"BEAVER FLOUR"

makes ideal bread and pastry, because it is a perfect blend of Manitoba Spring wheat and Ontario Fall wheat. You don't need to keep two kinds of flour for bread and pastry. Beaver Flour makes both—a pure, white, nourishing, light loaf that "stands up" in the oven, and pastry that is crisp and appetizing. It is more economical than other flours, and appeals to all thinking women. Order it to-day from your grocer.

ALL LIKED HIM.

Bill Miner Was Good to His Friends, Says Acquaintance.

"Jim Anderson, or Bill Miner, as he is more familiarly known to scores of detectives, prison wardens and the world in general, is one of the kindest and most tender-hearted men it was ever my lot to fall in with," writes E. V. in Toronto World, with reference to the famous jail-breaker and train robber, who is again at liberty.

"I remember years ago, when at Eagle City, B.C., where we practically lived together for nearly eight years, Bill secured a job. I forget at the moment just what it was, but I know he stuck to it for nearly eight months, and for his industry was rewarded with two months' pay.

"One day Bill held up a stage coach where there happened to be one lady passenger. He went through every one, as clean as a whistle, but after excitement had died away and Bill was gone, the lady found she was $300 richer for his visit. He had left that amount in her traveling bag during his search for valuables.

"He would always spend every cent he had immediately he got to town, and if anyone was known to be in want they never had to appeal to Bill for help in vain. Many of the same old Bill has helped me out of financial difficulties when I belonged to the 'down and out club,' and there is no thing I would not do for him to-day if it were in my power.

"I hear there is a reward of $300 offered for him. Well, they'll never get him, for Bill has got a bunch of friends who would never go back on him not for ten times the money.

"He seems to make friends wherever he went. If you happened to be classed as his friend and incidentally got mixed up in a little deal he had on hand to get the wherewithal to buy a few necessities and have a good time, your friend Bill went through you the same as the rest, but after he met you alone he usually handed you a few 'bones' extra to make up for the trouble and inconvenience he had put you to.

"Yes, Mr. Bill is a fine man. A little too forcible perhaps when he wanted anything, and with not too great an education, nevertheless he is a great man.

"They'll never keep Bill in prison. There isn't a prison in America, or anywhere else for that matter, that could hold Bill.

"No, sir, he's too slippery."
