RETURNS FROM VANCOUVER.—Many friends here are pleased to see again visiting the province Mr. W. F. Scott, veteran surveyor of Vancouver, B. C., a former islander who has been many years in the west and who in his professional capacity has traversed a great deal of forest country now occupied by thriving cities. Mr. Scott, who arrived in Charlottetown Wednesday night, is a guest at the Revere Hotel and will visit friends and relatives at his old home, North River, and other parts of the province. This is his third visit with in the past two years, when he arrived after a very long absence and found the island as beautiful as ever and many friends left to welcome him.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Tearing along at a dangerous speed about midnight Wednesday night an unknown motor car breezed around the corner of Kent and Great George Streets from the direction of the Police Station. The "silent policeman" a knock-out punch and drove the dumb guardian of the law clear across the street to Beer & Cudmore's store-front and continued at break-neck pace up Great George to Grafton Street, turning on two wheels, thence to the left and disappearing into the night. The watchman on duty spotted the collision with the wooden sentinel but the joy-rider had the wit to switch off the red rear light and no car number could be noted. Turning Grafton Street corner the light was again switched on as the car proceeded. All that was left to do was to restore to his post of duty the badly battered sentry, who is still valiantly holding down the job.

CHARLOTTETOWN MAN INJURED.—Mr. Cyril Hughes, employee of the C.M.R. in New Brunswick, son of Train Despatcher G. A. Hughes of this city, had a very narrow escape while on duty last Monday night when he and another railroad man were travelling on a motor side-speeider in the vicinity of Edmundston, N.B. While travelling at fast speed they struck in the dark a hand car which was on the track and as a result of the collision, Mr. Hughes was knocked unconscious and badly bruised about the face and body. His injuries though not of a critical nature, were painful enough to necessitate a brief rest-up and he is now back at his home in this city where he is remaining for a few days. The other man in the car with Mr. Hughes escaped with a bad shaking up.

ENJOYABLE TEA—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Mathieson, wife of Chief Justice Mathieson threw open her lovely home at 1 Gratton Street for an afternoon tea under the auspices of the young ladies of St. James Church Guild. The rooms were very artistically decorated with an abundance of autumn flowers and the attendance was entirely satisfactory. In the tea room a bevy of young ladies were in attendance and tea was expeditiously served. Needless to say the Guild appreciated Mrs. Mathieson's kindness in opening her home for so pleasant an event.

IMPORTANT HORSE PURCHASE—Local horsemen throughout the island will no doubt be interested to learn that Mr. John Carver of this city has purchased in trade, from Mr. Daniel McLennan, Sydney, the handsome and speedy stallion "James McKinney". Jack's many friends are all looking forward to a successful racing campaign on local ice this winter as the McKinney horse has a lineage mark of 2:18 1/4. It is understood that Francis C., formerly owned by Mr. Carver will make her home in Sydney this winter. Francis C. is by Capt. Aubrey and is one of the fastest pacers that ever left the island.

IN MEMORIAM
DANIEL WRIGHT.
A deep gloom passed over Cherry Valley and vicinity on Friday morning the 30th of Sept. when the news of the death of Daniel Wright of that place was circulated a well known and highly respected farmer of Cherry Valley.

The late Mr. Wright was in his sixty-fourth year of his age, and unmarried. The deceased leaves to mourn: one brother, Dr. J. P. Wright, New York and one sister, Mrs. Haley, California. The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. McEachen, city and Mrs. Dunphy, Cherry Valley.

The funeral which was very largely attended took place Saturday, the 30th.

"The Broken Wing"

Last Season's Greatest Broadway Success

There has never been a scenic effect in the history of the theatre that excels that of the great airplane scene in the big Broadway success "The Broken Wing" which is to be offered as a special attraction, without any increase in price, at the Prince Edward Theatre by the Klark-Urban Stock Co., during their engagement of five days commencing Tuesday, Oct. 10th, in securing this super-attraction, and in presenting it at pre-war prices Manager Klark has achieved one of the greatest pieces of stage accomplishment in the history of the theatre. In order that "The Broken Wing" may, in every detail, be as near the original New York production as is possible, Manager Klark has been in personal communication with the agents of this great comedy drama in New York. He has secured detailed blueprints of the famous airplane effect, photographs of the original scenes and will present the theatre goers of Charlottetown with a spectacle extraordinary as well as one of the most absorbing plays that has been written in years. "The Broken Wing" is a great play. It has a wonderful love story, and set in a country famous for its romance, affords one of the most remarkable entertainments in the history of the stage. It may be added that the capabilities of the Klark-Urban Co., are particularly well adapted to the presentation of the play. "The Broken Wing" will be the opening play of their engagement. (Seats now on sale at Ticket Office open at 9.30 a. m. at the Theatre.

WAIL OF A GASPE COAST FISHER'S WIFE
When the tide comes in in the Morning, O God what will it bring,
When the sea wind comes with the dawning and ushers the new day in.

There came great winds from the westward as soon as my Pierre had gone,
And I wailed to him from the shore, as every morn I've done,
The sea was calm this morning as I watched his white sails flee
Away over the waves to the west, but he has not come back to me.

I've watched till my eyes are aching, for his sail, How the breaker roars
And my lamp shines bright from the window like a beacon from the shore. . . .
God, Thou hast given us fisher's, a terrible gift that day
When thou gave us the seas as our portion and look-at the price we pay.

My Jean, my son, last Autumn was lost when the Gull went down
Of the rocks of the Devil's hedges, On that night there was thirty drowned.

