AN EARLY JUNE WEDDING.—A very pretty wedding took place in St. Teresa's church, West Roxbury, Mass., on June the 6th, when Miss Catherine B. Corcoran, formerly of Baldwin's Road, P. E. I. and Mr. John F. Woods, Charlestown, Mass., were united in the holy bonds of Matrimony. Rev. Father Brodrick officiating. The bride wore a travelling suit of blue Tricotine and was attended by her cousin. Miss Margaret Curran, formerly of St. Teresa's West. P. E. I. The groom was supported by Mr. Joseph Walsh, cousin of the bride. After the marriage ceremony the happy couple left on a brief honeymoon after which they will reside in Charlestown, Mass. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Woods wish them every happiness through life.

ENJOYABLE OUTING. — The five Methodist Sunday Schools of York circuit united in one large picnic last Wednesday at "Dalvay by the sea." A very large number took advantage of the beautiful weather and flocked to this delightful spot. Young and old revelled in the beauties of the place and took advantage of the surf and beach as well as the shade afforded by the beautiful grove. A feature of the picnic was the camp meeting beneath the trees, where helpful addresses were given by Rev. G.W.F. Glendenning, Rev. Wm. Bryenton, Mr. J.K. Ross, and the Pastor of the circuit. The singing was led by Mr. J.A. Moore. In the evening, after the children were liberally treated to fruit and candy, all gathered along the slope by the lake, to witness the races. These were very closely contested by both boys and girls. Excitement ran high as school contested with school, revealing splendid material in each. Altogether the picnic was voted as one of the best in the history of the circuit, and it is hoped that more frequent gatherings may be arranged.

THOUSANDS WERE GATHERED AT SUMMERSIDE yesterday to witness the initial performance of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus in Prince Edward Island. It is one of the big events of the year, as this is the greatest wild animal show in the world, therefore being the largest circus ever to tour the Maritime Province or the Island. Hours before the parade time, which was set for 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, a continual growing crowd gathered along the streets in readiness for the official introduction of the circus, when the pompous street pageant would wend its way along the principal thoroughfares and the eager throng would be thrilled with its splendor and magnificence. Many motored into Summerside yesterday in preparation for the circus for it was anticipated a large throng would visit the town for the day. 1533

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The school-closing examination of New Dominion took place on June 30th, and was well attended the full quota of children and ten visitors being present. The pupils were subjected to a searching catechism by Mrs. W. McEwen, Mr. Geo. Wilson and the teacher Miss Irene Smith, evincing by their prompt answers, careful and intelligent training on the part of the teacher. The school-room was in perfect condition calling forth many commendatory remarks from the visitors. A bright programme of recitations, dialogues, and duets was given by the children, after which a very appreciative address was read to the teacher by Dorothy Doull, while Annie McPhee, on behalf of the school, presented her with an envelope containing a ten dollar bill. Miss Smith, though genuinely surprised, thanked the children gracefully for their gift, then treated visitors and pupils to delicious candy. Mr. Geo. Wilson made a brief speech in his usual happy manner, thanking the teacher for her kindness to the children, and complimenting her upon the high class condition of the school. He also voiced the regret of the community that this capable and popular young teacher had resigned the school planning to take up other work.

P. E. I. Presbytery At Hunter River

The 33rd. annual meeting of the Presbytorial of P. E. I. met at Hunter River July 7th with a very large attendance of delegates and members. The weather was delightful, and the good people of Hunter River and vicinity so hospitable and kind that all who were there will long remember the pleasant time they had.

The President, Mrs. Neil McLeod presided. The forenoon was taken up with reports from the Secretary; Mrs. Matheson and the Supt. of Home Missions, Mrs. H. Toombs, which were splendidly written, interesting and most inspiring. Mrs. Forbes, President of the General Board gave an excellent speech on the need of greater giving, praying, and working for missions, and told of the good year's work reported throughout the Maritime Provinces.

At the afternoon meeting Mrs. McInnis took charge of the devotional exercises. "Soldiers of Christ Arise" was sung, Mrs. L. Crockett led in prayer and sellections from Romans 11th, Joshua 24th, Chron 19th, were read, and all were urged to consecrate themselves more fully than ever to God and to service for Him, the hymn beginning "Go labor on" was sung. Minutes were read and 59 out of 60 auxiliaries reported. Miss Lonise Lawson read report of young people's Work and Mission Bands. A number of new ones were formed last year and did good work. Mrs. Forbes gave another good talk, then greetings were extended to the Presbyterial in an address read by Mrs. Seaman responded to by Mrs. (Rev). J. S. McKay. Greetings from Presbytery were most heartily given by Rev. John Sterling, who spoke of the help and encouragement he and other ministers receive through the great interest womn take in Mission and Sunday School and all Christian work. He spoke of the splendid response to the Forward Movement appeal. The money is ready, now it is consecrated men and women we need, ready for work both at home and in foreign lands. Perhaps before him among the many young women might be some who will become missionaries, and help to carry out our Lord's command, Mrs. McLeod thanked him for his kind words and asked him to extend out thanks to tht Presbytery, and our appreciation of the interest the ministers take in Women's Mission work and their readiness at Malpeque long ago being the first missionary society on P. E. to give announcements of meetings and helping in every way.

