OF LOCAL INTEREST.—One evening this week Rev. Hamilton Wigle, who, in a fortnight or thereabouts, will leave Halifax for Mount Allison, to enter on his duties as president of the Ladies' College, was the guest of honor at a banquet given by the Methodist social union an organization made up of ten representative laymen from each of the Methodist churches of Halifax and Dartmouth, together with the pastors of those churches. Mr. F. W. Killam, the president, occupied the chair, a resolution expressing regret at Mr. Wigle's departure and the sense of loss in his going, being moved by T. A. E. Piers, seconded by Alexander Bond, and spoken of by all the ministers and a number of the laymen all of whom expressed a sense of the value of Mr. Wigle's influence in the community. It was a most interesting occasion and very fully enjoyed. Mr. Wigle's response to the addresses being a very happy one. The tables were beautifully appointed and decorated with flowers a committee of ladies of the Grafton street Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Allison and Mrs. Charles Bell, having these matters in charge.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday June 6th, at the Baptist Parsonage, Hazelbrook, when Rev. F. N. Atkinson united in marriage Miss Emma Jenkins and Mr. Wm. Jones.
