—WORK ON STREETS — The Summerside Street Committee have had men employed on the streets since Wednesday opening up the drains and clearing the ice from the sidewalks on some of the principal thoroughfares. Water is running down the drains like rivers. The action of the Committee in getting at the work so quickly is to be commended as it will help the situation when a real thaw sets in.—S.

—AUCTION CLUB—The final auction party of the South Freetown Club for the season was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Croken, with a large crowd in attendance. The prizes were awarded as follows: Ladies, Miss Adeline Martin; Gentleman's, Mr. Elmer Roberts. After the playing was concluded, a very dainty luncheon was served by the ladies and a social hour was enjoyed by all.—E.

—BUY BUILDING MATERIAL, nails, cement, asphalt paper, roofing, shingles, wall siding now at Brace's. 3672-2-2-21

—SUCCESSFUL AUCTION — A successful auction club was held at the home of Mr. Joseph MacDonald, Emerald. The prize winners were as follows: Ladies, Miss Nora McIver; gentleman's, Mr. Carroll Hughes. Luncheon was served by the ladies and a very pleasant evening was spent.—E.

—FARMERS ATTENTION. — We are now booking orders for Fertilizer to be delivered through the Potato Growers' Association. We require a few cars good Banner Oats for which we are prepared to pay a premium over feed oats. Are also buying potatoes on mild days only. Can also handle a few dressed hogs weekly, organs attached. J. B. Millman, Kensington. 3523-2-24-81.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY—Miss Effie MacKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. MacKay gave a dinner party at the Clifton Hotel on Thursday evening (previous to the banquet for the hockey boys) for a number of friends in honor of her birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent by the children who wished their young hostess many more happy birthdays.

—ALBERTON COUNTY COURT POSTPONED—The County Court of Prince County, March Term, which was to have commenced at Alberton on Tuesday, March 3rd, has been postponed until March 31st owing to the bad condition of the roads which has made travel in the county exceedingly difficult. The Summerside Court meets on March 20.—S

—VISITING PICTOU —Professor Selva Fowles, organist of the Presbyterian Church, Summerside, left this morning for a short visit to his home in Pictou, N. S. Before returning to Summerside he will conduct a concert over the radio at Station ONRA Moncton, in which a number of Summerside singers will take part. The concert is to take place on Wednesday.—S.

—CRYSTAL SISTERS TO PLAY KENTVILLE—The Crystal Sisters of Summerside are scheduled to play the ladies team at Kentville, N. S., on Wednesday evening. This is the first game this season for the girls, who won the Ladies Championship for the Maritimes last year. Perhaps while on the Mainland they will be able to arrange a game with other lady hockeyists. It is a safe bet that the Island girls will win out.—S.

—EASTERN STAR SOCIAL—On Thursday evening a very enjoyable informal social was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. MacKay at their lovely home in Summerside for members of the Eastern Star. The program was a varied one, Mrs. Douglas Gordon and her daughter, Miss Jean, played several pleasing duets. Mrs. A. S. MacKay gave a delightful reading, "A Kitchen Chorus" was a novelty feature of the evening; Mr. Oliver MacNeill also contributed a reading. Master Alexander MacKay gave a recitation. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies of the Lodge. Mrs. MacCallum moved a vote of thanks to the host and hostess. Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem brought the evening to a fitting close.—S.

..*INSTITUTE MEETING — The February meeting of Glenroy Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. John Weir on February 4th, with an attendance of six members and a number of visitors present. The President presided. The meeting opened with gramophone selections. Minutes of the January meeting were read and approved, followed by the roll call, which was answered by old time step-dancing. Then a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and a social hour was spent. The meeting closed with the National Anthem. Mrs. Elmer MacDonald invited the members to her home for the March meeting, roll call to be answered with "Different uses of newspapers."

Mr Leo Steele, Vernon River, spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr J. J. McDonald, Glencoe.

