"WHERE OLD FRIENDS MEET"

UNEXPECTED DEATH OF MRS. MAJOR CARRUTHERS

The death occurred suddenly at Thursday morning of Mrs. Major Carruthers, one of the most highly respected citizens of Augustus Cove. She was the former Mary Cameron, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. W. Cameron. The deceased, who was of a fine Christian character, was interested in all things pertaining to the welfare of the community, being a member of the Women's Institute. She was a faithful member of the United Church and took an active part in the W. M. S. and other church work. There are left to cherish her memory, her husband, her son, Lorne and wife and grandchildren: Erol, Margaret, Clara, Norman, Beth, Doris and Estheta with whom there was a deep bond of affection in the home; also surviving are two brothers, Mrs. Artemas Cameron of Casumpec; and Mr. Austin Cameron of Augustus Cove; and two aunts, Mrs. Eva Spinney, Balboa Island, California; and Mrs. Penelope Warren, Providence, R. I. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from the home the service being conducted by Rev. E. R. Woodside, assisted by Rev. E. S. Weeks and Rev. G. N. Somers. Taking his text in Proverbs 27:1, "For thou knowest not what a day may bring forth," Mr. Woodside gave an impressive and comforting discourse. The hymns "Unto the Hills" and "Abide With Me" were sung and a male quartet consisting of Messrs. Smith, Wright, Dawson and MacKay sang "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer." The pallbearers were Messrs. Wendell MacFadyen, James Carruthers, Cedric Campbell, Donald MacDonald, Kenneth and Leita Cameron. Interment was in the People's Cemetery, Tryon. Among the many floral tributes which showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held were: Pilow, family; Sprays, Mrs. Wright, Louise and Harold Howatt; Augustine Cove Women's Institute;

F. T. A. MEETING — The regular monthly meeting of the South Preetown Parent-Teacher Association was held on Tuesday evening, August 10th, at school with the president in the chair. Meeting opened with secretary's report. It was moved and seconded to buy a new door for the school, also to pay for the labour of washing and painting ceiling of school. It was also moved and seconded to buy an 8 quart ice cream freezer and a gas lantern for the school. It was decided to have an ice cream social on the school grounds. Committees were appointed to solicit and collect cream, eggs, sugar and cake, also to look after hot dog stand. Secretary was to see about advertisement of social. One member paid membership fee. Mrs. Simmons, president, mentioned having received word from painters saying they would paint school. Meeting closed by singing "The King". A press committee of Mrs. Elmer Smith and Mrs. Elmer have an appointment at the annual meeting, but through error their names were omitted in last report.

AUGUST WEDDING — One of the summer's prettiest weddings was solemnized in St. Mary's Church at Indian River on Wednesday morning, August 18, 1948, at 8 o'clock, when Lorena Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLellan, Spring Valley, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony, to Camillus Gabriel Gillis, of Indian River. Rev. R. F. MacDonald officiated at the ceremony. The lovely young bride was charmingly attired in a floor length gown of white satin. She wore a three-quarter length veil with coronet, and a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of red roses. Miss Theresa McLellan attended her sister, becomingly gowned in a floor length dress of pink brocaded taffeta. She wore a shoulder-length veil with coronet, and carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. The groom was supported by his brother, Stephen Gillis. The groom's gift to the bride, was a double strand of pearls, with matching ear-rings, to the bride, a pair of diamond earrings, and maid sterling silver, a Rosson lighter. The bride's gift to the groom, was a sterling silver Rosary. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of by seventy guests, which included the Rev. R. F. MacDonald, and the Rev. W. V. MacDonald, and relatives from Maine and Boston. The happy couple left on a motor trip through Maine and the White Mountains, the bride wearing a blue suit, with white accessories. Best wishes follow Mr. and Mrs. Gillis for a long and happy wedded life.—B.

Mr. Keith Leard is erecting a new dwelling house in Central Bedeque.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gardiner, Bedeque have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Owen, Malpeque.

A recent visitor to Bedeque was Rev. Walter Nakayama, Oodaidai, Alta. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George McLean and family. Rev. Mr. Nakayama has been released from his church in order that he might visit Japanese families throughout Canada. His stay here was much shorter than he anticipated, as he was called to Montreal to be present at a meeting being held there for him.—Bed.

WEST PRINCE W.M.S. BALLY HELD AT GLENWOOD CHURCH — The West Prince Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada held their fall rally on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 8th in the beautiful Glenwood Church. It was very largely attended and there were over one hundred ladies present. Mrs. E. R. Woodside, welcomed the visiting ladies and Mrs. Hudson Albertson responded. Mrs. Green (nee Miss Alice Gordon, R.N.) spoke on the theme: "Now is the Time." The worship service was led by the members of Alma W.M.S. Mrs. Edgar Williams of Elmisdale called the roll. Little Miss Joan Currie of the Alberton Mission Band was heard in a well rendered solo. The main address was given by Mrs. Russell Laird of Casumpec and it was a most interesting account of the proceedings of the Branch deliberations at Sackville, N.B. in June. Reports on the years work from the different organizations were given and messages from the secretaries of each society were heard. Mrs. A. J. Matheson of O'Leary brought a message from Mrs. MacFarlane, past president of the Presbyterial. A ladies quartette was then heard in a splendid rendition. It was composed of Mrs. H.E. Ezman, Mrs. Lewellyn, Mrs. Sheen and Mrs. Allan Jenkins, all from Summerside. Mrs. Reginald MacAusland of Bloomfield gave an introduction of the new literature which is available and Mrs. Alban Craswell of Bloomfield told about one of the new books from the summer bookshelf, "New World Ahead." Miss Beth Clark of Alberton reported for the Courtesy Committee. Mrs. Lester Proffit of Rosebank took charge of the closing worship and Rev. J. M. Ebeen of Elmisdale pronounced the Benediction, after which a delicious lunch was served. The Rally was interesting, instructive and inspiring and the hardworking ladies are to be complimented on the vast amount of work accomplished during the year and the fine sums which were raised for Missionary work.
