

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SABBATH DAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
FIRST COMMUNION - First Communion was given to more than fifty children at Holy Redeemer Church yesterday morning.

ATTENDS GRADUATION - Mrs. Randolph Manning has returned from Halifax, where she attended the convocation exercises of Dalhousie University.

S. D. U. COMMENCEMENT - Commencement exercises will be held at St. Dunstan's University this afternoon beginning at three o'clock.

EMPIRE DAY EXERCISES - Empire and Arthur Day exercises will be held at Rochford Square and Queen Square Schools this morning at 11 o'clock.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING - The Queen's County Progressive Conservative candidates, Messrs. W. Chester S. McLane and J. J. MacLean, opened their campaign meetings at Eldon Saturday night.

ARMY EXAMS - Qualifying examinations were held for all arms and specialties at the Charlottetown Armouries over the weekend.

TRANSPORT COMMISSIONERS HERE - Three members of the Transportation Commission, Ottawa, are at present in the Province on an inspection trip in connection with railway services.

A meeting sponsored by the Progressive Conservative Party was held Friday night at St. John's Church.

Major MacDonald declared that King's County had not had a fire deal under the present Liberal Government.

Mrs. J.R. MacLean, M.L.A., of Souris, spoke in support of Major MacDonald.

Mrs. Justice George J. Tweedy, president of the P.E.I. Division of the Navy League of Canada will present prizes and medals today to the students at Queen Square School, Notre Dame Academy and West Kent School.

The first presentation will be made to Robert Thomas Bowles, a pupil of Queen Square School who merited a gold medal and a handsome wrist watch by topping all junior entries in the essay contest.

The other presentations will be made to Miss Mary O'Neil, a student at Notre Dame Academy who won a silver medal by placing second in the senior section, and Neil Hansen of West Kent School who will receive a bronze medal for placing third in the junior section.

Presentations to essay winners attending other schools will be made later in the week. Miss Katherine MacLean, winner of the senior contest, will receive her gold medal Friday at the convocation exercises at P.W.C. Miss Doreen Cusack, Tracadie School, a student at Glenaladale School will be presented with a silver medal for having the second best essay in the junior section.

The bronze medal will be presented by Summerside officials to Ronald Albert Leard of Summerside, for placing second in the senior section.

The death took place in St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton, Ont., Saturday, May 21, of Mrs. Allan Hamm, Yorkville resident but for the past fourteen years a resident of the Ontario city.

The deceased had been in failing health for some time. Surviving are her husband, one son, Carl, and two daughters, Miss Catherine and Mrs. Leslie Montford, all of Hamilton.

Mrs. Daniel McCasheen of this city, whom the deceased had visited last summer.

The body will arrive in the city on Tuesday evening. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon with interment being in the People's Cemetery.

Four persons, two children and two adults, were taken to hospital last night by members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police as the result of an accident involving two cars and a truck which occurred about nine o'clock last night on the main highway at Vernon River.

The accident took place when a taxi, driven by Maurice Costello, collided with a car and truck, while the truck was in the process of pulling the car out of the ditch.

The injured parties were baby Jean Smith, seven months, Mrs. Jack Garnum, both in the P.E.I. Hospital, Gloria MacMillan, seven years, and Maurice Costello, who are both in the Charlottetown Hospital. Four others, who were also in the taxi but were uninjured were: Gary Collins, three years, Howard J. O'Brien, 19 months, Mrs. Harold Collins, and Dixie Gauthier. All eight persons were from Charlottetown.

Jean Smith and Mrs. Garnum in the P.E.I. Hospital, were reported last night as not being seriously injured, while Mrs. Costello was also reported as not being serious, although the former will have to undergo a long treatment to clear the full extent of injury. Mr. Costello was cut on the forehead and face.

Members of the R.C.M.F. Charlottetown Branch, arrived on the motor bus yesterday afternoon to present prizes and medals to the winners of the P.E.I. Division of the Navy League essay contest.

