The Oakland Maple Leaf says: On July 20th, Jerome E. MacCormac and Miss Adella Klare were united in marriage at St. Augustine's Church, Oakland, Cal., by the pastor, Rev. Bernard J. McKinnon, after which they departed on a two weeks' honeymoon trip to Sanea Cruz. Mr MacCormac is a native of Narrows Creek, King's County, P. E. I., and has resided in California since 1887. He holds a good position with the Western Building Material Co., First and Market streets, Oakland.

One of the most pleasant events of the season took place at St Ann's, Hope River, on Tuesday, Aug 2nd, when Joseph Peters of North Rustico led to hymenal altar Miss Angie Peters, daughter of Lawrence and Mrs Peters of Glenfall Cottage, St. Ann's. The bridal party entered the church at 9 o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Maggie Doiron, organist of St. Ann's Church. As the party advanced up the aisle the mellow sunlight shone through the Gothic windows bathing them in a golden glory which seemed to add as it were a joyous solemnity to the occasion. The bride who was given away by her father looked charming in a gown of white point d'esprit over cream silk with bridal veil and carried a beautiful bouquet. She was attended by her sister Miss Rose who wore white silk over pale blue while the groom was supported by Luke Gallant of South Rustico. After the ceremony, which was performed by the pastor Rev. A. McAlley in the presence of many guests, the bridal party drove to the home of the brides' parents where all partook of a sumptuous wedding breakfast. Congratulatory speeches were made by W. H. Hogan, Prof. James Murphy, P. W. C., and John McGuigan in which pleasing compliments were paid to the bride and groom mingled with sage advice as to the responsibilities of married life. A very enjoyable time was spent until 4 p. m. when the happy couple left for their home at North Rustico. The bride's going away costume was of green chiffon broadcloth with hat to match. That success and happiness may attend them in their cosy home on the Northern Shore of the seagirt isle within sound of the murmuring sea, is the earnest wish of their many friends.
