IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CHAS. R. CLARK.

At Searletown, Dec. 12, 1917, Mrs. Charles R. Clark, passed away at the home of her brother, Mr. J. F. Hayes. Mrs. Clark was 81 years of age and is survived by the above mentioned brother and two sisters Mrs. England Bideford, P.E.I., and Mrs. W. E. Johnson, Kensington, P. E. I. Before her husband's death 28 years ago her home was in Summerside, where she will be remembered by many old friends. The funeral service at the home was conducted by Rev. Geo. Ayers and the remains were laid to rest in the People's Cemetery, Summerside, beside her husband. Service at the grave being conducted by Rev. Mr. Rice. (Summerside papers please copy.)

MRS. DANIEL STEWART.

The death occurred at Upton, Kings County, on January 12th, 1918, after a short illness, of Christina McLeod, dearly beloved wife of Daniel Stewart of that place, aged 40 years. Mrs. Stewart was the fourth daughter of the late John N. MacLeod, of Mount Vernon and leaves to mourn, a husband, two young children, one an infant four days old, at the time of her death; six sisters, namely: Mrs. William MacLennan of Caledonia, Mrs. Donald MacLennan, of Wood Islands, Mrs. James Wilson of Cohasset, Mass., Catherine of Boston, Mass., Katie and Florence at home, and a large circle of friends. Being of a pleasing personality, cheerful disposition, and sympathetic, a true Christian, she was beloved and respected by all who made her acquaintance. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Columbus Ave., Boston, and on removing to Upton, she joined the church at Dundas. The funeral took place on January 15th, and although the day was bitterly cold, a large concourse of people assembled to pay their last tribute of respect, over seventy sleighs being in the procession to the cemetery. The funeral service was conducted in the home, and at the grave, by Rev. Mr. Heron and during the service, little Miss Margaret Cannon, who resides with Mr. Stewart, sang the favourite hymn of the deceased, "My Heavenly Home" very touchingly. Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. Stewart in his sad bereavement.

PLEASANT EVENING SPENT.—On Monday, Jan. 21st, a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. James Curley, Watervale, when about forty of Donagh's lively sports, young and old gathered, together for a dance. After being well warmed, the house was then opened to the merry crowd, and dancing began, the music being furnished by Messrs. Frank Gallant and Charles Walker, assisted by Frank Quinn of Watervale. An old time reel was danced by Messrs. Frank Trainor, Joe Trainor, Joe Murnaghan and Martin Koughan. The interesting of all was Jack Robinson's sung and danced by Mr. James Curley; also a two step by Mrs. J. Began and Mrs. J. McNeil. After this Mr. James Curley was bounced followed by Thomas Began and three cheers and tiger given. Dancing and merriment was followed on till the wee small hours of the morning when a vote of thanks was given by Charles Walker, seconded by Thomas Began and the happy crowd departed for their homes by singing of God Save the King and wishing Mr. and Mrs. James Curley many happy days.

SPLENDID CONCERT.—The concert presented by the dramatic club in Maple Leaf Hall, Grand River, Lot 14, on 7th inst. was in every respect a most successful affair. A full house greeted the entertainers and the excellent order maintained throughout the entire performance was quite in keeping with the traditions of a Grand River audience and reflected very creditably on the efforts of the players. Each of the performers did their respective parts with perfect ease and dignity. The following is the program: Opening Chorus: "A Song of Canada" by the club. Instrumental music by Messrs. J. J. McLellan, J. D. McLellan, accompanist Mrs. Venantius Morrison. Dialogue. Making soap, by Gertie McKinnon Lucille McNeill, Linus McNeill and Kellan McDonald. Step dance, by Mr. Joseph L. Cameron. Solo by John A. McDonald (encored). Dialogue. Going to see the actors, by Alfreda McNeill, Laura McKinnon, Alphonsus Brown, and Wilfrid Brown. Instrumental music by Messrs J. J. McLellan, J. D. McLellan, accompanist Mrs. Venantius Morrison. Solo, Joan of Arc by Misses Janie McDonald, Gertie and Laura McKinnon. Dialogue. Advertising for a companion by Mary McDonald, Lucille McNeill, Laura McKinnon and Janie McDonald. Instrumental music by Miss Hattie Brown. Chorus, When we wind up the watch on the Rhine, by the club. The sum of one hundred dollars was realized for Red Cross purposes.

Linen Towels 30c to 1.50 pr. at 15 per cent off

If the general public was acquainted with the facts and knew what tremendously high prices the factories were asking for goods today there would be such a rush for goods during this sale that we would be totally unable to handle the crowds.

The last English mail brought us notice of a further 30 p. c. advance on prices now in force and also stated that not much more goods would be obtainable.

Our Annual Linen Sale has been a feature of our business for many years and we were determined to hold it this year if at all possible.

Fortunately we bought heavily in advance and are in a position to offer our old reliable qualities at prices much less than asked by the factories today.

Again we advise you - take advantage of the opportunity.
