERS IN CALIFORNIA - The Oakland Maple Leaf says: "We had the pleasure last month of meeting an old time friend in San Francisco at the 31st annual convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, in the person of James A. Hickey of Charlottetown, P. E. Island. Mr. Hickey was a delegate from Lodge No. 413 in that city, and is also vice chairman of the Canadian Legislative Board. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hickey, formerly Martha Murray of Kelly's Cross, and as the convention lasted several days, the visitors had an opportunity of seeing the enterprising places in and around our Bay Cities. They also visited friends in Southern California. "Jim" and the writer were boys together in Summerside and were members of the "Excelsior Dramatic Club," whose efforts thrilled audiences in old Ludlow Hall away back in the '80s, when Watson Clark was the organizer and director. We trust Mr. and Mrs. Hickey enjoyed their first visit to California."

PRETTY AUGUST WEDDING - A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Aug. 21st when Miss Florence Furness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Furness, city, and Mr. Loman Cairns, son of Mr. D. S. Cairns, city, were united in marriage in the United Church Manse by Rev. Hammond Johnson. The nuptial breakfast was given at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Whitlock. The bride wore a gown of grey georgette trimmed with blue and white. The groom wore a tuxedo supported by the bride's cousin Mr. George Whitlock. The bride's mother wore a gown of grey georgette. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, where a large number of friends partook of a sumptuous dinner. Beautifully decorated cakes which were presented to the bride and groom by Mr. Lewis Stewart and Mr. Nelson Whitlock, were cut by the bride. Following the dinner dancing was enjoyed till an early hour. A number of children serenaded the newly married couple and were served with refreshments. A wide array of beautiful and valuable presents and checks showed how popular the young couple are. The checks included a substantial one from Mr. Cairns' employer Mr. W. A. Stewart of the Stewart Bakery, also an upholstered wicker chair from the employees of the Stewart Bakery. A chest of silver was the gift of the Irwin Publishing Company, where the bride held a position for a number of years. Attending the door was Miss Marjory Whitlock and Miss Thelma Furness. Mr. and Mrs. Cairns will reside for the present at the home of the bride's parents. The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

ROBINS - McADAM - St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus was the scene of a pretty wedding on the morning of Tuesday, 14th inst. when Mr. Leo Robins and Miss Irene McAdam, one of Donaghy's popular young ladies, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The pastor, Rev. D. P. Croken tied the nuptial knot. The bride carrying a pretty bouquet of orange blossoms, looked very charming in a blue georgette crepe gown and pretty picture hat to match. She was attended by Miss Lucy Smith, who was tastefully attired in a dress of rosewood silk and grey felt hat. The groom was ably supported by Mr. James McAdam at the officery of the Mass. Mr. J. J. McCarthy sang Gounod's O Salutaris and was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. McCarthy, who also played a wedding march as the bridal party were leaving the church. After enjoying a pleasant motor drive by the beautiful East River the happy party returned to the home of the bride, where breakfast was served.
