Mr. McLean has taken out a patent.

THE OLD GARDENER SAYS An ordinary putty knife is one of the most useful tools which the amateur gardener can use. It serves many purposes and is especially useful in setting out small plants. It is an efficient instrument for cleaning other tools, is found convenient at harvesting time, and when the day's work is over will remove the accumulation of soft earth from the shoes in a speedy and satisfactory manner. It can be tucked into the side pocket, occupying but little space, and is ready for use at any time. By all means add a putty knife to your list of garden tools.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY To Mrs. Malcolm McLeod, Glasgow. Dear Sister McLeod.—Our kind Heavenly Father has taken your darling baby girl back to Himself, to be one of the bright blossoms in His beautiful Garden above. He sometimes allows us to have the dear babies for a while and then He takes them that our hearts may be drawn to Him. We wish to extend to you, and Mr. McLeod our deep sympathy in your great sorrow. May the same all-wise, and loving Father comfort you, and heal your hearts and until that day bye and bye when you will have your little one again in God's own Kingdom, may you have the assurance, that "Underneath are the Everlasting Arms," and around and about you the tender, watchful, everbriding presence of God. Signed on behalf of THE ELDON PRES. W. M. S. Belfast, June 1st 1921

Despite medical aid and the untiring efforts of her devoted family and kind friends she peacefully passed away Friday evening, May 20th. She was attended in her illness by Rev. Pius MacDonald, and by her Pastor Rev. Dr. Walker and consoled by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church. The sad parting with a mother filled full a cup of sorrow of an affectionate family and wounded the hearts of dear ones that resignation to the Divine Will alone can relieve the pain. Mrs. MacDonald was a mother and woman in every sense of the words. Her first care was her home and her family and the way she performed her duties the devoted up-look on a wife and mother is plainly shown to those mourning for her that Christian teaching and dutiful care have not been in vain. She always observed the rules of her faith with the greatest care and this coupled with her great purity of heart, her unselfishness and piety led to an example well worthy of imitation. Her life was full of trials and crosses. She was left an orphan with the care of her brothers and sisters at the age of fourteen and again left a widow with five small children, she was always patient and resigned, truly hers was the Royal Road of the cross and she went to receive her reward at the age of 64 years. A large concourse of people came to see her mortal remains and to assist at the solemn Requiem High Mass on Monday morning in St. Francis de Sales Church by Rev. Dr. Walker, after which she was laid to rest beside her husband who predeceased her in 1903. She leaves to mourn two sons, Joseph and Henry, J. St. Dunstan's University, three daughters, Mrs. Hugh C. MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR DIPHTHERIA IN MEMORIAM MRS. RONALD S. MACDONALD The community of Little Pond was aroused early Thursday morning, May 19th, by the news of the sudden and serious illness of Mrs. Ronald S. MacDonald. Despite medical aid and the untiring efforts of her devoted family and kind friends she peacefully passed away Friday evening, May 20th. She was attended in her illness by Rev. Pius MacDonald, and by her Pastor Rev. Dr. Walker and consoled by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church. The sad parting with a mother filled full a cup of sorrow of an affectionate family and wounded the hearts of dear ones that resignation to the Divine Will alone can relieve the pain. Mrs. MacDonald was a mother and woman in every sense of the words. Her first care was her home and her family and the way she performed her duties the devoted up-look on a wife and mother is plainly shown to those mourning for her that Christian teaching and dutiful care have not been in vain. She always observed the rules of her faith with the greatest care and this coupled with her great purity of heart, her unselfishness and piety led to an example well worthy of imitation. Her life was full of trials and crosses. She was left an orphan with the care of her brothers and sisters at the age of fourteen and again left a widow with five small children, she was always patient and resigned, truly hers was the Royal Road of the cross and she went to receive her reward at the age of 64 years. A large concourse of people came to see her mortal remains and to assist at the solemn Requiem High Mass on Monday morning in St. Francis de Sales Church by Rev. Dr. Walker, after which she was laid to rest beside her husband who predeceased her in 1903. She leaves to mourn two sons, Joseph and Henry, J. St. Dunstan's University, three daughters, Mrs. Hugh C. McPhee, Selkirk, Laura, teacher, Selkirk, and Annie, Beverly, Mass.; also four brothers, Alex. R. and Angus R. McDonald, St. Peter's Lake; James J. Medford, Mass.; Joseph A., Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Angus McPhee, West St. Peter's, Mass.; Donald McDonald, St. Peter's Lake, all of whom have the sympathy of their many friends. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord! And let perpetual light shine upon her.