When the Dawn Wind comes with the dawning and ushers the new day in
When the Tide comes in in the morning, O God what will it bring!

—Rita Mackenzie McObbs, 291 Cumberland Avenue, Portland, Maine.

THE GOSPEL OF GOOD CHEER
It's good to hear a glad "hello!"
And get a smile from men you know I like to feel, in times of doubt,
That there are friendly men about,
And some who care, and some who'll stay,
To help me on my troubled way,
To know that off my "blood" is stirred,
To hear a kind and cheerful word.

For the storm is wild (tonight) child and will his boat come in!

the lip,
The depth and warmth of fellow,
I know my heart has oft rejoiced
To hear a friendly greeting voice,
And I have hummed a cheerful song,
Because a friend has come along.

If others mean so much to me,
What must I mean to these I see,
If what they say and what they do,
Has power to thrill me through and through,
Then why should I not as they do,
Give every man a glad "hello!"
And try to cheer his life this day,
That mine is cheered from day to day?

Since friendliness makes me glad,
To friendly words I'll lend my hand,
Since kindness warms the heart of me,
A kindly man I'll try to be—
Since I prefer the man who gives
A portion of the life he lives,
To others, I shall also try
To be like him as time goes by.

STILLMAN BABY OUT OF DAN. GER

THREE RIVERS, Que., Oct. 5.—Baby Guy Stillman, son of the millionaire banker of New York, who recently suffered from an attack of high fever, is now out of danger, according to information received over the long distance wire from Grandes Piles tonight. Dr. Charles Green, of New York, who was given a rush call to Grand Anse, where Mrs. Stillman's camp is located, is staying at the camp to hunt.

THE AMBULANCE DOWN IN THE VALLEY.

"Twas a dangerous cliff as they freely confessed,
Though to walk near its crest was so pleasant;
But over its terrible edge there had slipped
A duke and full many a peasant;
So the people said something would have to be done,
But their projects did not at all tally.
Some said, "Put a fence round the edge of the cliff."
Some, "An ambulance down in the valley."

But the cry for the ambulance carried the day;
For it spread through the neighboring city:
A fence may be useful or not, it is true,
But each heart became brimful of pity
For those who slipped over that dangerous cliff;
And the dwellers in highway and valley
Gave a pound or gave pence, not to put up a fence
But an ambulance down in the valley.

"For the cliff is all right if you're careful," they said,
"And if folks even slip and are dropped,
It isn't the slipping that hurts them so much
As the shock down below—when they're stopping."
So day after day, as these mishaps occurred,
Quick forth would the rescuers rally.
To pick up the victims who fell off the cliff
With their ambulance down in the valley.

Then an old sage remarked: "It's a marvel to me
That people give far more attention
To repairing results than to stopping the cause
When they'd much better aim at prevention.
Let us stop at its source all this mischief," said he;
"Come neighbors and friends let us rally;
If the cliff we will fence we might almost dispense
With the ambulance down in the valley."

"Oh! he's a fanatic," the others rejoined;
"Dispense with the ambulance! Never!
Dispense with all charities too, if he could;
But not 'We'll support them forever."
Aren't you picking folks up just as fast as they fall
And shall this man dictate to us? Shall he?
Why should people of sense stop to put up a fence
While their ambulance works in the valley?"

But a sensible few, who are practical too,
Will not bear with such nonsense much longer;
They believe that prevention is better than cure,
And their party will soon be the stronger
Encourage them, then, with your purse, voice and pen,
And (while other philanthropists cally)
They will scorn all pretence, and put a strong fence
On the cliff that hangs over the valley.

"SOFCO" SUNSHINE ONE REGISTER PIPELESS FURNACE

Means summer warmth the whole winter through

McCLARY'S One Register Pipeless System is most economical of fuel. As the register is directly above the furnace every unit of heat passes directly to the rooms to be heated. The cool air is removed from the house as the warm air enters, therefore there is no resistance to the heat circulation and no energy is wasted. The circulation of the air is free throughout the house, doing away with all the friction and pockets which help to retard the circulation of the warm air. The furnace is insulated by the cold air between the outside and inside casings, therefore no heat can escape in the basement. This is most important where a cool cellar is desired for fruit and vegetables. It is obvious that for houses already built the One Register Pipeless System is the ideal installation. The minimum excavation necessary is 6 ft. square by 6 ft. deep instead of under the whole house. It can be installed for very little more money than the old-fashioned Base-Burner.

The "SOFCO" Sunshine Furnace burns hard or soft coal, coke, wood, or any thing that is combustible as it has a CAST-IRON fire-pot on which the intensest heat has little effect.

Its strength and massive construction, its generous proportions make a heating plant for a lifetime's service.

No. 91 "SOFCO" Heating Capacity 15,000 ft. Price $180.00
No. 93 "SOFCO" Heating Capacity 25,000 ft. Price $225.00

RADIUM ONE REGISTER PIPELESS FURNACE

McCLARY'S RADIUM pipeless furnace is made to meet the demand for a moderate priced heating plant. It is made with a steel fire-pot for the use of hard coal or wood only, and everything that can be said of the "SOFCO" Sunshine applies equally to the RADIUM.

No. 316 Radium, Heating Capacity 10,000 ft. Price $125.00
No. 419 Radium, Heating Capacity 14,000 ft. Price $148.00
No. 421 Radium, Heating Capacity 18,000 ft. Price $177.50
