It is with deep regret that the Guardian records the sad death of Miss Louise Shaw which occurred at Briarcliff Manor, New York, on Aug. 4th, the result of an accident. Miss Snaw was on her way to P. E. Island to visit her mother in West River and had gone down to say good bye to some friends just before train time and was taking a short cut to the station when she was struck by a train and instantly killed. Miss Shaw who was completely deof, did not hear the express coming and was walking along te track when the front of the engine struck her side and she only lived a few minutes, and never regained consciousness. Upon receipt of a telegram announcing his sister's death, Mr. Walter R. Shaw of the United Farmers Guide of Moncton, left for the scene of the accident, joining his sister, Mrs. Horton at Portsmouth, N. H. The remains were taken to Boston and laid to rest in the beautiful Auburn cemetery on August 8th beside her aunt Louise. The late Miss Shaw, who was 44 years of age, was a woman of many charming qualities, and had endeared herself to many friends during her fifteen years residence in New York and they with her relatives and friends in this province extend deepest sympathy to her bereaved mother, three sisters and two brothers who survive.

The death took place at Ebenezer, P. E. I., on Monday morning, June 21 of Mr. Archibald McDonald, a very highly esteemed resident of that community. Although Mr. McDonald had been in failing health for some time the end came suddenly and unexpected after an illness of only one week.

Through the district of Ebenezer and surrounding country none were better known or more beloved than Mr. McDonald. He was ever on the side of right, never afraid of speaking his mind and anything intended to do this was sure of his support. Although weak in body he put his trust in God. He enjoyed singing hymns. The last he sang was "The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not Want." Which will never be forgotten. In his last hours he said he was going to a better home and hoped to meet his loved ones there. It was hard to part but God doeth all things well. On Wednesday afternoon a very large number of friends and neighbors came to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom all will miss and whose place will be hard to fill. The services were conducted by the Rev. H. G. Mellick, after which the remains were borne to their last resting place in the Fairview Baptist Church, Rustico Road. Mr. nezer; John of Union Road; Michel of Canoe Cove; Daniel and Alexander of Vancouver, B. C. The sisters are Mrs. John Green, B.C., Mrs. Gamster, Bradalbane; Mrs. Henry Hickox, Hunter River and Mrs. J. P. Matheson, Vancouver, N. B.

Summer Heat Hard On Baby

No season of the year is so dangerous to the life of little ones as is the summer. The excessive heat throws the little stomach out of order so quickly that unless prompt aid is at hand the baby may be beyond all human help before the mother realizes he is ill. Summer is the season when diarrhoea, cholera, infantum, dysentry and colic are most prevalent. Any of these troubles may prove deadly if not promptly treated. During the summer mothers best friend is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and keep the baby healthy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

All the boys at the Naval Camp near York Point are having a good time notwithstanding the unfavourable weather which has been their lot. For many of them it is their first separation from "mother's apron strings". They are well satisfied with the arrangements which have been made for them, especially so with the rations. Report has it that last Saturday morning at 4 o'clock the sentry on guard noticed a disturbance in the camp, and on investigation found that the personel of the camp had formed themselves into a ring, and in the center of it were two "Young Brighton Road Roosters" having a go with the boxing gloves. It is to be hoped that when these boys return to Town that they will show the same readiness to prove that "It is nice to get up in the morning." About fifty cadets from Queen Square school are leaving this morning to attend the Cadet Camp at Aldershot, N. S. We feel sure the boys will enjoy themselves and that they will learn much which will be of use to them in future life. We regret that the West Kent cadets have been unable to get away to the Camp this year. We trust that a cadet camp will be authorized for this Province early next July, when we feel sure there will be some hundreds of cadets from the various schools on the Island gathered together for training. It may be well to state for the information of parents that at these camps every possible care is taken of the boys. Medical Officers assisted by Nursing Sisters are on duty to attend to the wants of the boys in case of illness.

The first annual picnic of the P. E. Island Potato Growers' Association was held yesterday afternoon at the Experimental Station. It was a most enjoyable outing, serving not only its social end, but also bringing closer together the members for the discussion of important questions regarding the growing and marketing of their product.