Presentations of prizes, medals and certificates of merit to prize winning contestants at the Navy League essay contest were made at Queen's County Progressive Conservative Club, Prince Street and West Kent Schools Monday morning by Mr. Justice George J. Tweedy, chief executive, were Charles H. Driscoll, Joseph MacMillan, Lorne Driscoll, John A. MacDonald, Dr. L. J. Duffy, Dr. F. A. MacMillan and Dr. F. A. MacMillan, Charlottetown.

The Music Festival Association has achieved a great success in the short time since its organization in 1946, said Col. L. T. Lowther, president of the Association, in his address to Rotarians at a luncheon at the University Monday afternoon.

"We have just concluded the festival for the present year with the school's tremendous amount of credit for their essays on a subject in which they have little contact. Justice Tweedy stated that it was a pleasure to have the Notre Dame, the pupils of which had turned in many essays which were masterpieces. He said that Mr. Crigan who presented a silver medal for placing second in the senior contest wrote an admirable essay which gave them great difficulty in deciding the winner of the contest."

The bride's gown was of white satin and her Dutch bonnet head-dress of lace held in place a finger-tip veil. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of spring flowers.

The groom wore a tuxedo with a white bow tie and a matching off-the-face hat of tulle and carried a colonial nosegay. The bridesmaid's gown was of light green tulle, matching head-dress. Her bouquet was a nosegay of spring flowers.

Mrs. Lowther wore a dress of crepe with black accessories and small furs. The groom's mother, Mrs. W.R. LePage wore navy blue with pink accessories and corsage.

PREMIER JONES HOME - Premier J. Walter Jones returned to the island yesterday from his visit to the National Holstein sale at Oakville, Ontario. The Premier was accompanied by two other prominent island Holstein breeders, J.L. Dewar and R. Proffitt.

The average price of the island stock offered was considerably higher than average price of the entire sale.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Mrs. Allan Hamm, who passed away at Hamilton, Ont., on May 21st, was held yesterday afternoon from the Catholic Funeral Home services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster.

The pallbearers were Frank Riggs, Thomas Riggs, Harry Riggs, Percy Hamm, Charles Hansen, Frank Hamm, Intermment People's Cemetery.

MALE CHORUS PRACTICE - There was a good attendance at the regular weekly practice of the Charlottetown Male Chorus held last evening at the home of Mr. Stanley Lancaster with Miss Louise Cox at the piano. The chorus is showing good progress and it is hoped to be ready to present a concert in the near future. There are some fine numbers being rehearsed with many others being on order. The director is still anxious to add more voices to this chorus and a hearty welcome will be extended to any who wish to join at the next rehearsal, Monday night at the Legion Home.

Presentations of prizes, medals and certificates of merit to prize winning contestants at the Navy League essay contest were made at Queen's County Progressive Conservative Club, Prince Street and West Kent Schools Monday morning by Mr. Justice George J. Tweedy, chief executive, were Charles H. Driscoll, Joseph MacMillan, Lorne Driscoll, John A. MacDonald, Dr. L. J. Duffy, Dr. F. A. MacMillan and Dr. F. A. MacMillan, Charlottetown.

The retiring president was Dr. F. A. MacMillan, Charlottetown.

The Music Festival Association has achieved a great success in the short time since its organization in 1946, said Col. L. T. Lowther, president of the Association, in his address to Rotarians at a luncheon at the University Monday afternoon.

"We have just concluded the festival for the present year with the school's tremendous amount of credit for their essays on a subject in which they have little contact. Justice Tweedy stated that it was a pleasure to have the Notre Dame, the pupils of which had turned in many essays which were masterpieces. He said that Mr. Crigan who presented a silver medal for placing second in the senior contest wrote an admirable essay which gave them great difficulty in deciding the winner of the contest."

