MARKET REVIEW FOR JUNE 11, 1931

MONTREAL POWER:

Ordinarily speaking the regular dividend meeting of Montreal Power for the current quarter, which is scheduled for Monday of next week, would be classed as a "routine affair on the supposition that the regular dividend rate of $1.50 would be declared as usual. There have arisen certain rumors, however, that the dividend rate might be increased to 2 and in this way inquiries have developed as to the possibility of a change in the dividend at the present time. It has been suggested, for instance, that if the company increased its rate the stock might reasonably be expected to rebound to $50 a share or over, and thus get back again to a figure that is being paid for this stock by some 70,000 customers who participated in the Customer-Ownership campaign of last year. A rate of $2 in dividends and a market level of around 42 would indicate a yield of nearly 5 per cent, a much higher yield, by the way, than has been shown by Montreal Power stock in many years past.

DOMINION STORES LIMITED:

It is gratifying to note continued increase in dollar volume of sales being experienced and reported by Dominion Stores, Limited. Undoubtedly this dollar showing reflects the very large gain in turnover as measured in actual quantity as compared with a year ago. For the five weeks ended May 30th the company reported sales of $2,582,702 an increase over the same month a year ago of $186,078. This gain is at the rate of 7.76 per cent as compared with a loss of 1.04 per cent in April, one of 1.05 per cent in March, a gain of 7.74 per cent in February and one of 2.71 per cent in January. In other words, out of the five periods reported upon in the current year, gains have been established for three, while losses in the other two have been reatively small. The result of this is that for the 22 weeks to May 30th, sales volume of the company has aggregated $10,786,690 an increase of $412,922 over the corresponding period of 1930, this gain being at the rate of 2.08 per cent.

Dominion Stores still has 30 weeks of its current year to work through and report upon, but already it has built up an advantage which appears to be essentially solid and which should count strongly towards the furtherance of the showing as the year progresses. Undoubtedly had it not been for the continued falling off in commodity values the results of the company on a monetary basis would bulk even more satisfactorily, but the chief point for the share holders to recognize at the present time is that the company is going through a depression area with its organization intact, and the actual physical development of the business continuing at what would seem to be an unbroken pace—and with its earning power being maintained on as high a plane as possible.

As a fitting means of commemorating this unusual event a private showing of the film, "Romance of the Reaper" was given before a representative gathering in Prince Edward Theatre yesterday forenoon. Mr. V. E. Ambrose, of the Saint John Branch of the International Harvester Co. of Canada, welcomed the guests with a few well chosen remarks, outlining the early history of agriculture and the development that has taken place during the past century.

Morning Stock Letter

Wall Street Mirror Says:—

Special to Johnston & Ward

NEW YORK, June 11—The market was favored by encouraging news during the day and responded with good advances well distributed through the list. These items were, the declaration of the regular dividend by New York Central the increase in the sales of Woolworth and the Steel tonnage report which was about in line with expectations.

The heights of the recovery apparently are going to be tested again on the current rally. It will be an interesting test as it will mark the third time this level has been reached. If the market is able to break through it will indicate constructive active sponsorship.

MIRROR SAYS:

The market continues to keep within its narrow trading range, and is furnishing quite a battle with the constructive and bearish forces both of which groups are made up largely of the professional element. Under the circumstances it is well to keep pretty close to the sidelines until the market itself is able to break out of its trading area either up or down. So far these limits are 127 on the downside and 139 on the upside.

Now is the time to begin to look about for issues which stand a good chance of being leaders from this time on. First of all the action of the two low priced refrigerator issues, Servel and Kelvinator, hold promise of better prices. Several which is closely allied with Consolidated Gas reports enormous gains in its business so far this year. The Company is working two shifts at its factory keeping up with sales which have shown a 300 per cent increase in March over January. Further than this those who have been closely identified with the market for Alaska Juneau have taken a big position in Servel. Wall Street hears of a change in management which will link Servel even closer to Consolidated Gas.

Buying of an excellent character has been seen in Standard Brands and will continue to be seen inasmuch as certain banking officials are recommending the stock for long pull purchases. "B" at current levels at a price to yield around 7 per cent. The first quarter results covered dividend requirements and the second quarter will exceed the first three months.

Chain Store issues are still well liked in good quarters. As mentioned on previous occassions these issues should be among the first to turn upward definitely. First National Stores which was able to show earnings of $5.03 a share for its fiscal year ending March 31 came close to the 1930 earnings of $5.50 a share.

In the same group can be listed Kresge, Sears Roebuck, Safeway Stores and Melville Shoe. The latter is particularly recommended for the long pull buyer.

