THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Lieutenant Governor Rogers and Mrs. Rogers, Alberton, are at the Queen.

W. L. and Mrs. McEachern, of East River, leave this morning on a trip to Regina.

Owing to a mechanical mix up the letter on the Defence of Hotels on P. E. I., is repeated today.

J. W. and Mrs. Hogg, Kensington, have returned home after visiting friends in Brae and Bloomfield.

Any capable girl who desires to obtain housework in Winthrop, Boston, Mass., should apply at Guardian Advtg. Counter at once.

Hon. Frank Deedmeyer, American Consul at this port, and Mrs. Deedmeyer have returned to the city after visiting in the United States.

People who desire to help the Charlottetown Hospital should tell their friends about the play to be presented in the Opera on Sept. 5th.

The graceful act of Mrs. Williams, Prince Street, in presenting each fireman with a bouquet before their departure for Truro yesterday was much appreciated.

Miss Katie Mathieson, City, has returned after a very pleasant visit with friends in Dorchester, N. B. Miss Mathieson was accompanied on return by her friend Miss Nita McLeod, Dorchester, who will spend ten days in this city as Miss Mathieson's guest.

A. E. Murphy, formerly of Stanley Bridge, but now of Red Deer, Alta., recently secured first prize and a diploma at the Calgary Fair for cheese. In Brandon he secured first place for colored and second place for white and notwithstanding the long haul in heated carriage got third place in Winnipeg.

At the Charlottetown School of Music a class will be formed for Violin Lessons at the rate of $1 for lessons and $1 for violin at the end of the year. This class is being formed for the purpose of encouraging those who desire to learn this instrument, and also to increase the string portion of the School Orchestra. For further particulars apply Prof. C. M. Wright, Musical Director. Watch for his ad.

Alfred McIsaac, says the Edmonton, Alta., who has resigned his position as advertising manager of the Bulletin is going to Fort William, where he will assume the general management of the Fort William Herald, was the guest of honor at a banquet given at the King Edward Hotel recently by a number of his friends in the city. The banquet was attended as an acknowledgement of the esteem in which Mr. McIsaac is held in local musical circles, no less than that in which he is held by all those who have been associated with him in newspapers, editors of the Bulletin, the Bulletin, president, and an excellent musical program was carried out under the able direction of W. Harry Watts. Songs were contributed and in a number of brief speeches the work of Mr. McIsaac, in musical circles and his genial relations with his associates of the press received fitting acknowledgement. The speakers were the Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture, President of the Edmonton School of Music and formerly manager of the Bulletin, M. R. Jennings, editor of the Journal, A. B. Day, editor of the Capital, Geo. D. Hunt, W. Harry Watts, of the Edmonton Schools of Music, Mr. Griffiths, secretary of the Alberta Musical Festival Committee; Jas. McKinnon, Hon. president of the Young Men's Liberal Club; Professor Suckling. All united in praise of the many excellent qualities which have won for Mr. McIsaac so many friends in Edmonton, in expressing regret at his departure and in wishing him every success in the sphere about to enter. Mr. McIsaac thanked his friends very warmly for their good wishes, and by general request was induced to favor them with a song which he rendered with the splendid effect which in the past has placed him in such general demand at musical gatherings in the city. As president of the Edmonton Musical Association and of the Edmonton Dramatic Society and as a leading baritone in the Presbyterian church Mr. McIsaac's departure leaves a vacancy which will not easily be filled. Expressions of regret for unavoidable absence were received from the Hon. G. W. Cross, John Howey, editor of the Bulletin, John Blue and Vernon Barford. (The Mr. McIsaac referred to above is a brother of Mrs. James Kelly, Kent St. and will be remembered by many as a prominent officer of the late Highland Brigade of St. James' church, city.)

L. B. Sawyer, Enid, Okla., is at the Queen Hotel.

Captain Craig, Orwell Cove, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Kopp of Windsor, N. S., who has been the guest of Miss Mary McEwan, Fitzroy Street, has returned home.

Rev. A. B. McNeill of Bridgefield Park, N. J., and Miss Clifford of Boston are the guests of A. J. and Mrs. McLaine, Prince Street.

Charles McLean, Banker, Spokane, Wash., who has been visiting in this City at the home of his father William McLean, leaves this morning on return.

Anthony Hughes, formerly of James & Trainor's Teneorial parlors, City, and now located in Amherst, is spending a vacation at his home in this city.

Mrs. B. H. Smith leaves this morning for her home in Taunton, Mass. She will be accompanied by her sister Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, City, as far as Fredericton.

George Bailey, New York, I. R. Jack, Hartford; J. W. G. Cozran, Hamilton and T. D. Richardson, Toronto, all fire insurance men, are registered at the Victoria having arrived last evening.

The Brant returned last evening after making the trip round the province on Lighthouse supply work. Capt. T. G. Teylor, Agent of the Marine Department, made the trip on the Brant. The vessel also inspected and cleared several of the gas buoys and put them in good working order. A fleet of American fishing vessels was observed off North Cape fishing mackerel. To all appearances the fleet was meeting with but poor success.

The Guardian's Annandale correspondent writes:—The large crop of hay is at last harvested and now the people are beginning to think about starting their binders. Cherries, blueberries and all kinds of fruit are a failure here this year but there seems to be an everlasting quantity of bugs. Charles Howlett has returned home after spending the summer in Dundas—his friends are very glad to see that Miss Jennie Norton is able to be out again after being confined to the house for the past week with measles.—Miss Janet McParlane and Bertha Howlett, who have been spending their holidays at their home here, have returned to their studies in the Charlottetown Business College.—George Allen has returned home from Little Pond where he was visiting Joseph Chaffey—Miss Lyle McParlane who has been visiting here has returned to her home in Charlottetown. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Mary McParlane, who will spend a few days in the city.
