MISSIONARY ON FURLOUGH— Rev. Walter A. Cotton of the Anglican Community of the Resurrection arrived from South Africa on Saturday evening for a furlough at his old home in Charlottetown. He came by direct steamer from East London on the east coast of South Africa to Boston, Mass., and was just three weeks at sea. Father Cotton has completed upwards of thirty years in the missionary work of his Community serving at various stations in the Transvaal and Southern Rhodesia. Many friends in Charlottetown and throughout the Province will welcome him home after his long service in distant missionary fields.

BROADCAST FROM DENMARK —Many of his friends and others were interested in a radio broadcast from Denmark on last Thursday night in which Major Fred M. Nash of this City was one who took part. The broadcast was heard over the CBC network and was conducted by Mr. Peter Manniche head of the Danish University at Helsingor at which Major Nash attended a month's special course. The broadcast was on the question of co-operatives which form the basis of the whole Danish economy and as to whether the system could be made applicable to Canada and to what extent. Two other Canadians took part with Mr. Nash. Whilst in Helsingor Major Nash attended church service in the Chapel of Kronborg Castle made famous in Shakespeare's Hamlet.

Mr. John A. MacDonald of Cherry Valley was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital last night with injuries believed to have been inflicted by a hit and run driver yesterday afternoon.

The man, about 65 years old, is suffering from a fractured right leg below the knee, a sprained right wrist and nasty cuts about the head.

He was taken to hospital by A. E. Cutcliffe's ambulance after he was found unconscious on the road by a taxi driver from Charlottetown. He was unable to remember details of the accident when he regained consciousness shortly after he was picked up.

It is understood that he was en route to visit a friend when he was injured. He was found near the Mt. Mellick school shortly after 6 p.m. and was carried into the home of a Mr. McInnis nearby until the ambulance arrived. Mr. Cutcliffe administered first aid before moving him to hospital.

— RETURNED MEN ENTERTAINED—A most pleasant evening was spent in Darnley Hall on Monday evening November 12th when a large [illegible] gathered to do honor to several of the boys who had returned from overseas. When all had gathered, Mr. Ar[illegible] was appointed chair[illegible] [illegible] remarks, after which Mr. Frank MacNutt read a splendid address, welcoming the boys back home to civilian life after their years of hardship and sacrifice. The presentation of a nice gift was made to each boy by Mr. Stacey Roach on behalf of all present. The boys were all seated on the platform as guests of honor. All then joined in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" and Mrs. James Hickey leading at the organ. A bountiful supper was served by the ladies of the Darnley Institute and a pleasant social time followed in music and social intercourse. At a late hour, kind good nights were said and the National Anthem brought this delightful evening to a close.—S.

LOCAL RESIDENT BUYS AIRPLANE — Residents of Charlottetown yesterday observed a red Taylor Craft flying over the city on several occasions. This plane was purchased a week ago by Mr. George Newman of the city. While Mr. Newman does not fly yet himself, he intends taking lessons and learning to fly. He hopes to use the aircraft in visiting his friends throughout the Island, landing on their farms. Being a small two seated aircraft, it can land and take off in quite small spaces. The plane was flown here from Montreal by Mr. Paul Sharpe of Maritime Central Airways in five hours and fifty-five minutes. Mr. Sharpe a pre-war pilot who served with the R.C.A.F. over five and a half years, and before joining M.C.A. was a test pilot, testing Mosquitos, intends giving passenger rides and flying lessons in his spare time, in Mr Newman's plane. It will be fitted with skiis as soon as the snow arrives. The Taylor Craft, a side by side seating, wheel controlled monoplane cruises at about 80 m.p.h. and is the first plane to be owned by an Island resident since postwar restrictions were lifted on flying.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY — On Wednesday, November 7th, a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Love of Borden to extend greetings to them on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. A bounteous supper was served to those present. The table which was prettily decorated in pink and white was centred with two wedding cakes trimmed with white icing topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mr and Mrs. Love as guests of honor also sat in decorated chairs. After supper they were escorted to the living room where many gifts of silver and money were presented. The presents were opened by Mrs. John R. MacLauchlan and the verses and good wishes were read by Mrs. Albert Jay. The bride and groom thanked everyone for their lovely gifts after which the carpet was rolled and a very pleasant evening was spent in dancing until the wee small hours. After singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" and God Save the King, they departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Love many more years of happiness.

—SUPREME COURT — In the Supreme Court at Summerside on Wednesday two appeal cases were heard by Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell. The first was the King (respondent) vs. Frederick Arsenault (appellant), drunken driving. After evidence was heard the case was adjourned till Dec. 5th. The Attorney General, F. A. Large appeared for the respondent and Mr. J. S. DesRoches, K.C., for the appellant. The second case was the King (appellant) vs. John (Holman) Gallant (respondent) an appeal by the Crown from a dismissal of the Magistrate on a charge laid under the Prohibition Act. The appeal was allowed by the court and the respondent fined the sum of $300.00. At this time evidence of the analysis was given which had not been given at the Magistrate's trial. The Attorney General and Mr. C. D. McCallum appeared for the appellant and Mr. W. Henry Noonan for the defendant.—S.

—RETURNED HOME— Gnr. Kenneth J. Richards returned home Thursday, November 22, four and a half years overseas and three months in service. He joined the R.C.A. on June 5, 1941 and left for overseas September 20, 1941. He saw service in England, France Belgium Holland and Germany. He arrived in Halifax August 22, 1945 on the hospital ship "Lady Nelson" After spending 30 days leave with his wife and relatives he returned to Debert, N.S., where he was in the hospital up until the time he received his discharge. Friends are glad to see him return home to his native country. He is the son of Mrs. W.C. Wood of Summerside. Gnr. Richards and his wife are now living at 101 Granville St. Summerside with his parents.

—ENJOYABLE SHOWER — A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Leona Schurman on Nov. 7th, in honor of her son Don, and his bride (nee Martha Dawson of Albany.) The heavily laden baskets were carried in by Norma Woodside and Betty Tuplin. Mrs. Bert Poole opened the parcels and Mrs. Lewis Mosse and Mrs. Lorne Waite read the humorous verses and Mrs. Harold Mosse arranged the gifts on the table. A purse of money was presented and a nicely worded address was read by Mr. Harold Mosse. An autograph quilt was presented from the Traveller's Rest Women's Institute of which she was a member for the past year. Don then thanked one and all on behalf of his bride for the lovely gifts and invited them to come and visit them at any time.

Mr. Peter G. Clark of Summerside, chairman of the Prince Edward Island regional reconstruction council, announced yesterday the appointment of Mr. J. J. Trainor of Bedford to the council, representing labor. Mr. Trainor expects to leave today for Moncton to attend a meeting in connection with his appointment.
