Gleanings From Tryon And Vicinity

On March 28th, 1940, there passed peacefully away at North Tryon, Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Kitson, wife of the late William Kitson, of the advanced age of 90 years. The late Mrs. Kitson was a faithful and devoted member of the Tryon Baptist Church and was a woman of many fine Christian qualities. The funeral services which were conducted by her pastor the Rev. S. D. Dries at the home of her grand daughter, Mrs. Roy MacKenzie of North Tryon to Westmoreland Church were largely attended. Interment was in Westmoreland Cemetery. Her leaves to cherish good mother's memory one daughter: Mrs. John Gillis of Tryon and two sons: George of Orange, N.J., and Fred in B. Columbia, one assistant: Mrs. William Arnett of Crapaud as well as many grandchildren. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family in their great loss. The pall bearers were Messrs. Roy MacKenzie, Ray Cameron, Thomas Best, Russell Thompson and Stanley Thompson.

Monday night at the Tryon Community Hall ushered in something new in the line of entertainment for the young people. The building was officially opened for games of all kinds including bowling, table tennis, box hockey, crokinole etc. The noise was terrific. The young people, old and young participating in the different games with the new bowling alley drawing the spotlight, which kept the pin-bowls busy as jumping jacks setting 'em up. Lunch was about enjoyed to the exercise received by the players in playing the different games, which worked up an appetite. Everybody was loud in their praise to those who made it possible to have clean, enjoyable fun right in our own back yard, without having to go farther afield for something not so good and perhaps not so healthful. It is very pleasing to report that the decorating, equipment etc. have all been paid for, and that we are starting off with a clean sheet. For the present it has been decided to continue the recreation centre on Tuesday and Saturday evenings.

—Mrs. Ephraim Phillips of Tyne Valley is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Boates of Summerside.

—It is pleasing to report that Miss Bessie Smallman is making a good recovery from her recent illness. Miss Smallman has been ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Smallman, Summerside for some days.—S.

Indian Is Sentenced To Hang

ARCOLA, Sask., April 4—(CP)—Nelson Sammy, White Bear Reserve Indian, today heard a murder trial jury decision that he should be hanged for the Aug. 26 murder of Royal Canadian Mounted Police Constable W. E. Rhodeniser, native of Nova Scotia.

Sammy was transferred to Regina jail where he will be hanged July 5 unless a reprieve or new trial is granted.

Mr. Justice G. E. Taylor, in his address after the verdict, promised that the strong recommendation for mercy would be "transmitted to the proper authorities." Defence counsel R. H. Robertson said he was considering application for a new trial.

Constable Rhodeniser was killed by a bullet while heading a search party for Sammy after the fatal shooting Aug. 25 of Sammy's wife and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shewack.

Sammy is serving a 20-year penitentiary term for manslaughter in connection with the death of his wife and her parents.

Seated in the prisoner's box, Sammy did not change his stoical expression when sentence was passed.

The 36-year-old Indian was accused of a crime five years ago when he shot and killed Constable Rhodeniser in the southeast corner of Saskatchewan.

About a year ago he began to have difficulty with his wife and her parents. On Aug. 25 Mrs. Sammy was shot and killed while at supper with her two children and Mr. and Mrs. Shewack were killed at short time later at their own home.

After the shooting Sammy took his rifle and disappeared into the bush. Constable Rhodeniser, a noted police dog handler, and "Tel," a noted police dog, were brought from Yorkton, Sask., and search parties were organized.

The evening of Aug. 26 "Tel" uncovered a scent and within a few minutes the posse, with "Tel" and Constable Rhodeniser in the lead, reached a bluff in which Sammy was located.

Shots rang out from inside the thicket and Constable Rhodeniser fell to the ground muttering "he got me." Sammy fell inside the bluff from two bullet wounds as the searchers opened fire.

Constable Rhodeniser's body until it was carried to near-by Arcolia.

Sammy, recovered from his wounds, was convicted last December of manslaughter, and was brought to trial again last Monday for the murder of the constable.

In his defence the Indian said he was startled when "Tel" appeared in the bushes and he had meant to hit the animal and not the officer, he maintained.

Two Big Junkers

The Sunderland landed safely at its base after a 200-mile flight home. Some of its controls had been shot away in the battle. The captain, 25, had an eyelid cut by flying chips of metal and the second pilot, 20, had a slight ear injury. It was understood the Junkers were of the new Ju-88 type.

It was believed the Heinkel downed by the Spitfire was the Norwegian freighter Isbjorn shortly before the British plane went into action. The captain of the vessel reported that a German plane opened fire on his ship while flying low over the masts. The Swastika emblem was clearly visible to the sailors.

(The German high command issued a claim that its air force Wednesday destroyed or destroyed a British destroyer, five sea-guard vessels and six merchant ships during raids on convoys. It acknowledged two German planes forced landings and one plane was missing.)

