Seventy Years Old Never Lost Day's Work

As the years creep on little sicknesses and ailments become harder to shake off than formerly, and evidences of a breakdown appear. Now is the time when aged people need a tonic, such as Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills to help them maintain their health, vigor and energy, and to brace up and invigorate the nervous system.

Mr. A. C. BIGGAR, Palermo, Ont., writes:—"I am seventy years of age; never lost a day's work, missed a meal, or took any medicine in my life, but last year I had a nervous breakdown; had headaches; no appetite; hid from people; and was in fear and anxiety; had to have someone sit beside my bed at night until I went to sleep. Hell could not be worse. I began taking Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills, and from the first I became calm and collected, and to-day I feel the same as I did years ago."

Presentation

On the rainy evening of October 11th, the citizens of Kingston and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis, to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Willis, and family, as they were about to leave to take up their position at store-keeping in Covehead. Mr. George Beer acted as chairman. The address was read by Mr. Wilbur Younker. It was as follows:

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis and Eleanor:

Dear friends:-The sands of time roll by and each year bring varying changes to our midst.

We feel that in your departure, we are losing a couple, who have been a worthy asset to our community.

To you Charlie, who have always been among us, we extend our sincerest wishes for prosperity and for your genial partner, we extend the same hearty felicitations, and hope that your cheerful countenances may make you many friends wherever you may go.

We realize that in presenting this gift, we are only expressing in a meagre way, our good wishes for your welfare and advancement, both socially and spiritually.

And although you Eleanor have decided to leave us for a short time, we could not let you depart without remembering you in some way, and we therefore ask you to accept this small gift and hope that if you do not return to this community, you will not be too far distant.

Signed on behalf of your friends of Kingston and vicinity.

The presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Willis was a beautiful China Cabinet and to Miss Willis a brown pocket book.

After the presentation a few remarks were made by several of the neighbors and then all joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows. Lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent very sociably.

On the evening of Oct. 16th, The Women's Institute presented Mrs. Willis with a silver relish dish and to Miss Willis a fountain pen.
