Particularly sad was the death of Miss Ruth McLean, Alberry Plains, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McLean, which took place on Feb. 10th. The deceased was only 27 years of age, a girl of great ability and much promise. Of a loving and cheerful disposition, she was loved by her many friends and neighbors, who in her illness helped minister to her comfort. All that medical skill and kind nursing could do was done until God relieved her by calling her to her eternal reward. Her place can never be filled in the home.

HOLIDAY SEEKERS—Large numbers of enquiries are being received every day now at the Office of the Prince Edward Island Publicity Association from persons asking for folders, maps etc. This year's newspaper advertising has not been commenced yet, and considering the number of letters coming in every day is quite remarkable. One gentleman from New York in writing for a map stated that he and his family were coming by auto and hoped to look up the home of his ancestors who had taken up a farm on Brackley Point Road in the year 1818.

James MacCormac of Rollo Bay West who has been confined to bed owing to a severe fall is able to be up again and will be trust soon be enjoying her usual good health.

The marriage took place at the Church of the Precious Blood, Hyde Park, Mass. of John D. son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Peters of Rollo Bay East to Miss Helena MacLellan of Hyde Park formerly of Indian River, P. E. I. The bride was charmingly dressed in blue georgette with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Mary MacLellan who wore a tan gown and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Mr. William R. Bourgeois of Rollo Bay ably supported the groom. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her sister where she received many dainty and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Peters will reside in Cambridge. The best wishes of a host of friends will follow them to their new home.

Mr. John C. MacDonald, (prohibition officer) Souris and Capt. Charles MacDonald, Port Dover, Ont. recently visited Rollo Bay the guests of their sister Mrs. Joseph MacRae.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. MacKinnon, Bear River were recent visitors to Rollo Bay. We are glad to report that Mrs.