The bride's gown was of white satin and her Dutch bonnet head-dress of lace held in place a finger-tip veil. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of spring flowers.

The groom wore a tuxedo with a white bow tie and a matching off-the-face hat of tulle and carried a colonial nosegay. The bridesmaid's gown was of light green tulle, matching head-dress. Her bouquet was a nosegay of spring flowers.

Mrs. Lowther wore a dress of crepe with black accessories and small furs. The groom's mother, Mrs. W.R. LePage wore navy blue with pink accessories and corsage.

The wedding reception was at the Longworth Avenue home of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lowther. Presiding over the coffee cups were Mrs. E. J. MacMillan and Mrs. A. R. Gillis. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Mary Campbell, Charlotte Gordon, Ruby Jardine, Louise MacEwen, Greta Rogerson, Dorothy Gormley, Eileen Compton, Phyllis Thomson, Joyce Goffin, and Elizabeth Simmonds.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. LePage left on a motor trip through the Maritimes. The bride chose for travelling a grey gabardine suit, maul straw hat and accessories.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

EGG CONTEST WINNER - The judges for the Purina Egg Laying Contest for Prince Edward Island have awarded the prize for the Province, consisting of a beautiful chest of silver, to Mrs. J. R. Brooks of Linkletter Road for pullets laying the most eggs for three months.

These pullets were purchased when a few days old from Mr. Lloyd Burns of Bedouque-S

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE - Five members of army units in Charlottetown will leave Friday for Halifax to attend a Paymaster's Conference to be conducted May 28 and 29 by Lt. Col. J. M. Kinnaid, paymaster of Eastern Command. Making the journey for the conference will be Mr. H. Smith, 21st Armored Brigade; Capt. A. E. Farquharson, 28th Lt. A. Regiment; Capt. Donald Ross, 5th Div. Signals; Lt. M. E. Bernard, P.E.I. Regt. (17th ROCAF); and Judge Amodeo Carson of Quebec.

The Alumni of St. Dunstan's University ascertained that they will continue their drive for funds among the members to build a combined gymnasium and auditorium at an estimated annual dinner meeting held Sunday evening in the College refectory. It was also decided that the membership fee would be raised from the customary two dollars to at least five dollars with no definite amount being set.

Mr. P. R. McCormack, City, was elected president of the association and Mr. Melville MacQuaid, Souris, and Judge Amodeo Carson of Quebec were elected as joint vice-presidents. Mr. Eugene Gorman, S. D. U., was appointed secretary and Rev. Edmund Roche assistant secretary. Members appointed to the executive were Charles H. Driscoll, Joseph MacMillan, Lorne Driscoll, John A. MacDonald, Dr. L. J. Duffy, Dr. F. A. MacMillan and Dr. F. A. MacMillan, Charlottetown.

The Music Festival Association has achieved a great success in the short time since its organization in 1946, said Col. L. T. Lowther, president of the Association, in his address to Rotarians at a luncheon at the University Monday afternoon.

"We have just concluded the festival for the present year with the school's tremendous amount of credit for their essays on a subject in which they have little contact. Justice Tweedy stated that it was a pleasure to have the Notre Dame, the pupils of which had turned in many essays which were masterpieces. He said that Mr. Crigan who presented a silver medal for placing second in the senior contest wrote an admirable essay which gave them great difficulty in deciding the winner of the contest."

The bride's gown was of white satin and her Dutch bonnet head-dress of lace held in place a finger-tip veil. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of spring flowers.

The groom wore a tuxedo with a white bow tie and a matching off-the-face hat of tulle and carried a colonial nosegay. The bridesmaid's gown was of light green tulle, matching head-dress. Her bouquet was a nosegay of spring flowers.

Mrs. Lowther wore a dress of crepe with black accessories and small furs. The groom's mother, Mrs. W.R. LePage wore navy blue with pink accessories and corsage.