Bishop O'Sullivan Is Welcomed At Mischoche

His Excellency, Right Rev. Joseph O'Sullivan, D.D., was deeply touched by the very cordial reception that he received from the Reverend Sisters and pupils of Notre Dame Convent and the people of the Miscouche Parish on Tuesday. An arch of flowers and bunting with "Welcome" in large letters across the top was placed at the entrance to the convent grounds. The children, the girls in white and the boys dressed in their best, made a pretty scene as they lined the oval driveway waving flags upon the approach of His Lordship and other dignitaries of the Church, who accompanied him.

He was met at the gate by the pastor, Rev. Martin Monaghan, D.D., who welcomed him on behalf of the Sisters. The Sisters were assembled on the balcony, which was tastefully decorated with bunting. After being received by the Mother Superior and Sisters, His Lordship entered the music room, where the pupils had gathered. Miss Mary McNeili and Miss Frances Gaudet played a piano duet as a prelude to a delightful program which Bishop O'Sullivan afterwards spoke of as one that he would remember for some time to come.

A presentation of a lovely bouquet of flowers to His Lordship by little Miss Louise McKinnon was a charming incident in the proceedings. This was followed by a "Welcome Song" by all the pupils. Miss Reta Desroches then read the following address:—

Children's Address

To His Excellency, the Most Reverend Joseph Anthony O'Sullivan, D.D., Bishop of Charlottetown.

May it please Your Excellency:—

What is so rare as a day in June!
Then if ever come perfect days,
Then heaven tries earth if it be in tune,
And over it softly her warm ear lays.

June! What month more joyful to the heart of children! June with its religious feasts, with its glad vacation days, is always welcome. But June of 1931 brings rare honor, a new joy for us; 'tis the visit of our new Bishop. Your Excellency is welcome. Thrice welcome to our Convent School.

So many important functions solicit your attention we dared not hope you would visit us so soon. Now that the opportunity is ours with pride and loyalty we greet you as the worthy representative of our Holy Father. We know that you are very much devoted to, and greatly interested in institutions of learning. Hence, by your very presence here today, you impress upon our minds the value of knowledge and the amiability of virtue.

These thoughts urge us on and remind us of his words who said:

I Would not waste my spring of youth
In idle dalliance; I would plant rich seeds
To blossom in my manhood and bear fruit
When I am old.

—Hillhouse

With ideals such as these constantly before us, we will strive to win the crown by earnest study now and later on by faithful correspondence to the sacrifice and labors of zealous benefactors.

Please accept, with our heartfelt thanks for your welcome visit, our best wishes.

God guide thee! God keep thee!
God bless thee on this earth below,
And in our home above
A rich inheritance lies,
His everlasting love.

The Bishop replied with deep feeling, saying that this was one of the most beautiful and touching receptions he had ever received. It gave him great pleasure to see so many happy young faces this morning.

At The Church

In the afternoon at three o'clock, the congregation of the Parish lined up at the Parochial house and went in procession to the Church. The Bishop was received at the door by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Monaghan. After his Lordship was seated on his throne, Mr. Arsene Poirier read an address on behalf of the parishioners, which was in part as follows:

It is with great and sincere pleasure that we greet your Excellency on this, your first visit to the parish of Miscouche. It pleased us very much that you have been appointed as our chief pastor. Your interest in educational matters and the important positions you have filled were a guarantee that the Holy See had chosen wisely and well when he selected you to fill the widowed Diocese of Charlottetown. We are only a small portion of your charge, only about 600 souls, yet we are one of the oldest parishes on the Island, our history going back far beyond a century, this beautiful structure being the third church to be built in this parish.

Our people received their faith mostly from Acadian ancestry, who kept to their faith through trials and sufferings. We regard this faith as our heritage and honour it and adhere to it. Now a mixture of Scotch and Irish residents have combined with the Acadians, which has only helped to strengthen our hold on the Catholic belief and in this and matters pertaining to the welfare of the district, we are as one heart and one soul.

We assure you of our love and devotion to you and wish you to accept this assurance of our unfailing loyalty and obedience to you as our chief pastor.

Signed on behalf of the trustees, James Carver, Philibert Gaudet, Amable Gaudet.

The Bishop replied in words of praise to the congregation for the work they have been doing. The convent and this beautiful church are evidence of your devotion. He thanked them most sincerely for the welcome he had received.

Confirmation

Sixty-one children were confirmed that afternoon, thirty one boys and thirty girls. Bishop O'Sullivan addressed the children before and after confirmation, in such simple language that he at once captivated the hearts of the little ones. This momentous occasion is one that will live in the memory of the parishioners for years to come.

The church was very tastefully decorated with flowers and blossoms.
