

The Turning Point in Fred Bickley's Career

THE secret of Fred Bickley's success has been an unwavering confidence in himself that has helped him master difficult jobs and shoulder big responsibilities. He has outstripped scores of chaps who had equal opportunities. Yet at the outset Fred Bickley lacked the very quality which had so much to do with his later success. Married, totally dependent on a small salary, his greatest handicap was a lack of initiative. He feared that if he were outspoken in his convictions he might imperil his slow but sure advancement. His added family responsibilities gave him a haunting fear of poverty in old age. Fred Bickley, in plain words, was "afraid of his job."

North American Life Endowment at 65 Policy. This marked the turning point in his career. His own financial future secure, and his family protected, he experienced a new sense of independence. Before long he developed an assured personality and a keen initiative that quickly lifted him "from the ranks."

No man who carries a haunting dread of the future can succeed in business. Fear saps self-confidence, destroying the quality most vital to success. A North American Life Policy will be your solid foundation for future success and lifelong happiness, just as it has been for many other men. Send for our booklet, "Assure with Assurance."

Heart Palpitation, Dizzy, Sinking Spells

Mrs. M. A. Gagnon, Donatville, Alta., writes:—"Some time ago I was very nervous, could not sleep at night, often had dizzy, sinking spells and palpitation of the heart, and was so run down I could not do my housework, but just leave everything and sit down."
