Amatite ROOFING
Needs No Painting

MOST ready roofings require special painting and coating, and unless this is done regularly, you are sure to have leaks and trouble right along.

If you use Amatite, nothing of the sort is required. You will have real roof protection without painting of any kind.

Amatite is made to stay waterproof and give protection year after year, without any thought or care on your part.

First—Because it is waterproofed with Coal Tar Pitch.

Second—Because it has a real Mineral Surface.

Amatite, owing to these features, is the most economical roofing made. Its first cost is low, and you are saved all future expense for repairs or paint because it will need neither.

If you haven't seen Amatite, write for a sample to-day. From it you will very quickly understand why it doesn't require painting; why it does not leak; and why it saves you money.

Make Your Newspaper Advertising Profitable

Newspaper advertising costs too much for experimenting. It is mistaken economy to try it today and stop it tomorrow. The wheels of business should never stop and the whole machine is out of gear unless the big advertising wheel is always turning A constant ad works all the time and charges no overtime.

You'll admit that the newspaper is the greatest medium of advertising, and if "any old kind" of advertising pays haven't you every reason to believe that with the attention of specialists your advertising would prove much more profitable. Advertising is our business—we know how to analyse your goods, to pick out their strong selling points, we understand the class of people you are catering to, then we prepared the advertising in an interesting "catchy" way that will beget confidence. With all we give the printer a design to follow—showing how to lay out the ads so that they will "stand out" from other ads—that will be attractive. The same as an architect gives plans for a building.

This service is a combination of newspapers and advertising specialists—the strongest forces known to day in the mercantile world.

And, then, the very fact of our carrying a large list of clients enables us to quote merchants prices that would not permit them to even waste their time if they were specialists in advestising.

No advertising or printed matter too large or small to receive our attention—when you think of advertising, think of us. We'll take pleasure in quoting prices. Phone 123.

CEREMONY AT CORNATION

realm; wherefore, all you who are come this day to do your homage, are willing to do the same?"

RESPONSE GENERAL.

According to the ancient rules of the coronation ceremony the response to this question should be loud and repeated acclamations, all with one voice crying "God Save King George." When the Archbishop opens the service the King alone may remain seated. His chair is the historical coronation chair of English sovereigns. Beneath its seat is placed the so-called "Lia Fail," or "Stone of Destiny." After the sermon which is customary the Archbishop will proceed at once to administer the oath. Standing before the King he will say:

"Sir, is your Majesty willing to take the oath?"

The King—"I am willing."

The Archbishop—"Will you solemnly promise and swear to govern the people of this United Kingdom of Great Britain, Ireland and the dominions thereto belonging according to the statutes in Parliament agreed on and the respective laws and customs of the same?"

The King—I solemnly promise so to do.

The Archbishop—Will you, to your power, cause law and justice in mercy to be executed in your dominions?

The King—I will.

The Archbishop—Will you, to your utmost of your power maintain the laws of God, the true profession of the Gospel and the Protestant Reformed religion, established by law? And will you maintain and preserve inviolably the settlement of the Church of England, and the doctrine, worship discipline and government thereof, as by law established in England? And will you preserve upon the Bishops and clergy of England and the church therein committed to their charge all such rights and privileges as by law do or shall appertain to them or any of them?

The King—All this I promise to do.

The King will then go to the altar to make his solemn oath:

"The things which I have heretofore promised I will perform and keep so help me God."

While a golden canopy is held over the head of the King the Archbishop will anoint his head with oil. The King will resume his seat after the anointing prayer, after which the Lord Great Chamberlain will touch his Majesty's heels with the golden spurs, the Dean of Westminister will assist his Majesty to don the magnificent supertunica of cloth of gold and the sword of state will be brought from the altar by the Archbishop. He will place it in the King's right hand while he recites the words ordained by the ritual, an exhortation to do justice and preserve order and righteousness. The sword will be girt upon the King, the sceptre and cross will be placed in the King's right hand and the sceptre with the dove in his left, while he will be exhorted to punish the wicked, protect and cherish the just and lead his people in the way they should go.

The supreme moment will have then arrived. The Archbishop will take the crown and approaching the King, who will be seated, will say:—

"O God, bless, we beseech Thee, and sanctify this, Thy servant, George, our King, and as Thou dost this day set a crown of gold upon his head, so enrich his royal heart with Thine abundant grace and crown him with all princely virtues."

The Archbishop will then set the crown upon the King's head. This will be a signal for acclamations of "Long live King George!"

The Queen will be crowned by the Archbishop of York. She will approach and bow to the King, and will then take her place upon her own throne. Both the King and the Queen will take part in a communion service. The retirement from the Abbey will be in the same order as the coming.

London will be alive with merriment and enthusiasm all of the night of coronation day. There will be singing and dancing on the streets. There will be undoubtedly a magnificent electrical display in the decorations of public and private buildings, and the illuminations will reach even to the suburbs.

One Woman's Statement

Tell Her Suffering Sisters to Use Dodd's Kidney Pills

They Proved a Blessing to Her When Her Pains and Weakness Were Almost More Than She Could Bear.

St. George, Man., May 20.—(Special).—Hoping to save her sister woman in the West from pains and aches which come at the critical times in a woman's life' Mrs Arsene Vinet of this place has given the following statement for publication:

"I have brought up a large family and have always enjoyed good health until the last two years. I am fifty-four years of age and at the critical time of life that comes to every woman, I had pains in my right shoulder. I could not lie down two minutes at a time without suffering the greatest agony. Sometimes I awakened with a feeling as if some one had laid a piece of ice on my head. Another time it would be a burning pain under the left shoulder.