Greetings from Methodist Church, Hunter River, were read by Mrs. Wave, who referred to the Presbyterian Missionary Society started Island, and some say, in Maritime Provinces. Mrs. Miller gracefully replied. She said we give to missoins but we also receive from them, as evidence the common interest and close tie between the different churches. Greeting was also received from a faithful worker and much loved member for so long of Presbyterial, Miss Yillah Muirhead, who regretted being unable to attend especially when the President of the Society is with us.

Mrs. Morrison, Treasurer, then gave her report, which must have cost her many days of painstaking work. The total raised this past year is $10,829. For Home Missions $2,821.53. Foreign $8,007.72. Peace Offering totalled $2,184.39. 147 new were given, and it was urged that life members were made. Amount Treasurers try in future to have their reports in to Presbyterial Pres. by the date as it makes her given by each separate society work very difficult when money comes in right up to Presbyterial meeting and accounts cannot be properly made up. Mrs. Toombs led in a beautiful didicatory prayer for our offering. Mrs. (Dr.) McNeil then spoke on giving all not living for self, for pleasure but for service. She urged our interest and help in sending workers among the Jews, God's chosen people. Mrs. Phillips sang to the delight of all, "There's a beautiful land on high," Miss M. Green then gave her paper on Mission Work in Trindad. She wishes there might be wireless connection between the Prsbyterial and the workers in our mission fields, that one might know the needs there, and they our sympathy and interest. In Trindad, the beautiful island named by the Spaniards something meaning "The land of the humming bird," and later called Trinidad or Trinity by Columbus, 120,000 East Indians and many white people have made their home. They came at first to work on the sugar plantations and other places, where the climate makes much white labor impossible, many have served their time and have acquired plots of land and little homes of their own, and will make good citizens if they are Chrstianized and educated. Good Green told of attending with her brother a Hindus wedding, where a boy of twelve was married to a little girl of10 years. We have 72 schools there where Bible lessons are given daily. They much appreciate the barrels of clothing etc. sent from Canada, and many are induced to attend because of the help this clothing is to them. More attention of late, is being given to the education of girls, and with more teachers, they hope to extend this work. President expressed our appreciation of the excellent and interesting paper. Allocating the Home Mission money was next taken up. Work among the Jews got $900. Glace Bay $175 Maritime Home for girls $150, Truro Rescue Home $150, Mrs. Boyd $50, Inverness, N. S., $20. Deaconess to train $100, Pine Hill Bursary $50, United Mission, Sydney $350, Extension work $380 and some other small items.

The advisability of dividing P. E. I. Presbyterial was next considered, as it has grown so large that smaller places can hardly entertain delegates. Mrs. Forbes spoke on legal aspect of the matter. The rules say that a Presbyterial embraces all the territory and churches under a Presbytery, but that can be arranged all right, if thought best. Mrs. Adams, Mrs. McNeil and Mrs. Sterling spoke and it was unaminiously declared not to change now, there is inspiration in numbers, and an invitation was given to New London for next year, Mrs. Miller assuring us there would be room for all and that we would find that part of the Island very beautiful. Slips of paper were distributed for names, and it was found there were 125 delegates and 115 visitors present. Mrs. Forbes assuring us we were the Presbyterial, the largest one, with its 60 Societies, in Maritime Provinces. Nominating new officers followed.—Mrs. Benj. Rogers, Hon. Presdent, Mrs. Neil McLeod, Pres. re-elected, 1st. vice-Pres, Mrs. John Sterling, 2nd. Mrs. L. Crockett, 3rd, Mrs. E. A. LePage, 4th, Mrs. J. M. McLeod, 5th, Mrs. Horton, Secy. Mrs. Matheson, re-elected, Treas. Mrs. A. E. Morrison, re-elected. Home Mission Secy. Mrs. R. McNeil, Mrs. (Rev.) J. C. Martin, Young People's Work. President thanked all for re-election, and expressed hope for a still more successful year. Resolution report by Mrs. McInnis followed 1st. moving sympathy with sister and daughters of late Mrs. I. Cairns also to Miss Yillah Muirhead on account of inability to be present and because of the death of her sister. 2nd, on slip,—Question box was now opened and many questions relating to how to make study books interesting, how to secure larger attendance at meetings, how to raise money for missions etc. Many good suggestions were given by different members which we trust will be tested during the year.

At evening meeting the church was again crowded to the doors. Pres. Mrs. McLeod presided and the choir rendered beautiful music, including a solo by Moris Slachford. Rev. Mr. Young, returned missionary from Korea gave a splendid address on Mission Work there, and the hardships of learning their language, the sad and cruel oppression of the Korean people by the Japanese. Their troubles though give us a better chance to help and teach them than ever we had, and he earnestly urged the providing of more help, strongly advising that all the native help possible be employed, as the climate was hard on white people, and with a good band of native male evangelists and Bible women the work could be greatly extended.

Mrs. Forbes followed with an excellent address on the worth while-ness of Mission Work.

2nd. Resolution moved hearty thanks the kind people of Hunter River and vicinity for their hospitality and great kindness to all delegates and visitors and to minister and choir and all, who helped to make Presbyterial a success, carried, after which Rev. H. Stovert closed the meeting with benediction, and a thoroughly successful Presbyterial ended.
