"West of the Rio Grande" was directed by Lambert Hillier from an original story and screenplay by Betty Burbridge, and the production was supervised by Charles J. Bigelow.

Bristol and Vicinity

Now that the election is over, this vicinity has settled down after a lot of loud talk on what to do about the election. No doubt we will settle again to the quiet task of every day work once more.

Capt. Mercler Mullins who arrived from England a short time ago as a member for the C.C.F. in the Dominion election is spending a well earned rest with his wife and baby at Morell.

Miss Reta O'Brien arrived from Ottawa this week to spend a week in a happy event that will take place very shortly.

Some old-time veterans went to the polls on election day and one was Mr. John T. O'Brien who has been voting for almost thirty years and has voted in this district all those years. Mr. O'Brien is enjoying prime health and hopes to vote in many more elections yet.

The Morell Sporting Club staged their play in Morell hall last Friday and Saturday night last week to crown the year's work. The play was "The Shepherd's Boy" and was a great success. The sum of $180.00 was cleared and owing to the great success of the play so many are calling to have the play staged again it is expected it will be run for two more nights later on. This is the first time in our memory a play has drawn such crowds for two nights here. He is informed the show will be put on in many other halls with the proceeds going to the fund for the erection of a new hall of the most modern type with recreation rooms, bowling alleys, and pool tables and fitted for talking pictures to be staged regularly.

Fishermen report that with better weather the fishing has improved but owing to the shortness of the season the lobster fishery will be believe, have the worst season in years. Mackerel are quite plentiful and the price five cents per lb. That would bring them to about seven cents each for fair sized ones. We are informed these fish are selling for fifty cents per lb. would bring them to about seven cents each for small ones. Quite a difference!

Mr. Frank Alyward arrived from Toronto a short time ago to spend his vacation here with his mother. Frank is following his chosen field and studying for a higher walk in life and we wish him success.

Quite a few navy boys are home at present on leave. One is Stricker Terrance Gallant after a long time at sea he is visiting his sister here.

Two new headstones were erected in the Morell village cemetery last week. One by Mrs. Art Aldershaw to the memory of her late husband and one by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien in memory of their little daughter, Mary Catherine, dead almost one year.

Mrs. Art Aldershaw who left for Halifax this week turned back at Charlottetown when she received word her son, Harry was on his way home on leave from England. Miss Lottie Hughes, Boston, Mass., is expected in Bristol shortly.