The wedding reception was at the Longworth Avenue home of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lowther. Presiding over the coffee cups were Mrs. E. J. MacMillan and Mrs. A. R. Gillis. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Mary Campbell, Charlotte Gordon, Ruby Jardine, Louise MacEwen, Greta Rogerson, Dorothy Gormley, Eileen Compton, Phyllis Thomson, Joyce Goffin, and Elizabeth Simmonds.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. LePage left on a motor trip through the Maritimes. The bride chose for travelling a grey gabardine suit, maul straw hat and accessories.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

P.W.C. DANCE - The annual Prince of Wales Convocation dance was held in the College auditorium last night with a very large crowd in attendance. The dance was held in honor of the graduating class of '48. Dr. G. Douglas Steel, M.A., L.L.D., Principal of the College, and Mrs. Steel were present as were several members of the faculty and their wives. Music was supplied by the Downtowners Orchestra.

EVIDENCE OF DISASTER - Evidence of the major disaster which struck Fort Worth, Texas, with floodwaters last week was seen from photographs and writings in the Fort Worth Press, which Donald C. O. St. John, Mr. Frank Riggs of Charlottetown. Four people were known to be dead and at least a dozen were missing and possibly drowned. An estimated 4,000 persons were less and property damage exceeded $2,000,000. The city water supply was cut off and public schools were closed. An overhead helicopter measured up to 12 inches and turned the Trinity River and it's tributaries into rampaging waters, gave Fort Worth its worst flood in history.

LEAVE FOR HALIFAX - Nineteen members of the University of Prince Edward Island, C.S. Queen Charlotte left for Halifax yesterday to take further training during the summer at St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown. The students were attending of Prince of Wales College during the college year. Included in the group were fifteen Cadets and four ordinary Seaman. The following are the names: Cadet Darrell M. Carmody, Cadet Lloyd MacLeod, Cadet (L) Charles M. Alley, Surge-Cadet Lennie R. MacFayden, Cadet (S) Daniel L. Driscoll, Cadet (S) Austin R. Johnston, Cadet John E. MacRae, Cadet (E) David R. Jardine, Cadet (S) Earl P. Smith, Cadet Harold Hennessey, Charlottetown King's, Douglas MacGowan, Montague, Miss Vivian Duncan, Charlottetown, was elected secretary-treasurer.

At an enthusiastic convention held yesterday in the Canadian Legion Hall the first Provincial Young Progressive Conservative Association of Prince Edward Island was formed.

The Island association completes the organization of Young Progressive Conservatives from coast to coast, stated Mr. Donald M. Hueston, national executive secretary, who was present at the meeting.

Meers, Andrew MacRae, Winslow, was elected president, and A. Walthen Gaudet, honorary president. Vice-presidents were elected as follows: For East Prince, Miss Effie MacKay, Summerside; West Prince, Don Campbell, Alberton; Queen's County, Francis J. Cullen, Carl Cullen, Joseph Cullen, Earl Cullen, Rev. William McCabe was in the Sanctuary and Rev. Dr. B. Gillis assisted in the choir.

Mr. T. F. Mitchell, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Charlottetown, advised that Mr. G. R. Henry has been appointed assistant manager and Mr. T. A. Walton, accountant of the local branch.

Mr. M. L. Humphrey, formerly assistant manager at the branch, is at present relieving the manager at Albany, pending a new appointment.

Mr. Henry entered the service in Fredericton, N.B., and was transferred to Charlottetown in 1936. After spending six years in the Albany branch, he returned to Charlottetown and shortly after was appointed accountant. Mr. Henry is a past president of the Charlottetown Gyrco Club, and a member of the Island division G. R. Henry has been appointed assistant manager and Mr. T. A. Walton, accountant of the local branch.

Mr. Henry entered the service in Fredericton, N.B., and was transferred to Charlottetown in 1936. After spending six years in the Albany branch, he returned to Charlottetown and shortly after was appointed accountant. Mr. Henry is a past president of the Charlottetown Gyrco Club, and a member of the Island division G. R. Henry has been appointed assistant manager and Mr. T. A. Walton, accountant of the local branch.

