THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province. SUNDAY SERVICES.—There will be services at Woods Islands on Sabbath next, 15th inst. in the church at eleven a. m., and in the Hall at three p. m.

HALIFAX OFF SLIP.—The S. S. Halifax came off the slip at Dartmouth Tuesday, after a thorough overhauling, and will load with potatoes for Havana and Cuba.

SAD CIRCUMSTANCES.—The unfortunate man who was taken to the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Monday, suffering from self-inflicted injuries, has been removed to Falconwood Hospital.—Pat.

NORTHUMBERLAND ARRIVES.—Yesterday the Northumberland arrived in Pictou from Charlottetown at 11.00 a. m. She left again about 2.25 p. m., with passengers, express mail and freight and arrived at 5.55 p. m. She leaves today at 7.30 a. m.

SUNK SIDING AT MARIE.—Work has been started, under the supervision of the Provincial Engineer, H. H. Shaw, C. E. on a spur of the railway at Marie. A sunk siding is to be constructed to enable farmers to load cars on the level and save the labor of pitching it up.—Exc.

VALUABLE CALENDAR.—W. W. Walker, Cor. Euston and Orleans Streets, Charlottetown, has sent The Guardian one of his very handsome calendars entitled, Life's Sunny Hours. It is a prettily colored picture of a mother and child in an orchard, accompanied by a big dog, the background showing a glimpse of the blue sea. It is up to the usual high standard of Mr. Walker's previous calendars.

P. E. ISLANDER DEAD.—The death of James Muirhead took place at Shediac on Sunday, Dec. 8, 1912. Deceased was 84 years of age and was a native of P. E. I. He moved to Shediac when quite a young man, and carried on a contracting and undertaking business. He is survived by his wife, 5 sons and 2 daughters. The sons are: Alvin and Arthur, of Shediac; Joseph, of McDougall's; Daniel of Peabody, Mass. George of St. Francisco. The daughters are Mrs. Mary Weldon, of McKee's, Kent Co. Mrs. John Bateman, of Shediac. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 from his late residence. Interment at Greenwood cemetery.—Moncton Exe.

HAPPY EVENT.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized by Rev. Norman McKinnon at the west side, last night, when Miss Ellen A. MacDonald, daughter of Neil J. MacDonald, and Carl C. Raymond were married in the presence of fifty friends. The best man was Charles Farrington, and Miss Effie M. MacDonald was bridesmaid. The bride wore white satin, with lace trimmings and carried carnations. The ushers were Fred Boucher, Manuel Silva, Leo Quindley and Corliss Champagne, and the bride's parents assisted in the reception. They will reside on Centre street after a trip. Both are favorably known and received many gifts.—Boston Exe.—The bride has a wide circle of relatives and friends in Forest Hill, P. E. I.

HOPE ABANDONED.—Now that the search for the missing collier Morien has been given up, and hope of ever seeing any of the crew again has been totally abandoned, the sympathies of the population of Sydney will go out with one accord to Capt. Burchell's bereaved family, as well as those of the other officers and crew. The City of Sydney, Douglas H. Thomas, Lady Laurier and the Canada, all helped in the search which has proven vain, the floor of the ocean being scoured for days, without a sign of the ill-fated ship or any of its crew of fifteen men. The names of the men on board the Morien when she left Louisbourg for the Ancient Colony, now almost a month ago, follow:—C. M. Burchell, master. D. B. McDonald, mate. John Bagnall, second mate. Cyril Mosher, A. B. Peter Forget, A. B. Thomas Walsh, A. B. Dan Martin, A. B. Charles Earle, chief steward. Charles Clelland, cook. F. W. Bickley, chief engineer. Louis Fraser, second engineer. Peter McMullin, donkey man. Chris Kelly, fireman. James Browning, fireman. A. W. McDonald, fireman.—Sydney Exe. Louis Fraser, above mentioned formerly resided in Charlottetown.

Princess Patricia Perfume. The latest and best of all perfumes. Its odor is distinctive. It will last too. That is the real test of good perfume. If it doesn't last, it's no good. Princess Patricia lasts. We sell it only in bulk, 10c dram 75 oz. No one else sells it. It is our special odor. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunny-side, 11-30Mt.

Marvelous Relief for Corns Bunions, & Fore Foot Lumps

Five corns on five toes for five years. Was he lame? You bet. That man was a chump—sure he was. One quarter spent on Putnam's cases 'em in good style—lifts them out quick—without pain, and never fails. This is why Putnam's is superior to the cheap imitations that afford the dealer no profit. Use only "Putnam's" Extractor. Sold by druggists.
