IN MEMORIAM.

The death took place at Craquet on Thursday, August 2nd of Loretta, beloved wife of Albert N. Gagnon of Brighton, Mass. The deceased who was in the 29th year of her age, had been in failing health for some time, and early in the summer she came home to spend a few months with her mother Mrs. Levi Trowsdale. ENGLAND TO AMERICA (By the late Alfred Tennyson.)

Gigantic daughter of the west, We drink to thee across the flood, We know thee and we love thee best; For art thou not of British blood? Should war's mad blast again be blown, Permit not thou the tyrant Powers, To fight thy mother here alone, But let the broadsides roar with ours. Oh, rise, our strong Atlantic sons When war against our freedom springs! Oh, speak to Europe through your guns— They CAN be understood by kings. Hands all round! God, the tyrant's cause confound! To our dear kinsman, in the west, my friends, And the great name of England round and round.

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE, AUG. 3rd, 1917 FIELD CROP COMPETITION

The competition in fields of standing grain which has been carried on by the Dept. of Agriculture for a past number of years is to be conducted again for this season on a system similar to last year. Since the inauguration of this competition the improvement in the grain crops of the Province has been remarkable. The objects of such work can be enumerated as follows: To stimulate an interest in the production of pure, clean seed of the best varieties of our farm crops; to encourage and assist those who are engaged in growing seed grain; to show the value of seed selection and the proper cultivation of the soil; and to direct the attention of the general farming public to the value of clean seed and better methods of cultivation. The acceptance of all objects is becoming more general as the work becomes more established. Last year there were approximately two hundred entries in all, which is a large increase over the initial years in which the competition was started. With the increase of entries and a better fulfillment of the objects, the trade for seed grain has grown, both within and beyond the provincial limits. As a means of insuring a reliable standard of grain, the grower must keep in touch with the treatment of the seed and the soil and it is encouraging to note that with each year a greater number of competitors are showing an interest in the selection of seed; the purity of the variety; the treatment of seed for smut; and the detailed work that must be undertaken to insure the highest degree of efficiency.

Competitions

Three competitions are held in each county, in each of which the following cash prizes are offered: Oats—1st, $10; 2nd, $9; 3rd, $8; 4th, $7; 5th, $6.50; 6th, $6; 7th, $5.50; 8th, $5; 9th, $4.50; 10th, $4; 11th, $3.50; 12th, $3; 13th, $2.50; 14th, $2; 15th, $2. Wheat—1st, $8; 2nd, $7; 3rd, $6; 4th, $5; 5th, $4; 6th, $3; 7th, $2. Barley—1st, $6; 2nd, $4; 3rd, $3; 4th, $2.

Rules and Regulations

ORIGIN OF THE BAYONET

Simple But Terrible Weapon Developed from the Crossbow. Bayonets, which in spite of "tanks", "whizz-bangs", and all the latest inventions or modern warfare, remain the simplest and most terrifying weapon on the battlefield, bears a name the origin of which is uncertain. It is popularly believed to recall the pleasant old town of Bayonne, which nestles at the foot of the Bay of Biscay, since a citizen, one Puseycur, is credited with its invention about 1650. Pushed into the mouth of the gun-barrel like a plug, it was thus adopted in France and England about 1675. In 1689 it was attached by two rings to the barrel by General Mackay, and the socketed bayonet was introduced by Vauban into the French army in 1703. So far all seems plain sailing, until a reference to Randle Cosgrave's old French-English dictionary, published some forty years before Puseycur of Bayonne, was heard of, shows us that bayonet, or baiton, was the name of the arrow, or shaft, discharged from the cross-bow or arbalest—TH Bits.

SOLDIER'S THANKS FOR SOCKS.

The following letter has recently been received by Master Howard Housfield, Mayfield, whose name was put on a pair of socks knitted by his great grandma, eighty-nine years of age:— Somewhere in France, 29th June, 1917. Dear Howard, I am the lucky soldier who received the socks knitted by your great grandma. You must thank her for me, and tell her I think her a fine old lady to be doing her bit for the boys at her great age. I am sure that if you were old enough you would want to be out here, too. There are a large number of P.E.I. boys in the 2nd Can. Heavy Battery, and they are all good men. Hoping your Grandma and yourself are enjoying good health, and with many thanks for the socks and your kind letter, I am, Yours sincerely, F. Lazenby, Gunner.
