
SO MUCH DEPENDS ON THE LIGHTING

WHAT is more comfortable than good light—and what other comfort so cheap in cost?

A 75-watt Edison Mazda Lamp gives two and one-half times as much light as a 40-watt Edison Mazda Lamp, yet the difference in current cost averages only a third of a cent an hour.

Use light freely—and use it rightly. A living room without a floor or table lamp cannot possess the charm of one containing either or both. Put white or frosted Edison Mazda Lamps in portable floor or table lamps, and clear Edison Mazda Lamps in fixtures that do not permit the eye to see the lamp.

Near you is an Edison Mazda Lamp store, recognizable by the yellow and blue cartons. There you can obtain real information about good lighting.

75-watt gas-filled Edison Mazda Lamp for use in semi-indirect fittings, and fixtures that do not permit the eye to see the lamp.

RELIEVING.—Mr. P. C. Robinson Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia and Mrs. Robinson, left Monday for a three weeks' visit to relatives and friends in New Brunswick. Mr. J. J. Gray, of Souris, P. E. I. is relieving at the bank during Mr. Robinson's absence.

MAKING GOOD RECOVERY.—Mr. Gordon Land of North Rustico, returned to his home on Saturday last—after three weeks treatment in the P. E. I. Hospital. Mr. Laird underwent an operation for appendicitis, and his many friends in town and country will learn with much pleasure of his recovery. Mr. Laird speaks in the highest terms of the hospita land staff. —M.

THE GOOSE CROP.—Mr. C. E. Austin of Mansfield, Mass., the well known goose buyer was in the city yesterday. This year his headquarters are at Albany and he has secured only three cars of live geese, about 4,000 in all, as against 6,000 bought last year. The price paid this year at the farmers' homes was $1.25 as against $2.00 paid last year. Mr. Austin estimates that there are 35,000 geese on the Island this year. He had contracted for many more than he was able to secure owing to the failure of a number of farmers keeping their promise to deliver the goods. Mr Austin leaves this morning on return to Mansfield.

ISLANDERS LEAD.—Mr. William J. McDonald of 121 C street San Rafael, was one of many P. E. Islanders who marched in San Francisco on October 5th with 60,000 other members of the Holy Name Society, says the Oakland Maple Leaf. Mr. McDonald's life is that of one standard; that of right, so he takes a laudable pride in marching side by side with many men who shun vulgarity and profanity in their speech. His wife and young son, who have been vacationing on Prince Edward's Isle since early July, are to be home to bask 'neath California skies before November sets in.

O'BRIEN-POWER WEDDING.—A pretty wedding was solemnized October 12 at the Sacred Heart Church, Malden, Mass., when the Rev. T. J. Flynn united in marriage Miss Lydia Theresa Powers, daughter of Mrs. Theresa and the late Thos. Powers, to Mr. Joseph Edward O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs John O'Brien, of West Newton Mass. Miss Anna Powers, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, Mr Frank Meade, of Charlestown Mass., was best man. The bride was attired in white crepe romaine with old English veil caught up with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid wore orchid chiffon with hat to match, and carried American Beauty roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a sterling rosary in case, to the bridesmaid a steel beaded bag, and to the best man a pair of white and gold cuff links. After the ceremony at the church a catered supper was served at the bride's house, which was prettily decorated with roses and green ferns. Late in the evening the happy couple left for a two weeks honeymoon trip to New York and other parts. On their return they will live in Malden, Mass. The bride was formerly from Long River, P. E. Island, and was employed in the auditing department of the Federal Reserve Bank, Boston, Mass. The groom is a graduate of Newton grammar and high school, and is also employed in the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, Mass. They were the recipients of many gifts.