A very pleasant event took place on May 21st, in the Canadian National Railway Hall at Charlottetown when the conductors and trainmen of the Island division G. R. Henry has been appointed assistant manager and Mr. T. A. Walton, accountant of the local branch.

After the meeting was called to order Mr. MacEwen was asked to come forward, while in behalf of those present Mr. Arthur Coffin made an address and Mr. E. B. Douglas made a presentation to him of an easy chair and leather-covered Bible.

Mr. MacEwen was somewhat taken by surprise but responded in a most courteous manner, thanking those men for their kindness in remembering him, also giving a retrospective outline of his forty-seven years in the railway, which was very much enjoyed by all present.

Chief among those who were invited to attend was Mr. T. C. Montgomery, superintendent of the Island Division who, in the course of a very fine speech paid tribute to Mr. MacEwen's ability, saying that he had found him to be very efficient and that he was recognized as being one of the best chief train dispatchers on the C. N. Railway. This statement by an official of Mr. Montgomery's vast experience in different departments of railway management was a most tangible proof of Mr. MacEwen's outstanding ability.

Next speaker was Mr. M. A. Howell, recently appointed chief train dispatcher who, in praising Mr. MacEwen for his sterling qualities and devotion to duty.

Mrs. H.A. Brown was elected president of the Junior Ladies Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital at the annual meeting of that body held at the Outdell Home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Brown succeeded retiring president Mrs. J.A. Lohaly.

Members of the executive are: Mrs. G.W. Stewart, Mrs. G.E. Sutherland, Mrs. W.L. McDonald, Mrs. Lewis Turner.

Members of the various committees include: Hospital care, Mrs. A.J. Haslam, Mrs. J.A. Lohaly, Mrs. W.G. Barbour.

Fashion Show Conveners; Mrs. G.W. Stewart, Mrs. L. F. Fong, League of Mercy; Mrs. K.J.L. Irwin, Mrs. J.T. Lines.

Church vice-presidents: Trinity, Mrs. W.G. Barbour, Mrs. J.E. MacLeod, Mrs. Clifford MacDonald, Mrs. F.A. Large.

At an enthusiastic convention held yesterday in the Canadian Legion Hall the first Provincial Young Progressive Conservative Association of Prince Edward Island was formed.

The Island association completes the organization of Young Progressive Conservatives from coast to coast, stated Mr. Donald M. Hueston, national executive secretary, who was present at the meeting.

Meers, Andrew MacRae, Winslow, was elected president, and A. Walthen Gaudet, honorary president. Vice-presidents were elected as follows: For East Prince, Miss Effie MacKay, Summerside; West Prince, Don Campbell, Alberton; Queen's County, Francis J. Cullen, Carl Cullen, Joseph Cullen, Earl Cullen, Rev. William McCabe was in the Sanctuary and Rev. Dr. B. Gillis assisted in the choir.

Mr. T. F. Mitchell, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Charlottetown, advised that Mr. G. R. Henry has been appointed assistant manager and Mr. T. A. Walton, accountant of the local branch.

Mr. M. L. Humphrey, formerly assistant manager at the branch, is at present relieving the manager at Albany, pending a new appointment.

Mr. Henry entered the service in Fredericton, N.B., and was transferred to Charlottetown in 1936. After spending six years in the Albany branch, he returned to Charlottetown and shortly after was appointed accountant. Mr. Henry is a past president of the Charlottetown Gyrco Club, and a member of the Island division G. R. Henry has been appointed assistant manager and Mr. T. A. Walton, accountant of the local branch.

A very pleasant event took place on May 21st, in the Canadian National Railway Hall at Charlottetown when the conductors and trainmen of the Island division G. R. Henry has been appointed assistant manager and Mr. T. A. Walton, accountant of the local branch.