Practically all the available young men from this locality are engaged in shovelling snow off the railroad.

Messrs Bernard Coady, Colin McNeill, Gene Bradley and Frank Hayes Vernon River, spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. William Acorn Millview.

Mr Peter Murphy was a visitor to Hermitage, the guest of Mr William Rooney.

Mr George Weatherbie and Mr Aeneas Curran Millview were recent guests of Mr and Mrs Howard Richards.

The Misses Mary O'Keefe, Lona Carver, and Mr Alden Carver, Vernon River, were among the visitors to the city Saturday.

Messrs LeBlanc, D.P. Murdoch and James Atkins were here last week in the interests of their respective firms

Shipping which has been brisk the greater part of the winter has slowed up for the present, due to the lower prices existing and weather conditions. In all there has been about one hundred and twenty cars of potatoes loaded at this station, the shippers being our local merchants, H. S. McLeod and the Potato Growers Ass'n.

Dressed pork, poultry, and eggs are being shipped daily and altogether the farmers in this vicinity are not complaining too much about hard times.

Rosses Roller Mills are doing a flourishing business and our genial proprietor "Gorden" is busy from morning till night.

Our local horsemen are contemplating holding a series of meets for the next few weeks. Among the first ones are, Sharps, owned by Mr. B. McMillan, Black Silk, owned by A. M. Carver and several other good colts who although not having raced a much show class.

Mr Jack Grimes, Waterville, is spending a few days in Vernon River the guest of Mr and Mrs Wallie McNeill.

We are glad to learn that Mr Ernest McMillan is improving after his recent illness.

SEAMSTRESS LEAVES $24,000

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 26. (U. P.)—Miss Caroline B. Miller, 63—all her life a seamstress, by dint of thrift and economy has left a $24,000 estate, half of which will go to a children's aid society, and half to an orphan's home.

Surrounded by nations struggling with the problem of unemployment and unbalanced budgets, France is now the most prosperous nation in Europe. Industry is running at top speed and the Bank of France has accumulated the largest gold reserves in its history, with the government's finances in a highly fortified position.

The February meeting of Indian River Women's Institute was held on Wednesday the 11th at the home of Mrs William Mann, and despite the almost impassable roads clever members were present. Meeting opened with Institute Carol, followed by roll call which was answered with "My Worst Fright" After the reading and signing of the minutes of last meeting the sick committee, viz; John A. MacLellan and Mrs Joseph G. MacLellan gave their report. They visited ten sick people during the month and brought them fruit, ginger ale etc. The Secretary was asked to see that letters of condolence be sent to Mrs Robert Easter and Miss Evelyn Pillman. The following program was then carried out. Reading "The Faithful Few", Mrs Alec Craig, Chorus "Sidewalks of New York", Ethel Mann, Elizabeth Gillis and Catherine MacLellan; Solo, "My Wild Irish Rose" Mrs Edgar Hickey and lastly a number of old time violin selections by Rodrick S. MacLellan accompanied on the piano by Mrs Edgar Hickey. A delicious lunch was then served and the meeting closed with "Show Me the Way to go Home" Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs Albert MacLellan roll call to be answered with "My First Beau."

..*SUDDEN DEATH—The sudden death of Mr. Donald N. Steele, which occurred at Gaspereaux on Tuesday, February 24th, has cast a sad gloom over the community. The passing of this estimable and amiable gentleman brings back to his living friends and relatives in Georgetown and Gaspereaux, many fond memories of hospitality and generosity to the community. He was a devoted member of the Roman Catholic Church. He followed the sea for a number of years, being one of the crew with the late Capt. William Gordon, when the Brigantine Caspian was lost several years ago. He was never known to do anything that was unkind, always having a good word for everyone. God called him to his Heavenly home, where sorrow and grief are unknown. His many friends held him in the highest esteem for his praiseworthy characteristics. His funeral was largely attended. May his soul rest in peace.