Luncheon tables were spread under the trees behind the farm buildings. And when all had enjoyed the goodthings provided there, and had voted hearty thanks to the ladies in attendance, the President Mr. A.E. Dewar, called for order and introduced the speakers of the day.

Mr. Clark, Superintendent of the Experimental Farm, gave a brief address of welcome, voicing his pleasure at seeing such a large and representative gathering before him at this, the first picnic of the Association. He spoke of the extensive experimental work in potato growing, carried on at the farm and the importance of it, touching also upon the live stock industry and the egg-laying contests, now being carried on, and which are meeting with such splendid success Selection of pure seed and careful spraying of the growing leaves are the only preventatives of the diseases which attack potatoes. In this connection Mr. Clark mentioned two spray-poisons which are proving effective at the farm. These are kerosene emulsion and nicotine sulphate.

Mr. Boulter, Secretary of the Association, was the next speaker. He briefly outlined the rise of the movement, some years ago, when a few growers came together and organized the Association. Today the membership is 130. Many people throughout the Province have not yet heard of it, or at least are ignorant of its aims, but these will be reached in time. One of the big advertisements of the Association is its prize competitions. These competitions are open to any member,—the membership fee being $1.00,—provided he has at least one acre of seed of a certified purity. Mr. Boulter went on to explain that the great object of the Association is to procure potatoes that are free from disease. We have had many inspectors from other parts of Canada and the States looking over our land, and they have gone away satisfied that we have here the conditions necessary for growing superior seed. As an Association it is up to us to put on the market this superior quality. We can get any price with in reason, provided we have this and market our crops early in the season. What is particularly needed are accommodations at the other end to store the stock. Mr. Boulter emphasized strongly the fact that only by putting certified No. 1 potatoes on the market, year after year, and by carefully eleminating everything that was not up to high standard, could we succeed in making that reputation for Island seed which it is the object of the Association to establish.

Hon. W.M. Lea, Commissioner of Agriculture, the next speaker, urged that more co-operative effort be made in marketing the seed. Only by thorough co-operation could the farmers today successfully solve the problems confronting them. Mr. Lea cited some of these problems. A big one is organized labor, demanding ever shorter and shorter hours, lowering poduction and increasing the cost of necessary farming machinery. Another one is the heavy depression of the raw-product markets. For instance wool. One farmer is reported having brought to market 200 lbs. of wool and selling it for just enough to enable him to buy a new suit of clothes,—which would contain, perhaps, 4 lbs of wool. Or take the hog market. Fair prices are received in October but they soon come down. Farmers crowd in to sell and the result is that a great bulk of the hogs are sold at less than they should be. These difficulties could be eliminated by thorough co-operation among the farmers. Mr. Lea pointed out that while in the cities production has decreased in some cases nearly 40 per cent, owing to labor tie-ups, the production throughout the country is being steadily maintained, and this in spite of increased expenses of labor and machinery. There are two things which must be given to the farmer at the lowest possible cost. These are feed and fertilizer. Without them the farmer is helpless. The speaker in conclusion pointed out that to produce quality in seed potatoes one thing was necessary,—care. The same land that produced a poor crop wil produce a good one.—with care.

Mr. Peppin, who has charge of potato growing experiments at the Farm was next called upon. He delivered a brief address on the various diseases of the crops and their remedies. For the purpose of getting seed free from disease inspections have been made of growers' crops throughout the Province. The clean crops found have been certified, and another inspection will be made of these certified ones thus eleminating all but the best. This final seed will be fit for any markt. Mr. Peppin outlined the symptoms of potato diseases and their treatment. Three deadly diseases are; blackleg, Mosaic, and leaf roll. Leaf roll, though very destructive is found but slightly throughout the Province. Mosaic is the great enemy of the Island growers. It is a constitutional disease which spreads from row to row and from plant to plant. It will spread over a space of five rows. It attacks chiefly Green Mountains. The only prevention is careful culling of clean seed and regular spraying. Question is being raised as to the value of white arsenic as a spray poison. Mr. Peppin advised that growers go slow with it until it has been thoroughly tested out. It might blight the tops. Bordeaux mixture was giving good results and should be applied every ten days or two weeks. Too strong a mixture was not advisable. The main point in spraying was to cover the leaves thoroughly.