HELPING THE ORPHANS.—In response to request, many clergymen throughout the town and country preached Sunday last on our duty and privilege to aid orphans. Especially was the effort directed to The Protestant Orphanage of P. E. Island. A brief synopsis of one sermon is given from memory, by one of the Guardian correspondents. ::What I wish to say applies to our attitude toward all orphans whether they are in a community or institution, for orphans we find with us everywhere, and at all times. They are of three classes—the absolute orphan—a child bereft of the loving care of both father and mother—the child who had lost one parent—and the third class which is by far the most pitable—the one who has no legal nor moral right to call anyone their parent. But our obligations remain unchanged in regard to class. In these days of hunt for the more remunerative investment that can be made—we think too often of but the mundane income—earthly life is brief and who would not wish to feel that they had laid a treasure where moth will not corrupt? What an enjoyable thought—that I was able to feed, clothe, and educate even one unprotected little one. How full of promise are those "inasmuchas." Inasmuchas you did it to one of the least of these, ye did it to Me" None of us here in P. E. I. need to ask when saw we "Thee"—sick, or naked "we have right here and now the offer to invest our wealth be it great or little in the greatest and best cause—that of succoring the poor and hungry. "Whosever seeth his neighbor in want and shutteth up his bowels of compassion—how dwellest the love of God in him?" In conclusion the pastor emphasized the need of P. E. I. Protestant Orphanage and entreated all to give to their utmost ability. —M.

P. W. C. DEBATE.—Section A. held an excellent debate yesterday morning on the subject: Resolved that statesmen are of more service to a country than are warriors. The speakers were as follows:—Pro., Gordon McMillan, Lottie Farrel, Antonin Bernard, Cora Shea; Con., Harry Foster, Bessie Giddings, Benoit Martin, Earith Sinclair. The pro side speakers cited many incidents from history to prove their case. The military rulers of Germany were the cause of the Great War, but gave no assistance in reconstruction. The work of the warrior is not continuous as is that of the statesman. Warriors can be dispensed with whereas statesmen are a necessity. The great work of humanity being done by the League of Nations was referred to. The con side contend that great empires are built up by warriors. Statesmen bring on war, but the army ends it. The warrior won for us the right to vote. The statesman is entangled in graft. He depends upon the warrior in trouble times. The pro side won by a considerable majority and after a few words of commendation by the critic, Mr. Bover, and the Hon. President, Dr. Robertson, the meeting adjourned.

DR. HEARTZ PREACHES.—The Sackville Post says that Rev. Dr. Heartz, of Amherst, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday morning, his subject being Missions. Taking as his text "Our Father Who Art in Heaven," the speaker delivered an interesting and forceful discourse to a large congregation. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Philp, assisted in the service. Dr. Heartz pointed out that his text contained two great teachings—the Fatherhood of God and The Brotherhood of Man. These two doctrines constitute the foundation upon which the Missionary Movement rests. The speaker reviewed briefly the inauguration of the missionary movement on this continent a hundred years ago, and told of the missionary work both at home and in foreign lands. Dr. Heartz also referred to the problem of Canadianizing the many foreign immigrants, who have settled in Western Canada. Dangers are imminent if these people are not Canadianized, said the speaker. Despite his 83 years, Rev. Dr. Heartz spoke with exceptional force and vigor, and gave evidence of the possession of a wonderful memory for facts and dates.

May Be Reconciled After Seventy Years

LONDON, Oct. 29.—In 1854 a young man of twenty led his bride to the altar of a little church near Llandovery, in Carmarthenshire South Wales.

The marriage ceremony was performed, and the couple went to the vestry, but there the bride refused to sign the register and returned to her home.

She now lives in a cottage in the same district, and has expressed a wish to be buried in the clothes she wore on the day, seventy years ago, when she went to the church as a bride.

The bridegroom, who—like his bride—is now 90 years old, has also returned to the village, and efforts are being made to reconcile the couple.

ATLANTIC SUGAR WILL MAKE AN EXCELLENT SHOWING

MONTREAL, Oct. 29.—Atlantic Sugar Refineries will make an excellent showing for the year in spite of the decrease in exports as compared with last year. For 1923 the earnings amounted to $1,459,982, and after inetrest, depreciation, etc., there remained a net surplus for the year of $606,931. This reduced the accumulated deficit from $5,094,778 to $4,487,846. While it is not expected that the current year will show as large earnings as last year there will be a substantial surplus to apply against the unfortunate deficit that resulted from the heavy slump in raw and refined sugars nearly four years ago.

