VISITING PLANE—Mr. Wallace, piloting a Stenson plane and accompanied by two friends, landed at Upton Airport at 10.45 yesterday morning from Montreal. The plane took off at 1 o'clock for Moncton.

CREDIT UNION ORGANIZED—On May 26th, Dr. J. T. Croteau of Charlottetown, organized the "Stella Maris Credit Union Limited" at North Rustico. Thirty two members were enrolled. The following officers were elected: Board of Directors: President, James C. Blacquiere; Vice President, Angus Buote; Treasurer, James Allan Gauthier. John L. Doiron and James V. Gallant., Directors. Credit Committee: James Lawrence Gauthier, Prosper LeClair and Joseph Cornelius Pineau. Supervisory Committee: J. J. Blacquiere, George A. LeClair and Joseph A. Perry. After some helpful remarks from Dr. Croteau the meeting then adjourned.

CONCERT ENJOYED—The Melodiers excelled themselves at their concert at Cardigan on Tuesday night. The audience was quite large and very appreciative. More especially was the classical music enjoyed and the Hawaiians received continued applause. As usual, the comedy was ably handled and kept the audience in laughter throughout the show, the much favoured skit being "Beans" which "brought the house down." This is a very fine show, and the artistry of the performers is on a par, if not better, than some of the imported talent. Prince Edward Island need be quite proud of the Melodiers, inasmuch as every member of the cast is an artist in his or her own particular line. The cast was particularly impressed with the work done by the ladies of the Institute in Cardigan in preparing the stage for the performers, everything being in its place and the stage appearance enhanced by flowers suitably arranged.

HORNBY PLAN COMING—The Hon. W. H. Dennis, Minister of Agriculture contradicts the report that his department has entered into the real-estate business. "It is true," he says, "we have approximately 200 farms in this province, listed for sale. We opened up this Bureau, with the idea that we might be able to assist the people who had farms for sale, as well as those who were looking for farms to purchase. Strange to say, the number of people wishing to sell, is very large, compared with the number who are looking for farms to buy. Up to the present time, we have not accomplished very much, nevertheless, we do not consider that the time devoted to the matter has been altogether wasted, for if the Hornby Scheme of the settlement of from 50 to 100 families in this province takes place, which we expect it will, then we have the information that their management would want at hand, and will be able to lay before them, a description of 200 or more farms, that are now available in the province."

ADMITS GUILT—The Moncton Transcript says—Martin Gaudet Tuesday morning pleaded guilty to stealing an automobile from H. D. Armstrong, after electing summary trial before Magistrate Lane in police court this morning. Sentence was not imposed but the accused remanded to this afternoon to permit the magistrate to go into the case. Gaudet was in court Monday but made no plea, saying he wanted to obtain counsel. Yesterday morning he said that he was not represented and was ready to plead. R. D. Mitton, appearing for the informant, said his client was not anxious that a severe penalty be imposed. H. D. Hickman represented the crown as clerk of the peace. Gaudet said he had had the automobile, which he hired here for fourteen days. He was arrested in Summerside. A warrant charging forgery has been served on the accused young man. It is alleged he forged several cheques on a local firm at various places. He will probably be charged in Port Elgin on this count.

MRS. JOSEPH MacDONALD

On Sunday, March 28th, the people of Cable Head and surrounding districts learned with a feeling of sadness, that death had removed from their midst a much beloved and respected resident of the community in the person of Mrs. Joseph MacDonald.

Nine days previous to her peaceful death, and while engaged in her household duties this devoted and kindly dispositioned mother was stricken ill with that fatal disease pneumonia; remaining conscious to the last, she fully realized her hour had come being fortified by the last rites of the Holy Mother Church she was fully reconciled and prepared to pass to her eternal reward on the above mentioned date.

MRS. MARY ELLEN BUTLER

The death occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital, Saint John, N. B., this week of Mrs. Mary Ellen Butler, wife of James Butler, who had been in failing health for several months. She was the daughter of Patrick E. and the late Rose Trainor and was born in Kinkora, residing in Saint John for the past 45 years. Besides her husband and father she is survived by five sons and four daughters. The funeral was held yesterday morning from her late residence to St. Peter's Church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock.

MRS. MARTIN CORCORAN

The death of Mrs. Martin Corcoran, which occurred at her home, 48 Road, last Saturday after an illness of several months, removes one of the oldest and most respected residents of that section of the country, and another link connecting the past with the present has been severed.

Mrs. Corcoran was one of the pioneers of St. Theresas parish, where she was born nearly 89 years ago and where she lived all her life. She was an exemplary christian woman, a kind neighbor, a true friend, and above all was a consistent and practical member of Mother Church. During her illness she was frequently visited by her pastor, Rev. Basil Croken, who administered the last rites of the church before her death. Her funeral took place Monday morning to St. Teresa's Church and was largely attended, Requiem Mass being sung by her nephew, Rev. Dr. Gavan Monaghan. In the sanctuary, besides the pastor were Rev. Dr. Curran, St. Dunstan's University, brother of deceased; Rev. P. D. McGuigan, Vernon River; Rev. M. J. Rooney, Cardigan; and Rev. Father Trainor.

Mrs. Corcoran's husband predeceased her twenty-five years ago, also three of her children. The following are left to mourn the loss of a loving mother:

John Thomas, with whom she lived; Martin P.; Mrs. D. Driscoll; Mrs. Owen Kelly; Sister Gudilla, St. Joseph's Order, St. Paul's, Minn.; Mrs. Frank Maguire, and Mrs. Edward Marquee of Boston; also 23 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

The pallbearers were Joseph McQuaid, John Cairns, Joseph Cullen, Peter Carter, Michael Power, and Patrick McQuaid.

May her soul rest in peace.