After the meeting was called to order Mr. MacEwen was asked to come forward, while in behalf of those present Mr. Arthur Coffin made an address and Mr. E. B. Douglas made a presentation to him of an easy chair and leather-covered Bible.

Mr. MacEwen was somewhat taken by surprise but responded in a most courteous manner, thanking those men for their kindness in remembering him, also giving a retrospective outline of his forty-seven years in the railway, which was very much enjoyed by all present.

Chief among those who were invited to attend was Mr. T. C. Montgomery, superintendent of the Island Division who, in the course of a very fine speech paid tribute to Mr. MacEwen's ability, saying that he had found him to be very efficient and that he was recognized as being one of the best chief train dispatchers on the C. N. Railway. This statement by an official of Mr. Montgomery's vast experience in different departments of railway management was a most tangible proof of Mr. MacEwen's outstanding ability.

TO INSPECT CADETS - Brig. W. W. Reid, Charlottetown, is leaving early this morning for Nova Scotia where he will inspect cadet corps at New Glasgow and Westville. The corps are both affiliated with the Pictou Highlanders, motor battalion, Brig. Reid expects to return home tonight.

FIRESTONE DEALERS MEET - The annual meeting of the Firestone Tire Dealers on Prince Edward Island was held at the Charlottetown last night. Mr. Carl Roach, Maritime Branch Manager, presided. Routine business was discussed and Mr. Roach gave a short talk on cold rubber.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY - The funeral of James Doyle was held Wednesday morning from the Queen's County Progressive Conservative Club, Prince Street and West Kent Schools Monday morning by Mr. Justice George J. Tweedy, chief executive, were Charles H. Driscoll, Joseph MacMillan, Lorne Driscoll, John A. MacDonald, Dr. L. J. Duffy, Dr. F. A. MacMillan and Dr. F. A. MacMillan, Charlottetown.

The Music Festival Association has achieved a great success in the short time since its organization in 1946, said Col. L. T. Lowther, president of the Association, in his address to Rotarians at a luncheon at the University Monday afternoon.

"We have just concluded the festival for the present year with the school's tremendous amount of credit for their essays on a subject in which they have little contact. Justice Tweedy stated that it was a pleasure to have the Notre Dame, the pupils of which had turned in many essays which were masterpieces. He said that Mr. Crigan who presented a silver medal for placing second in the senior contest wrote an admirable essay which gave them great difficulty in deciding the winner of the contest."

The bride's gown was of white satin and her Dutch bonnet head-dress of lace held in place a finger-tip veil. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of spring flowers.

The groom wore a tuxedo with a white bow tie and a matching off-the-face hat of tulle and carried a colonial nosegay. The bridesmaid's gown was of light green tulle, matching head-dress. Her bouquet was a nosegay of spring flowers.

Mrs. Lowther wore a dress of crepe with black accessories and small furs. The groom's mother, Mrs. W.R. LePage wore navy blue with pink accessories and corsage.

The wedding reception was at the Longworth Avenue home of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lowther. Presiding over the coffee cups were Mrs. E. J. MacMillan and Mrs. A. R. Gillis. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Mary Campbell, Charlotte Gordon, Ruby Jardine, Louise MacEwen, Greta Rogerson, Dorothy Gormley, Eileen Compton, Phyllis Thomson, Joyce Goffin, and Elizabeth Simmonds.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. LePage left on a motor trip through the Maritimes. The bride chose for travelling a grey gabardine suit, maul straw hat and accessories.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

They will live in Charlottetown. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Murray, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fogg, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simmonds, Summerside; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacMillan, York Point; Miss Elizabeth MacEwen, Pownal; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson, Hunter River; Mr. Gordon Quigley of Halifax.