THE YOUNGEST SAILOR IN BRITAIN, 11 YEARS

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The youngest sailor cadet in the British Isles, Cadet R. W. J. N. Rumbold, aged 11¼ years, recently joined H. M. S. Worcester off Greenhithe. He is the son of Captain C. E. A. L. Rumbold and is a relative of Sir Horace Rumbold, British Ambassador at Madrid. The average age for joining the Worcester, the nautical training ship, is 13, the course of education usually occupying two years. In pre-war days the number of students was about 160, but since the war it has risen to about 200.

For want of a spoon

FOR want of a spoon—or to be exact—for want of a dozen of them and the rest of a well-rounded silverware equipment, many a family has lost the habit of "giving parties." And, as a consequence, has suddenly found itself left out of other people's parties. Life has become unnecessarily dull—especially for the sons and daughters!

* * * *

Does your present silverware make it easier to give the parties that would mean so much to your family's happiness? Or have you lost the habit of entertaining because your silverware is no longer sufficient for the guests you would invite?

Truly it is unnecessary to let lack of silverware stand in the way of entertaining. In "1847 Rogers Bros." you can add just the pieces you need—conveniently and at small expense—coffee spoons, salad forks, orange spoons or serving pieces. Their beauty will add distinction to every table setting. Their durability has long been accepted. Leading dealers throughout the Dominion carry this fine silverplate.

May we send you a copy of our booklet, "Etiquette, Entertaining and Good Sense"? Its illustrations of table settings are authoritative to the last degree. You will find it full of suggestions for successful entertaining. Write for it to-day. Meriden Britannia Co., Limited, Hamilton, Ontario.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Roper Celebrate

A very enjoyable function took place Monday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Roper, Central Royalty, the occasion being the celebrating of the Twentieth Anniversary of the wedding of that estimable couple.

After the company consisting of relatives and neighbors had assembled, Mr. T. P. Cullen of Sherwood read the following address, and presented Mr. and Mrs. Roper with a valuable China dinner set, also a handsome hand painted China fruit set.

To Mr. and Mrs. James F. Roper,
Central Royalty,
Dear Friends:

On this the Twentieth Anniversary of your wedding day the company assembled in your beautiful and hospitable home take the opportunity of extending to you their heartiest congratulations on rounding out a fifth of a century along life's road together.

Hand in hand you have travelled over the smooth and rough places, down hill and up hill, in fair and stormy weather, sharing each other's sorrows, sharing each other's joys.

Your experience is but another notable illustration of the fact that it is quite possible to be happy though married.

We hear a good deal today about co-operation, and the Ropers' Co-Operative Association consisting of husband, wife and family has set an example that many a wedded pair may follow.

It goes without saying that the head of the house in achieving such a high standing among the agriculturists and cattle breeders of the Maritime Provinces has had the wise counsel and assistance from other members of the household.

Your efforts also on behalf of the general welfare of the community have been such as to win commendation on all sides, and the term "successful and popular Islanders at home" may be well applied to the residents of Willow Farm.

In token of our high regard for you and as a souvenir of this auspicious event, we ask you to accept the accompanying gift. Just as your cup of happiness must be filled to overflowing tonight, so imagine every cup and piece of these China sets filled to overflowing with our good wishes for continued happiness and prosperity.

Mr. Roper made a fitting and appreciative reply stating that the address and presentation came as a complete surprise to him. On behal fof his wife and himself he expressed hearty thanks for the magnificent gift and for the kind sentiments contained in the address

Supper was afterwards served at whic hthe health of the "bride and groom" was heartily drunk, and brief speeches of felicitation were made by Messrs Cullen, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Wood, Mr. and Mrs Webb, Mrs. Pendergast of Hope River, Mr. John B. Roper, Mr. Reuben MacDonald and others.

