ABBIES CAPTURE ISLAND INTER. TITLE

ABEGWEITS WIN ISLAND JUNIOR TITLE

DEFEAT CRYSTALS 7-1 IN FINAL GAME

Local Juniors Take Round 14-1—Heavy Checking Features Game.

The Charlottetown Abbies clinched the Island Junior Championship with a sparkling 7-1 victory over Junior Crystals, to take the round with a score of 14-1.

After a slow, cautious first period, the visitors turned on the heat, marking up three goals in the second period and four in the third.

The Abbie defense checked heavily to break up the locals' attacks and it was not until late in the third period that Unc Arsenault broke through to notch the losers' only tally.

N.S. Hockey Results

(U. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) SYDNEY, N. S., Feb. 27.—The Nova Scotia intermediate hockey team went to Oxford tonight with a 9-6 win over Dominion Royals. Oxford took the two-game series at 17-10.

Glennie and Merchant were the sharpshooters for the winners tonight, and Bill McLellan, former Mount Allison University star also was in good form.

They will now take it easy until March 8 when they are scheduled to meet winners of the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island series.

KENTVILLE, Feb. 27.—Lunenburg Falcons absorbed an 8-3 defeat from Kentville Wildcats tonight in the first of a two-game series for the Western Nova Scotia senior "B" class hockey title. The second game of the series will be played at Lunenburg, March 1.

Arriving in town after battling huge snowdrifts in the middle sections of Nova Scotia for more than 12 hours, the visitors, champions of the South Shore League, were weary and proved no match for the winners of the Valley-Central Valley League playoffs.

Ruth To Succeed McKechnie As Manager Of Braves At End Of 1935 Season

By Alan Gould, Associated Press Sports Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Babe Ruth paused long enough today—in the midst of preparations to assume the triple robes of office under the banner of Boston Braves—to confirm the general expectation that he will succeed Bill McKechnie as the full-fledged manager of the club by 1936, if not sooner.

For the time being the Babe will enjoy the novelty of combining his remaining resources as a player with the nominal jobs of assistant manager and second-vice-president of the Braves. He has pledged and will give full allegiance to McKechnie, who will have absolute authority in running the team this year, but there is also a positive understanding about the future.

"It's been definitely decided that I will take full charge of the Braves on the field next year," said Ruth. "My main ambition still is to manage a big league club and I am going to Boston with the understanding it will be fulfilled. I'll have three years, at least, with the Braves and I certainly hope things develop so that I can establish myself firmly in Boston for the rest of my baseball life."

Ruth's statement clarifies a feature of the arrangement touched upon only in general terms by Emil E. Fuchs, President of the Braves, in announcing the deal. After giving McKechnie a rousing vote of confidence, Fuchs suggested that there would be "no handicap" to Ruth's taking complete charge of the club on the field at the end of 1935.

The understanding is that McKechnie, who has piloted the team since 1930, will be elevated to the post of general manager, leaving the path clear for Ruth to take full responsibility for all "master minding" on the diamond. This is logical. The Babe's playing days are definitely numbered at the age of 41 and after 21 years in the majors so that there would be no purpose in tying him up to a long-term agreement unless his potentialities as a leader also were to be exploited.

Ruth not only looms as the financial savior of the Braves, who came close to losing even their ball park during the recent crisis in the club's affairs, but he stands to do pretty well by his own bank account. Proceeds from the exhibition games along this spring should mean a goodly extra for the Braves to cover the Babe's flat salary for 1935, understood to be around $25,000. From there on the "velvet" should begin to accumulate, with Ruth getting his "cut" from the profits which likely will mean lifting the Braves "out of the red" by mid-season.

He won't "get by"

Jim complains that his good work on the job doesn't get him anywhere. But it's his own fault. Employers today won't place confidence in a man who tries to "get by" without shaving.

A tender skin is no excuse for neglect. Today's Gillette "Blue Blade" is especially processed for fast, smooth work on sensitive faces. Even two shaves a day, when necessary, are entirely comfortable. Buy a package of Gillette "Blue Blades." See how pleasant shaving can be.

MILLIONAIRE GOLFERS

PINEHURST, N. C.—"The Tin Whistles," an exclusive golfing fraternity that gathers here once in every winter season and stages a tournament and get-together, has 45 certified millionaires in its membership of 384. About 45 others are "near-millionaires"—or perhaps uncertified.

HURRAY! ENGLAND WON

MELBOURNE—It didn't thrill the sport-page readers of England and Australia, but Australia recently defeated Britain in a croquet tournament here. The English team had previously defeated New Zealand. Page Alexander Woolcott!