FUNERAL AT ST. GEORGES - The funeral of Henry F. McCormick was held on Wednesday morning from the residence of Mrs. Bessie McCormick to St. George's Church, St. Georges, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Bennett MacDonald who also conducted services at the grave. The pallbearers were L.S. Hunter, Joseph Campbell, Leo Foley, Lorne Wigginton, Augustus MacDonald, John Somers, Burial was in St. George's Cemetery.

The annual meeting of the School Improvement League was held last night at the home of Mrs. Mark R. MacGulgan, Greenfield Avenue. The meeting was presided over by the President Mrs. W. E. Scantlebury and the reports of the following committees were read: The Finance Committee, by Mrs. (Dr.) Kennedy; Public Speaking by Mrs. J. E. Ready; Progressive Committee by Mrs. Smallman; Child Development by Mrs. (Dr.) J. P. Latta; Career Talks Committee by Mrs. MacGulgan; and the Scholarship Committee, by Mrs. Hurst. The President, Secretary and Treasurer also read their reports.

It was learned at the meeting that Jeanette Lader, a student at the University of Wales College, won the Scholarship which will be presented today at the Convocation Exercises.

It is hoped to open the new building on Wednesday, September 27th, when new projects and ideas will be started.

RAMSAY - At the Prince County Hospital on Monday, May 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ramsay, a daughter, 7 lbs., 3 oz.

DISCOLL - At the P. E. I. Hospital on May 18th, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell MacPhee, New Commission, a daughter, Heasha Jean.

DRISCOLL - At the Prince County Hospital on Monday, May 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Brendan Driscoll, Summerside, a daughter, 8 lbs. 7 oz.

MACLAUCHLAN - At the P. E. I. Hospital on May 17th, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacLauchlan of Stanhope, a son, (7 lbs. 11 oz.).

MORAVILLE - At the Charlottetown Hospital May 23rd, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. John F. Moraville, a son, Robert Lee.

HARDING - At the P. E. I. Hospital on May 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harding, Darnley, a daughter, 7 lbs., 11 oz.

BRUCE - At the Victoria General Hospital, Barrington, to Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Bruce (nee Helen Campbell, Victoria Cross) on May 18th, 1948, a son, Lorne Daniel.

BOULVER - At Victoria on May 9th, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Boulver (nee Grace MacKenzie) a son Robert Lee.

KOHOUT - At the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, on May 22nd, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kohout (nee Wanda Hill) of North Tryon, a daughter, Lynn Maureen.

MACKENZIE - At the Prince County Hospital on May 15th, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ramsay, a daughter, 7 lbs., 3 oz.

MACLAUCHLAN - At the P. E. I. Hospital on May 19th, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacLauchlan of Stanhope, a son, (7 lbs. 11 oz.).

MACDONALD - At the P. E. I. Hospital on May 14th, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. James Paynter of Carleton Place, a son 6 lbs. 13 oz. (James Garry).

STEWART - At the P. E. I. Hospital on May 18th, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. Ewen Stewart, a daughter, 7 lbs., 2 oz. Janice Louise.

COOKE - MOORE - At 46 Brighton Avenue, Charlottetown, on Saturday, May 21, by Rev. J.H. Bishop, Flora Bell Cooke of Argyle Shore to Spurgeon Moore of Charlottetown.

YOUNGER - COLES - At the Union St. Baptist Parsonage at Charlottetown, on Saturday, May 21, 1948, by Rev. J.D. Davidson, Vera Austina Younger of North River to Kenneth Dell Coles of Milltown.

CLINTON - At the City Hospital May 22nd, 1948, Mrs. Patricia Clinton of Souris, aged 75 years.

BIRT - At Piquid, Saturday, May 21st, Mrs. Jonathan E. Birt, aged 76 years.

HAMM - At Hamilton, Ont., May 21, 1948, Mrs. Allan Hamm in her 50th year.

MALONE - The death occurred at the City Hospital yesterday, May 24, of Mrs. Daniel B. Malone, 84.