

Spring Skin Troubles

Every spring, for years, Mr. Amos Smith, of Port Hood, C.B., suffered from boils, until he used Zam-Buk. He writes:

"Each spring they would return and break out on my hands and arms. At times they were so bad that I could scarcely work. I tried various remedies without receiving any benefit. I consulted a doctor, but he was unable to cure me.

"Then a friend recommended Zam-Buk. The improvement after using the first box was surprising. I continued until the boils had entirely disappeared, and I have never had any return since."

Zam-Buk is also unequalled for eczema, ulcers, abscesses, scap sores, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, scalds, etc. All druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto; 56c. box, 3 for $1.25.

PRESENTATION

At the close of the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Appin Road last Friday evening, Mr. James Smith, Vice-President of the Society, asked Miss Mary Smith to come forward and read the following address. The presentation of an envelope containing bank notes was made by Miss Glenie Cudmore.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McKay:

We, this Christian Endeavor Society of Appin Road feel deeply indebted to you for coming to us to renew in our hearts the debt of gratitude we owe to God and awaking in the hearts of others an interest in the wonders of His love, and a desire to live as His children. As well for organizing this Society, a place to which our young people may gather, where they may be kept near to Him to whom they have given their hearts. We fully realize how you have sacrificed other interests in coming to us, and we appreciate your services. Since your pastorate at Hampton we have looked forward to your coming here to preach, from time to time, with joyful expectancy. And the meetings which you have recently conducted in this church, have been of the utmost value and help to this people.

We earnestly hope you will be spared to continue your work with us, and cordially invite you to come to our Endeavor, and our homes as often and whenever time permits you. And now we humbly ask you to accept this small gift of appreciation given merely as an acknowledgment in our behalf. We extend to you our sympathy and gratitude, with our heartiest wishes for health, and an abundance of large harvests in your life work of winning souls for Jesus.

Signed in behalf of Appin Road Christian Endeavor Society, James Smith, Vice-President; William Gillespie, Secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. McKay both replied thanking the people for past and present kindness and informed them that their work with them was a labor of love.

CANADA HONORS OUR FLAG WITH ITS OWN

CHICAGO, April 20.—At Ottawa, the Canadian capital, the Stars and Stripes and the Canadian ensign were run up on the parliament buildings and floated side by side—a graceful tribute to this country and a stirring symbol of the fact that the two great democracies of North America are now one in spirit and purpose.—American Patriot.

PRINCE EDWARD THEATRE

The first chapter of another very interesting new Vitagraph serial, "The Secret Kingdom," adapted from the pen of the famous author Louis Joseph Vance was presented at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday.

Taking advantage of his monarch's lack of funds, Prime Minister Simond of Albania, who secretly aspires to the throne, induces him to pass an obnoxious tax bill. Then, with his sovereign unpopular, Simond feels it a good time to strike the blow, so he hires two villains to assassinate the King, Philip II, and Queen Alice, while they are hunting in the royal forests.

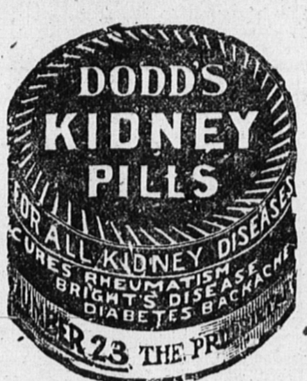

Captain Barreto, Commander of the Albanian palace guard, and a loyal friend of Philip II, realizes Simond's dastardly plan, and when his legs him issues an order for the apprehension of the King's Crown Prince—the only obstacle remaining in his path to the throne, he dashes off with him to America, with the aid of Juan, a fisherman.

Barreto makes arrangements with Juan to keep in communication with his brother, Lieut. Barreto, who will inform him of the events in Albania.

Simond proclaims himself Prince Regent, and with a bold bid for popularity, rescinds the obnoxious tax bill which he was instrumental in creating—his first official act.

Meanwhile, Captain Barreto and the Crown Prince arrive in the harbor of New York and sight the great Statue of Liberty, which rises before them symbolic of the land to which they are journeying where there are no kings and where prince and pauper have the same say in the government of the country.

Two notable contributions to literature were "In His Steps" and "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong," by the Reverend Charles M. Sheldon, which created a profound impression at the time of their publication. With these two great stories as a basis, a photoplay has been produced called "The Martyrdom of Philip Strong" featuring Robert Conness and Mabel Trumbull. It was at the Prince Edward Theatre last evening and will be repeated today. It is a great picture which all should see.