The evening was spent very enjoyably in music, vocal and instrumental by Mrs. Alexander Agnew, Miss Melvina Gordon and Miss Nadine Roper, and at an early hour in the morning the guests departed after singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows," "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King."

LADY CYNTHIA MOSLEY NOT SPARING HER OLD FATHER MARQUIS CURZON

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Lady Cynthia Mosley, daughter of Marquis Curzon of Kedleston and wife of Oswald Mosley, Labor candidate against Neville Chamberlain in the Ladywood division to Birmingham, is a picturesque and active figure in the election. She trudges through relentless rain to canvas handfuls of women in behalf of her husband, and rain or shine she is "on the job" almost continuously.

Between filial and marital devotion there is no compromise with Lady Cynthia Mosley. While her father makes startling onslaughts on the Labor government, such as that in his speech in the city of London a couple of nights ago, when he declared that the government was "in the hands of its gunmen" and was not master of itself, Lady Cynthia speaks in unmeasured terms of Premier MacDonald's wonderful achievements.

Lady Cynthia Mosley gives the Labor premier credit particularly for his achievements as foreign secretary in clearing up the mess left by his predecessor in the secretaryship—otherwise her father, Marquis Curzon, foreign secretary in the Baldwin government.

Why YOU Should Purchase a Canadian Government Annuity

Because in old age it will free you from the dread of poverty or of becoming a burden upon others;

Because it will bring you comfort and independence in your later years;

BECAUSE IT WILL GIVE YOU A LARGER RETURN FOR THE AMOUNT INVESTED THAN ANY OTHER LIFE INVESTMENT OF EQUAL SECURITY.

For example, if a man of 20 will pay to the Dominion Government the sum of $5.31 a month until he is 60, the Government will agree to pay to him from 60 as long as he lives $50 a month—a return equal to over 23½% on the total amount paid.

If he dies before 60, every dollar that he paid in, with 4% compound interest, would be returnable to his heirs. If he should die between 59 and 60, the amount so returnable in a cash sum would be $6,230.00.

Such an Annuity may be of any amount from $50 to $5,000 a year, the cost being relatively the same. It is non-forfeitable, cannot be seized for debt, and is free from Dominion Income Tax. For full particulars fill out this Coupon and address it as directed.

"Nerves in Bad State Could Not Sleep"

Mrs. H. N. Tardell, Harrowsmith, Ont., writes:

"My nerves were in a very bad state, and for nearly six months I did not know what it was to have a good night's rest. I could not eat, and never felt well. I heard about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and thought I would try it. After taking it for a few days I began to feel better, and soon was able to sleep well at night. My appetite also returned, and I felt stronger and better, and after taking three boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was quite well. I have also given the Nerve Food to my little girl, with good results."

PUSSYFOOT JOHNSON TO VISIT PROVINCES

NEW GLASGOW, Oct. 29.—New Glasgow is to have a visit from "Pussyfoot" Johnson, the celebrated prohibitionist fighter and lecturer. A representative of the Dominion Temperance Alliance was in New Glasgow Saturday evening, and succeeded in interesting a number of local men in the visit of this noted orator. It is expected that he will be in New Glasgow about November 20th and may also speak in Stellarton in the afternoon of the same day.

He comes here under the auspices of the Social Service Council, and it is understood that following the referendum in Ontario a Dominion wide campaign will be undertaken to restore prohibition throughout Canada, and one of the leaders in the fight will be this American speaker, who has been a headliner in the press of Canada, United States and Europe for the past few years, and whose name is synonymous with the championship of the prohibition cause. He will be accompanied by Rev. Ben Spence of Toronto.

CARRIED OFF DOWRY
But Failed to Keep Promise to Marry Fiancee

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Anna Caspar 55, offered Philip Saandman, 65, $600 if he would marry her. He accepted both the proposal and money, but failed to carry out his end of the contract. When police arrested him he still had $360 of the "dowry" left. He is being held for investigation.