STROKE OKAY AGAIN

LONDON—Cambridge's boat-racing hopes were buoyed up considerably when it was announced that N. J. Bradley, stroke of last year's victorious crew, would probably be recovered from an injured knee in time to take his place against Oxford in the annual classic on the Thames. Bradley was forced to give up rowing for two months.

SOCCER GRIPS GERMANY

BERLIN—The amazing growth of soccer in Germany is evident from the fact that there are about 13,500 clubs with about 700,000 players and 60,000 teams. In 1934 it was estimated about 9,500 played the game in this country. Every Sunday 20,000 soccer games are played throughout the country.

A SKATING ROBIN HOOD

NEW YORK—The new United States national figure skating champion, 16 year old Robin Lee, was named after England's legendary hero, Robin Hood. Lee's father, a skating instructor at St. Paul, Minn., knew and loved all the stories about the English outlaw. He named his son Robin Huntington. Robin Hood's title was Earl of Huntingdon.

ENGLAND ENTERS GAMES

LONDON—Lord Melchett is the head of a committee formed to send the entry of a British team for the second Maccabiah-Jewish Olympic Games to be held in Tel Aviv, Palestine, in April this year. It is thought the British team will make a strong showing against the favored Polish and American teams.

UNEXPECTED PLEASURE FOR BERLIN

BERLIN—Sport has no bounds in these days of rapid transit, but not even the German committee anticipated an entry from Afghanistan for the 1936 Olympic Games to be held here. Afghanistan will send a team of 25 athletes, including a field hockey team and track and field competitors.

FELLOW FOOT-RACERS

Holy Name All-Stars Defeated By Moncton Last Night By 39-11 Score.

Moncton St. Bernard's again flashing a superior passing attack that carried them in for close up shots at the basket hung a 39-11 defeat on the Holy Name Club All-Stars to ring up their second straight win on their trip to the City.

Dizzy And Babe Meet March 20

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Dizzy Dean, who says he "resents" Babe Ruth's shift to the National League, will meet the former Yankee slugger for the first time this spring at St. Petersburg, Fla., March 20, when the world champion St. Louis Cardinals are booked for an exhibition game with Boston Braves.

Dizzy has sounded the only jarring note in the otherwise universal National League welcome to the former home run monarch. Dizzy's blunt "resentment," voiced last night, took the form of sympathy for McKechnie, criticism of the American League for letting the Babe go and a prediction that National League players would put Ruth "on the pan" throughout the coming season.

Ruth was incredulous when he read Dean's remarks today and insisted he did not believe Dizzy could have said anything like that. A peaceful soul, the Babe harbors no ill will toward anyone but it has always been risky to arouse his temper. The Cubs, who stirred his ire in the 1932 world series by their "razzing," will testify to that.

SUMMERSIDE CURLERS ARE VICTORIOUS

Defeat Charlottetown Club Representatives Three Rinks to One.

Three teams of the Charlottetown Curling Club journeyed to Summerside yesterday and were defeated by the players from the Western capital by a score of three rinks to one.

Before the match the visitors were entertained to supper at the rink by the Summerside Club. Among the speakers were Mr. B. W. Robinson, President of the Summerside Club, who welcomed the Charlottetown members; Mr. W. W. Lord, President of the local club, who responded; also Messrs. Thane A. Campbell, K.C., E. P. Foley and C. Moore.

Six rinks were played, Summerside winning three, Charlottetown one and two being tied. Each of the three visiting teams played twice.

Gill Stars In Teams Victory

(U. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, Feb. 27.—Big Bill Gill who wore the uniform of Moncton Hawks when they won the Allan Cup twice in a row was in a star role tonight as Syracuse won a hard-fought 5-4 victory from Cleveland in an overtime International Hockey League game at Syracuse.

The big defenceman started the play that ended in the game-winning goal for Syracuse when he rushed with Dave Downie and Markle and after a neat passing play gave the rubber to Markle for a scoring shot.

While Gill was leading his team to victory his former teammate Aubrey Webster cracked through for a third-period goal but it was not enough for Windsor to overcome London. After holding a one-goal lead the Bulldogs faltered in the third period to allow London three quick goals for a 3-2 victory. Webster's marker gave the Bulldogs a fighting chance to get even four minutes from the end but they just failed to make it.

Senators Eliminate Redmen

(U. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, Feb. 27.—A new senior hockey champion will be crowned shortly in the Province of Quebec, the defending McGill University squad was eliminated tonight by a fighting Ottawa Senators' team that came back from a disastrous defeat at home Saturday to win 2-1 in a hard battle here tonight.

Ottawa won here last Wednesday night, also 2-1, but became underdogs in the estimation of the fans when it lost 7-0 to an inspired McGill squad at the capital on Saturday night.
