INSTITUTE NOTES.—The regular meeting of the Murray Harbor Farmers Institute was held on March first with a good attendance. Communications were read in answer to resolutions previously forwarded to Ottawa, Requesting that the Murray Harbor Branch of the P.E. Island Railway be widened to standard gauge. Satisfaction was expressed at the report that a bank would begin business at Murray Harbor on March third. A resolution was passed that this Institute is in favor of National Prohibition, and is signing the petitions asking for prohibition. A resolution was also passed that this Institute disapprove of Daylight Saving, on account of the inconvenience it causes to farmers. A discussion on the Rural Telephone was taken part in by a number of members, but owing to conditions the prospects of establishing a Rural Telephons are not very good.

Cigar Assortment

The advantage of assortment is almost as important as quality. For instance, you smoke a particular brand as long as it suits your taste.

But when you want a change, you wish to select a new one, from as many brands as possible, and when you decide on a brand, the question of shade, shape size etc., is also to be considered.

The advantage of our extraordinary assortment of high-grade cigars is what we offer you.
