With 21 victories to his credit so far this season, Hal Newhouser, of the Detroit Tigers, is certain to wind-up the outstanding lefthander in the major leagues since 1936 when Carl Hubbell, New York Giants' screwball artist, won 26 and lost only six for a percentage of .813. It is also possible that he may be the first 25-game pitcher since 1930, when Paul Derringer rang the bell at that number for Cincinnati Reds.

• • •

But whether or not Newhouser loses every one of the remaining games in which he works, 1944 has certainly been his year, for in four previous seasons with the Tigers he never won more than nine games for a season.

• • •

Newhouser, by the way, has the distinction of beating New York Yankees five times this season, a rather remarkable feat in face of the fact that the great Walter Johnson owns the record for the individual pitching record over the Yanks with seven. Johnson did the trick in 1914, the year he pitched 36 consecutive scoreless innings against the Bombers, blanking them in an entire series Friday, Saturday and Monday.

• • •

Johnson, by the way, holds the American league mark by beating Chicago White Sox eight times in 1911. The major league record was set by Ed Reulbach of the Cubs when he won nine from the Dodgers.

• • •

Newhouser still has an outside chance to equal Johnson's record of seven wins against the Yankees, but to do so he will have to pitch and win one of the remaining three games between the two clubs. But it is rather unlikely that Manager Steve O'Neil will send him against the New Yorkers in two of the three games unless, of course, the Tigers pennant hopes have vanished when the series rolls around.

• • •

It is interesting to note that brother Newhouser of Dizzy Dean and 20-game winners have had the best success against the pitching staff of Louis Browns. Hal has split four decisions while Dizzy has won one and dropped three against Lefty Powell's men.

• • •

Imagine an advertisement reading "Wanted — A youngster between 15 and 17 who has little chance of getting a college education but who has a good body and would like to make a million dollars before he is 20. All he has to do is toss leather energetically."

• • •

Well, such an ad actually would be an invitation to many of the youngsters who are now in the age bracket mentioned to report for tryouts with baseball clubs in the various minor leagues. Yes, baseball is the only sport in which a youngster can step right from school into a job that pays him a handsome salary.

• • •

During the past few years of uncertainty, baseball has been discovered naturally. Our hockey is limited to a few months each winter, football carries on for only a few weeks and basketball is a winter sport. But baseball is a year 'round game. It has been discovered by the youngsters who would be good at it, and it has been discovered by the youngsters who have the ability to make baseball a career.

The fate of those who move into baseball is not always a happy one. Many will be disappointed, but there will be many who will make good in the game. J. H. Hellofs Wins President's Match

Scoring a net 75 Saturday afternoon at the Charlottetown Golf Club J. H. Hellofs won the President's Match with a total of 32 points for the five stages of the match. B. E. Britton finished in second place with a total of 30 points, one point more than the third placed competitor Frank Acorn.

A well played one over par 73 for a net score of 66 gave T. K. Stewart the first place on the days play but his inability to compete in some of the previous stages made it impossible to overcome the lead established by other competitors.

Two Straight For Foxes In Finals

The Foxes made it two straight in their best out of five series for the Holy Redeemer Junior Softball championship when they defeated the Bears last evening by a score of 11-8. The game was the best yet played in the Junior league this season. The score changed hands no less than five times and at the end of the eighth inning read 8-8.

The Foxes came up with three runs in the first half of the ninth but the Bears couldn't seem to get a rally going in their half.

Some of the highlights were:

Dolron's catch of Durell Larter's line drive into centre field.

Gauthier's home run in the eighth with one on.

Joe Coyle's catch of M. Peter's line in the fifth.

Mosie Peters played a great game at short.

Bennie Callaghan was the umpire while McDougall and Coyle were on the bases.

MacDonald And Murnaghan Wins Ladies Double Title

Last evening Miss Claire MacDonald and Miss Bernedette Murnaghan stroked their way to win the ladies' doubles over Miss Louise Blanchard and Miss Barbara Coyle in the Knights of Columbus Tennis Tournament.

The match was closely contested all the way and real interesting rallies were staged by all four ladies.

Possibly the best game yet played, at least the most closely fought, was started last evening and will be concluded this evening. It was in the men's doubles. Messrs Somerled Palmer and C. LeClair opposing Messrs. Walter Cullen and Noel Wilson.

The play in this game was close all the way, the boys fighting back time and again, first one side would be in the lead, then the other and finally darkness found them deadlocked at 11-11 in the second set after Cullen and Wilson had annexed the first 8-6.

Larks Win Junior Opener

The first game of the semi finals in the Knights of Columbus tennis play-off was played yesterday afternoon between the Larks and Owls, the Larks staging a four run rally in the ninth to take the game 9-4.

But the winners it may truthfully be said, they got to work at the beginning and got working hard throughout the game and had the edge in the way that the score indicates.

They lined up as follows:

Larks P. Murphy, F. Coyle, F. Larkin, A. McMillan, W. Hennessey, P. Coyle, L. Hennessey, J. Reddy, A. Larkin.

Owls J. Burke, C. Fleming, S. Burke, C. MacDonald, C. Clarke, Quinn, Louis McDonald, A. Doyle, C. Clarke.

"CROSS OF LORRAINE TELLS STIRRING STORY OF FRENCH FIGHTERS

The Fighting French are on the march in stirring story of a group of French soldiers who carried on the fight against Gemany from the depths of a Nazi prison camp, opened at Yeo's Theatre.

The film deals with a specific outfit of French prisoners composed of men from various walks of life. After the Armistice they are promised freedom by the Nazis but instead find themselves herded to a prison camp. There they are subjected to brutal treatment by their captors. Peter Lorre, a Nazi sergeant, sets out to break their spirit. But he does not succeed due to the efforts of such men as Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Aumont, Joseph Calleia and Richard Whorf. However he does win out in the case of Gene Kelly, the toughest and bravest of them all.

FLEE TO FREEDOM

Opportunity to escape presents itself and several of the men are fortunate enough to make their way across the border to freedom. They rouse a peaceful village to resistance and after wiping out a Nazi unit leave to join the guerrilla fighters in the mountains.

Based on the best-selling novel, "A Thousand Shall Fall" by Hans Habe and titled in honor of the symbol of the Fighting French, "The Cross of Lorraine" is an outstanding film. Jean Pierre Aumont, who literally lived the role in the film, is outstanding as the lawyer who used his brains to outwit the Nazis. Gene Kelly forsaking his dancing shoes for a strong dramatic role, contributes one of his finest performances as the taxi-driver who refuses to accept defeat.