The President then called upon others present to voice their opinions, and much discussion ensued, especially upon the question of co-operative marketing. A resolution was unanimously adopted that the Association should sell their potatoes co-operatively. Messrs. Wm. McGregor, Maurice Wright, Peter Brodie and others spoke briefly upon the subject.

At the close of the picnic Mr. Peppin conducted the members about the potato fields of the farm, pointing out diseased crops and entering into details of treatment.

WELCOME VISITORS.—Mr. Angus Panton and Mrs. Panton and Mr. Panton's sister, Mrs. Dudby of Lowell, Mass., are visiting their old home in Pinette. Mr. Panton has been residing in Framinham for a long time. He has been absent for the last forty-three years. It is always nice to see our old friends and neighbors, but the writer feels sure that there are none more welcome than those above mentioned. They see great changes in Pinette as elsewhere and miss a great many familiar faces, some gone to other lands, and a great many to the great beyond. Uncle Sam's land also has many charms, but there is nothing in life like their own native land. We feel sure also that they can truly say in the words of the poet: "The grass was green, and the moon shone as bright, yet is was not my own native land. Oh, no, no, no. etc." The Mr. Panton above referred to is a son of an old and esteemed friend, the late Mr. John Panton of Pinette.

..A SAD DEATH.—Mr. George McDonald, Harmony Jct., mail carrier on Souris R. R. No. 5, met with a sad, painful accident, which terminated in death at 2 o'clock last Monday morning, notwithstanding all that the best medical aid, including that of Dr. Jenkins, Charlottetown, could do for him. His untimely death in the prime of manhood,—only about fifty years of age,— and the father of nine small children, the oldest being only about 11 or 12 years, has cast a very sad gloom ever the entire community of No. 3 mail route, Harmony, Hermanville, Priest Pond, Glencorodale and Souris, where he was so favorably known and so universally loved. Late Tuesday, while drawing in the hay, he felt off the load, striking his forehead on the pole of the wagon, breaking or fracturing the spine, somewhere between the shoulders, and paralyzing the body so that deceased could not move a limb or muscle. He maintained consciousness, however, up to the last.

The death of Mr. James R. McDonald occurred last evening in St Rita's hospital, about 5 o'clock, after one week's illness, following a reent operation for appendicitis. Deceased was aged about 38 years and was a native of Tabusintac, Northumberland County, but for the past year had been residing in this city, being a valued and trusted employee of the T. Eaton Mail Order House here, being employed as engineer. The deceased is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Irene Burns of Charlottetown, and by an infant son, aged four months. Deceased also leaves his mother, Mrs. Mary A. MacDonald, Tabusintac and three sisers, Mrs. (Dr.) P. J. Wallace, Covedell and the Misses Lena and Mary at home. Five brothers survive, these being David and John of British Columbia; George of New Jersey and William and Alexander at home. Although the deceased was a resident here but a short time, he was well known and very highly respected by a large number of the citizens of Moncton who will regret to learn of Mr. McDonald's untimely demise at so early an age. To the bereaved relatives is extended heartfelt sympathy.—Monoton Transcript.

The Guardian heartily commends the suggestions in the following letter and will cheerfully receive and acknowledge any contributions for this worthy object.

Sir,—In reading your splendid and timely editorial in this morning's issue entitled "The Greater Love," the thought occurred to me that surely there could be no better way of giving expression to our deep and sincere appreciation of the unselfish and heroic deed of the late Capt. William McRae, than by making a contribution to his wife and children. I would therefore suggest that you open the columns of your esteemed paper for a subscription list, and I am confident that the community will respond in their usual generous manner.

Let us remember that "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this,—to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction."

On behalf of our firm I have pleasure in enclosing a cheque for one hundred dollars.
