The tiny home would not accom-

Farmer suggested that the marshal allow the four men to return to their homes and spend the night, pledging his word of honor that all would return the following morning. Shaffer spent the night in the home of the father of the

Bear Scare in Tonbridge

(Dominion News Service.)
TONBRIDGE, May 22.—Consternation spread like wildfire through the streets of Tonbridge today when it was reported that a bear was at large in the poultry yard of a house.
Mothers called their children in from the streets, doors were shut and barricaded, while scared faces peered fearfully through windows from behind curtains. A few brave spirits, armed with guns, staves and any weapons on which they could lay their hands, ventured in a body down Valerod. Near the station the quarry was viewed.
A fusillade of shots rang out, and the "bear" fell dead. It was a fine specimen of the badger, weighing nearly 300 lbs.

Beauty

The Criterion of true Beauty is that it increases on examination, of false, that is lessens. There is something, therefore, in true Beauty that corresponds with right reason, and is not merely the creature of Fancy.

Notorious Woman Posed as Man

(Canadian Press)
BERLIN, May 22.—Here you Waranowski lived for many months in a Berlin boarding house and enjoyed the reputation of a model roomer. He was polite, considerate and always prompt in the payment of his rent, and no one in the house ever even suspected that this young man was a woman, the notorious Clara Wittig, with a criminal record.

One of the woman lodgers was amazed one night to find Warano-wsk standing over her bed, revolver in hand demanding her valuables. She visited and robbed all the other lodgers before disappearing. The police caught the culprit, and thus was her identity revealed.