British statements said two convoys were attacked but suffered no damage, the raiders being driven off.

Local Composer Wins Second In Competition

TORONTO, April 4—(CP)—Miss Phyllis Gummer of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., won the Canadian Performing Right Society's third annual competition for Canadian composers under 22 years of age, it was announced today. She received a $750 scholarship at the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

The competition, which drew 42 entries from all provinces except New Brunswick, closed Feb. 29. Each contestant submitted a song and an instrumental composition.

William Kleih Rogers, of Charlottetown, won second prize of $30. Third prize of $50 each was shared by Ivan Gillis, Halifax, and Lawrence Goodwill, Vancouver. Goodwill won last year's scholarship award and Rogers won second prize.

Special prizes of $25 each were won by Clermont Pein, St. George De Beauce, Que., and Robert J. B. Fleming of Saskatoon.

Gillis is a blind organist who learned musical notation from Braille.

Adjudicators were Sir Ernest MacMillan, Principal of the Toronto Conservatory of Music; Prof. Leo Smith of the University of Toronto; Capt. J. J. Gaultier of Montreal; Geoffrey Hewitt, Ottawa; Hector Charlesworth, Toronto; and Henry T. Jameson, President of the Society.

NIGHT CREAM WILL RETARD CROWS FEET

Unless her skin happens to be abnormally oily, the most important beauty preparation on a mature woman's dressing table is a jar of rich night cream. It may be called by any one of half a dozen names. But, regardless of its name, it is likely to be a rich cream which, unless she doesn't mind sleeping with it on her skin, is quickly absorbed.

Dryness is a prevalent cause of "lines and wrinkles and crows' feet." Naturally, one who applies night cream every single night, puts and smoothes it in according to the best known methods and allows it to remain on her face for at least fifteen minutes, is likely to be bothered with an excessively dry skin. Now and then, or about three times a week, don't do, however. Night cream should be used ever night.

In addition to exercises to keep facial muscles firm and young are important. Chewing gum—chewing it vigorously with mouth open—while you're in the bathtub or reading the evening paper in your own room is likely to help. Making faces at yourself in the mirror helps, too. That is, if you make faces with corners of the mouth turned up and forehead smooth.

Whatever you do, don't frown when doing facial exercises or at any other time, for that matter. Ward off vertical lines between eyebrows by remembering not to frown and by patting night cream into that area every night. And don't hit your eyes with a hot towel or too often. That will put horizontal lines across the forehead all too soon.

Don't forget to use cold skin toner or else to rinse face and throat with cold, cold water at night after you have cleaned them properly. Daily stimulation of circulation is as important as beauty cream for anyone past 30 as nightly creaming and attention to facial exercise.

SHAKESPEARE CONFOUNDED

PARIS, Tenn.—(CP)—Who says there's nothing in a name? R. O. Luckey, a bank cashier, was awarded a de luxe family size electric refrigerator given away by a local furniture store.

MOUSE BLAMED FOR FIRE

DUBLIN, April 4—(CP)—A mouse, which caused a short circuit in electrical wiring, was blamed for a fire in St. Patrick's Cathedral here which destroyed the dean's stall, eight canons' stalls and banners hanging over the stalls.

Reports Tabled At Annual C. W. L. Meeting

Active Year Revealed As S'ide Unit Hears Review Of Year.

Below is the text of the reports of president and recording secretary presented at the annual meeting of the Catholic Women's League, Summerside, Wednesday night.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

"As we gather here this evening to review the numerous activities of our organization during the year which closed March 31st, we find that a successful year of varied activity is embodied in the annual reports, furnished by our capable secretary Mrs. Callaghan and in the reports of the different convenors. The retiring president, Mrs. Farnon McMahon said in her report for the year, "When we reflect that the Catholic Women's League was founded 25 years ago in connection with war work being done by the women of this country in the last great European war," she continued, "and that it has carried on since, devoting itself, to every good cause for the betterment of our world, for the good of one's neighbor and the welfare of our country, we may well feel proud to be a member."

Immediately on the outbreak of war, our members pledged loyalty to Canada, voluntarily registered for war work, and since have been busy helping to make field comfort and hospital supplies for our soldiers. In addition, we also have a mailing committee, whose duty it is to mail our local and daily papers, also magazines to the members of the Catholic Women's League of Westminister Cathedral. This room is being used by large numbers of men, irrespective of color or creed, who visit London from all over the world. The League is establishing huts in many parts of England, and a representative is now in France exploring the ground for the establishment of a League hut. This work has been done so far, without any public appeal being made for funds.

"Although busy with war work, we have endeavored to keep up our peace time work, contributing as far as we were able to every worthy cause, looking after the sick, poor and needy, as our social service report will show. Last June we worked with all Canada at the visit of our beloved King and Queen. Their gracious Majesties captured all hearts, and we will not soon forget the great privilege and joy of being the reigning sovereign and his charming Queen.