"I took many medicines but could get no relief, till reading of cures of similar cases to my own by Dodd's Kidney Pills, led me to try them. They did wonders for me.

"I want all women to know what Dodd's Kidney Pills did for me."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidneys. The woman who has sound Kidneys is safeguarded against nine-tenths of the suffering that makes life a burden to the women of Canada.

MATINS.

Rev. W. A. Thomson.

Oh, all is right:
The morning gates a'drip with dew,
The jewelled world is good and true,
Her cheery choirs their songs renew,
Stars chant beyond the veiling blue
Yes, all is right.

Oh, all is right?
A spirit morning vesture wears,
Forsakes the fretting nightly cares,
A'rest upon a sea of prayers,
A'waft upon celestial airs;
Yes, all is right.

Oh, all is right,
When morning drips her dews o'er me
And swings a gladd'ning symphony
Day—long a'down my furrowing lea,
League—long a'thwart my smiling sea
Yes, all is right.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ALL ROUND THE WORLD.

In Germany there are about 10,000 Sunday Schools, with over 1,000,000 scholars.

* * *

It is estimated that there are 20,000 boys and girls in the Hawaiian islands, but only 8,000 of them are in Protestant Sunday Schools.

* * *

The Missionary Society of the Methodist Church in Canada receives nearly one fourth of its income from the Sunday Schools and young people's societies.

* * *

There are 150,000 Sunday Schools in the United States, with twelve million scholars. This mighty army ought to count for something as a moral force.

* * *

Dr. Hiraiwa, of Japan, says that there never was a time in the history of the church in Japan when so large a number of young people were more ready to devote themselves to Sunday School work.

* * *

Sunday School work has prospered immensely in the German Evangelical Cantons of Switzerland. There are parts of the country where you will scarcely find a single little village without a Sunday School.

* * *

In India there is a Sunday School union which binds together the Sunday School workers of sixty out of the seventy existing missionary societies, in a Bible-teaching and character-building crusade.

* * *

There are only about 150 Sunday Schools in Spain. Although the time for them to begin is ten o'clock on Sunday morning, many of the children appear as early as eight o'clock. The exercises close shortly after noon.

* * *

In Korea it is the custom to have a weekly teachers' meeting, fully attended, for lesson preparation, conducted by the missionary or native pastor. In some cases teachers are not permitted to teach if not present at the teachers' meeting.

* * *

In some of the cities in Turkey there are Sunday Schools with seven or eight hundred scholars. Men and women, as well as children, attend; and the session lasts from an hour and a half to two hours. The discussions in the classes are very animated.

* * *

Sunday Schools in Russia do not hibernate during the winter as many do in Canada. "The children are so anxious to attend that if they are snowed in and see no other way of getting out of the house they crawl up through the chimney to attend the Sunday School."

* * *

Organized Sunday School work in China began at Shanghai in 1907. Previous to that time successful schools were scattered here and there in the Empire, but they were few in number, and there was a complete lack of coordination of effort. Now much attention is being given to this institution, and a prominent missionary says: "The facts abundantly prove that Sunday School work will, in the near future, be as important a factor in the Christian Church in China as in the home lands."

"A MIRACULOUS REMEDY"

Lady in Hull wasted away until she weighed only 80 pounds

TOOK "FRUIT-A-TIVES" JUST IN TIME

This wonderful Fruit Medicine Completely Cured Her after 12 years suffering.

184 CHAUDIERE ST., HULL, QUE.—December 24th, 1909.

"For the past twelve years, I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia. Finally in March, 1908, I suffered such tortures that I was compelled to stay in bed. I could not digest my food and everything I ate caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach. I also had a fearful attack of Constipation and at times, I had no movement of the bowels for two weeks. My feet were constantly cold. Three doctors attended me for two years and gave me all kinds of medicines but did me no good. My weight came down to only 80 pounds and every one thought I was going to die. Finally I had the good fortune to buy "Fruit-a-tives" and as soon as I began to take them, I felt better. I persisted in the treatment and to my great joy and to the astonishment of my friends, I improved. Now I feel very well, weigh 115 pounds and this is more than I ever weighed, even before my illness. I attribute my cure solely and entirely to "Fruit-a-tives" and can never praise them too much for they saved my life. To all who suffer from Dyspepsia and Constipation, I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" as being a miraculous remedy."

MADAME ANDREW STAFFORD

MADAME ANDREW STAFFORD.

When you read such a letter, you think that "Fruit-a-tives" is indeed a wonderful remedy, yet the action of "Fruit-a-tives" is so simple that a child can understand it. "Fruit-a-tives" is made from concentrated and intensified fruit juice and the finest nerve tonics, and acts directly on the liver, causing sufficient bile to flow, which regulates the bowels and cures Constipation. "Fruit-a-tives" also acts on the stomach, producing an abundance of gastric juice and so strengthens the stomach muscles that complete digestion is assured. "Fruit-a-tives" also regulates kidneys and skin, thus purifying the blood and building up the whole system. Without exaggeration, it may be stated that "Fruit-a-tives" is the greatest remedy in the world for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Constipation. 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers or send postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.
