MUSKRATS PAY OFF

YORKTON, Sask. — (CP) — Trappers in the Spy Hill, Langeburg and Churchbridge areas near here marketed over $40,000 worth of muskrats last season. The 202 trappers concerned sold 16,859 pelts, receiving an average net price of $2.22 and an average $17 per trapper.

DOUBLE-JACKPOT WINNER

OAK LAKE, Man. — (CP) — A. C. Lawson has twice hit the jackpot as a puzzle contestant. Some years ago he won a $1,600 first prize in a contest sponsored by the provincial exhibition at Brandon, Man. Recently he learned he had won $1,200, placing second in a contest sponsored by a Toronto magazine.

COMPLAINANT A "SISSY"

BRANTFORD, Ont. — (CP) — A local magistrate described the action of a man who went to a doctor after getting a black eye in a fight as "sissy-like." A man pleading guilty to common assault was given suspended sentence and the magistrate ruled that the doctor's bill was the responsibility of the complainant.

MAY BE RECORD

KITCHENER, Ont. — (CP) — A glider flight from Kitchener airport to Malton, near Toronto, may win Albert Pow, of London, Ont., a new duration record. Pow's glider, cut loose at 2:00 p.m., stayed aloft six hours. The present record is 5 1/2 hours held by "Shorty" Boudreau of Ottawa.