"Our hearts were saddened during the year, by the sudden death of our beloved Governor General. Following the announcement of his death, our Honorary Secretary sent a message of sympathy to Lady Tweedsmuir, and a very kind reply, acknowledging has been received. Before concluding I wish to thank our chaplain, Rev. Mgr. G. J. McLellan for his unflinching assistance and helpful guidance to the League at all times. Also the Knights and Columbus who have given us a room, where we meet weekly to sew and knit for the Red Cross, besides the use of their home for our meetings and entertainment.

"In conclusion, I extend my sincere thanks and gratitude, to the executive and members who by their harmonious co-operation have made this year a pleasant one, and made possible the splendid achievements of the past year. To my successor, I pledge my loyalty and hearty support, in all undertakings, and wish the coming year will be crowned with success."

Recording Secretary's Report

"As Recording Secretary of the Summerside Subdivision of the Catholic Women's League, it affords me the great pleasure to submit my annual report of the various activities accomplished by the League during the past year under the efficient leadership of our President, Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Joseph Callaghan, the recording secretary since the past year.

"During the year ten regular and five Executive meetings were held at the K. of C. Home.

"Owing to the many handicaps of financing our work we were unable to meet all the demands asked of us, nevertheless we looked after the most worthy cases. A great amount of clothing, shoes and rubbers were supplied to the needy children, so that they might attend school.

"Many children were dressed for First Holy Communion.

"Countless visits to those sick and in need were made by the Convener Mrs. Perry, who deserves the highest praise for her splendid work in this most worthy cause."

"We also contributed our quota to the Dental Clinic, to the Community Chest Fund at Xmas, and as usual sent our Xmas box to the children of St. Vincent's Orphanage.

Study Clubs and Education

"Three study groups were formed under C. W. L. leadership, in charge of Mrs. D. F. MacNeill, and each group showed an increase in the interest and number of the individuals participating in these groups, showing a better understanding of the value and

Hospital Visiting Committee

"Each month two ladies are appointed to visit out-of-town patients in the Prince County Hospital. This little act of kindness is much appreciated by the patients.

Magazine and Publicity

"Under the efficient convenorship of Mrs. James Macdonald three new subscribers were secured to the "Canadian League Magazine."

"A report of the Subdivision's activities have been given to the Press by our very energetic Convener, Mrs. Sullivan, and it is in order to thank the Press for their co-operation in this respect.

Girl Guides and Brownies

"Under the sponsorship of the Catholic Women's League we have one Guide Company consisting of thirty Guides, one Captain, and one Lieutenant.

"In the Brownie Pack, 1 Brown Owl, 1 Tawny Owl, and 26 Brownies.

"In July quite a few of the Guides attended Provincial Camp at Fernwood which proved to be very successful as well as beneficial to all who attended.

"The Guides and Brownies were well represented at the recent visit of their Majesties, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, and two of our Guides were presented on the Guard of Honor.

"Three times during the year the Guides and Brownies attended Church in a body.

"The success of all Guide work depends on the initiative and ability of our Guides. Considering the self-sacrifice of time and efforts that the Guides' work entails, the Guides are entitled to the wholehearted support of the C. W. L. members.

"We are indeed grateful to Miss Carrie Holman, Division Commissioner of the Girl Guides and to the Guiders of the other Companies for the valuable assistance they render to our Guiders at different times.

Miscellaneous

"On Armistice Day a wreath was placed at the Soldiers' Monument by the Girl Guides.

"In September our President attended the Diocesan Convention held at Charlottetown. A splendid report of the activities of the League was read by the President at the October meeting.

"Donations were sent to the following organizations: Prince Edward Island Tuberculosis League, St. Mary's Convent, Sisters of Martha Building Fund, and the Sisters of the Precious Blood, Knights of Columbus Army Huts.

"All National and Diocesan taxes were paid.

"At Easter flowers were sent to the Church to decorate the Altar.

"During the year letters of congratulation and letters of sympathy were written by our corresponding secretary and all correspondence was duly acknowledged.

Pretty Wedding At St. Eleanors Last Evening

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock in St. John's Church, St. Eleanors, when Miss Jessie Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Hunt, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. George Arthur Jones, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Major Jones. The church was very prettily decorated with flowers and evergreens, lovely tulips graced the altar and the chancel was decorated with flowers and pointed plants. A beautiful arch of spruce and flowers adorned the centre aisle. The guests pews were marked with ribbon, tulips and pale pink roses. The church was filled with friends of the bride and groom. The ushers were Messrs. George Yeo and Ralph Lyle. Ven. Archbishop G. R. Harriss, rector of St. John's, performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. Dr. Hunt, of King's College, Halifax, N. S., uncle of the bride. As the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, the choir sang "The voice that breathed o'er Eden."
