SUFFERED FOR THREE YEARS.

HEADACHES AND RUSHING OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

APPETITE WAS GONE.

TRIED MANY DIFFERENT REMEDIES BUT

MRS. WALTER MANTHORNE, BROOKLYN, N.S.

She says: "I suffered for three years with terrible headaches and rushing of blood to my head. I lost my appetite and became very thin and weak. I tried many different remedies and consulted doctors, but all in vain until I started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I had not taken more than two bottles when I began to feel better, my appetite improved wonderfully and I increased rapidly in weight. I took altogether four bottles and am now as well as can be, for which I owe my thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I can recommend it to all those suffering as I did."

BEAUTIFUL TRIMMINGS.

Rage For Old Embroideries—Spangles For Evening Wear.

The rage for lace and old embroideries is getting more and more pronounced every day.

Spangles for evening wear are coming into fashion with silver embroideries of all kinds. A wonderful gown for a debutante was made entirely of pale gray tulle spangled all over with silver. There was a wonderful cloak to go with it of gray oriental satin lined with lace and chiffon, with a high collar faced in with mechlin lace and a fichu of the same coming down almost as far as the knees, caught up at either side with old paste clasps.

There is no more acceptable wedding gift than lace, especially if it be real. Even the plainest blouse can very well support little lapets of real lace on the collar and down the front.

Some of the new hats have very high crowns trimmed with sash ribbons caught with quaint buckles, while lace is used to drape the brims. A smart model from Paris recently displayed was of old rose velvet draped with a bit of alencon lace, with a twist of shaded satin ribbon around the crown caught with a quaint buckle.

The cut shows a gown of white wool goods trimmed with scarlet and cream embroidered bands. The skirt is kilted.

Fringes More Popular Than Ever. White Cloth and Serge Dresses.

A smart white serge gown worn recently was embroidered with a tiny edging of red and white berries. It was worn with a belt of scarlet suede.

Fringes will be much worn on the early autumn cloth models.

Some white cloth dresses for smart occasions are embroidered with gold and finished with a fringe of white and gold galloon. Many of these fringes are very costly and will be used on evening dresses, as well as on sumptuous carriage wraps.

Just now the object of the chief tailors is to discover something new in traveling costumes, and some charming models have been brought out in alpaca and coarse linen.

Some of the new coats for traveling and for wear with short skirts are of three-quarter length, arranged in box plaits and finished with a mackintosh hood, which can be pulled up over the head.

The picture shows a tailor made of fine cloth, trimmed with tucks and having one of the latest plaited skirts.

Man and the Anchor.

Once upon a time a newly married man said that he was firmly anchored in the harbor of his home. He gave up his clubs and his bachelorhood friends, preferring the company of his mate.

After a short time he inadvertently carried a letter in his pocket for three days after he should have mailed it. His wife discovered his delinquency, and he received the best scolding that he had ever had and heard more things about himself than he had thought possible. He spent the evening of the storm in his favorite club.

Moral.—A heavy blow will often cause the anchor to drag.

Willing to Learn.

There was nothing to be seen except the traditional cloud—the size of a man's hand. Yet the captain made haste to shorten sail. Soon the storm burst in all its fury.

When the sky was once more bright and the captain was at leisure one of the passengers approached him reverentially.

"Excuse me, captain," he said, "but how did you know it was coming? I'm connected with the weather bureau, and I wish you'd give me some points."

Deluded.

"You look downcast," said the sympathetic person.

"I am," said the man who was late to work. "I'm the victim of a whole deception. Last night one of my boys fell off a safety bicycle and sprained his wrist, another set himself on fire with safety matches, my little girl upset a safety lamp and I cut myself with a safety razor. What I'm looking for now is something marked 'dangerous.'"

Kissing Was Barred.

Jack—Did you enjoy your call on Miss Kley last evening?

Joe—Hardly. She kept a hatpin in her mouth all the evening.

An Automobile Tongue.

Nell—She has an automobile tongue.

Belle—What do you mean?

Nell—Oh, she's always running other people down.—Philadelphia Record.

To Eliminate Seasickness.

The new boat of M. Turc of the French navy designed to pass through the waves without roll or pitch is described as a combination of submarine and high platform. The submarine is 300 feet long, 75 feet wide and 12 feet deep and is to contain boilers, engines and steering gear, which will be submerged to a depth of twelve feet. From the submarine will rise vertically two floaters, sixty-five feet apart, each 200 feet long and 10 feet wide.

When Most Deaths Occur.

That a great majority of all deaths occur between 1 and 8 o'clock a.m. is shown by the record of 5,000 cases presented to the British Medical Association by Dr. Haviland. Forty per cent. more deaths occur in the fifth hour of the morning than in the tenth hour.

Governor of the Cape.

Sir Walter Hely-Hutchinson, Governor of the Cape, was educated at Harrow and Cambridge, and called to the Bar at the Inner Temple. He went out to Australia as private secretary to Sir Hercules Robinson (afterwards Lord Rosmead), then Governor of New South Wales. One of his first duties was to accompany Sir Hercules to Fiji, whose ruler, the ex-cannibal King Thakombau, had decided to cede that Pacific group to Queen Victoria. Sir Hercules added the islands to the British dominions in her Majesty's name, but all the details and correspondence were carried out by his private secretary. After this Australian apprenticeship, Sir Walter was promoted to the West Indies, afterwards to Malta, and ten years ago to South Africa as Governor of Natal. That was a post of difficulty and danger at the outset of the late war, and if the Boers had not stopped to besiege Ladysmith, there is no telling what might have happened to Natal and its Governor. Two years ago, when Lord Milner decided to concentrate his energies on the work of administration and reorganization in the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony, Sir Walter was promoted from Natal to the Cape.

Weak Stomachs and Kidneys

Toned up and Made Healthy and Strong by the Great Tonic.

FERROZONE

"For ten years I suffered acutely from stomach trouble," writes Mr. Maxwell Thompson, of Toledo, "I always had a headache and dull feeling after meals. My appetite was poor, and I did'nt relish my food. It was all due to a weak, defective stomach. I read about Ferrozone and ordered six boxes from my druggist. It was no time at all before I felt much better, and when all the Ferrozone was used I really took a new lease of life. I am stronger, brighter and feel more like work than before trying Ferrozone. It is a splendid tonic, the best I ever used.

"Between bad kidneys and a weak stomach," writes Douglas Whittemore of Belmont, "I was reduced to a skeleton this spring. A friend strongly advised Ferrozone, so I commenced to use it. Ferrozone soon cured my stomach trouble, and made my kidneys perfectly healthy. I have since gained twenty pounds in weight, and enjoy the best of health. I believe Ferrozone saved my life, and I gratefully recommend it."

Why stay sick when Ferrozone can cure you! Don't be foolish any longer. Get some Ferrozone to-day and take it regularly. Ferrozone assures health and costs but 50c. for three weeks treatment. Six boxes sent post-paid for $2.50 by The Ferrozone Company, Kingston, Ont.
