Two Prince Edward Islanders appeared on last night's Royal Canadian Air Force assembly list. One, Sgt. Ralph Ernest Wells, is listed as killed on active service. He was an only son of Mrs. S. J. Gordon of Elmsdale in western Ontario. His father is dead and his mother is married again. Sgt. Wells attended college before enlisting with the Royal Air Force.

The other name on last night's list, Stirling David Banks, is dead. His father is the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Banks of Conway were informed he was missing following operations away from the front. There was a letter earlier serving with the air force. Several other brothers and sisters are at home.

Sgt. Banks attended Prince of Wales College at Charlottetown several years ago. An elderly lady, Mrs. John Sutherland, well known in Summerside and Bedouque passed away at 10.30 Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Norman Montgomery, Central Street, Summerside.

Mrs. Sutherland, who had been in failing health for some time was born at Fernwood, P. E. I., and received her education in the local school. She was one of a family of ten. Her father and mother were both deceased. Her husband was Dr. John Sutherland who practised in Bedouque and who has been dead for about 36 years. They had no children.

The late Mrs. Sutherland made her home in Summerside during her declining years, the past eight of which she lived at the home of Mrs. Norman Montgomery where she remains resting. The funeral will be Tuesday at 2 p. m. with a service at the home and burial in North Bedouque Cemetery.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING - The first general meeting of the Ladies Legion Auxiliary to be held since the summer recess was held at the Legion Home, Friday night. Mrs. A. Henry, President, in the chair. The meeting was well attended and 16 new members were initiated and given names proposed for membership. Several matters of interest were brought up for discussion and reports of different committees read. Mrs. Hooper, convener of the committee for selling war saving stamps reported that already $710 had been realized from the sale of stamps. Mrs. P. E. Palmer reported for the Corner, the usual darning, mending and sewing on buttons had kept the ladies of that committee busy. Mrs. Ira Brown in charge of the Armistice dance committee reported that 3 very successful dances had been held in the Armistice building since the last general meeting. The following members were voted: $150 to help furnish the recreation quarters on Queen Charlotte, $150 to Charlottetown Branch of Canadian Legion to finish paving of the street, $225 to buy wool for knitting. It was also reported that games had been

The sad news was received by Mr. Arthur McQuaid of Charlottetown yesterday of the death Saturday night of his brother, Lewis McQuaid at Somerville, Mass. He had been ill several months. The 35-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McQuaid was born in the United States for 10 years. A native of Kelly's Cross, P. E. I., Mr. McQuaid was a son of Mrs. James E. McQuaid, now of Somerville and the late Mrs. M. McQuaid.

Surviving are his wife, nee Rosalia Frazer of Kinkora, a five-year-old daughter, Rose Mary, his mother and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Vincent McQuaid, Boston; Mrs. John Ryan, Hyde Park, Mass.; Mrs. Joseph Smith, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. Emmett McQuaid and Mr. William McQuaid, both at Kelly's Cross; Mrs. Emmett Wisner, Waterville; and Mr. Arthur McQuaid of Charlottetown.

A brother, John McQuaid, predeceased him by about six years. Burial will be in a Hyde Park cemetery.

Mr. Arthur McQuaid just returned from a three-weeks visit to his brother. He was returning to Charlottetown Friday night and yesterday received the sad news of his brother's death.

Captain J. Blaauvoer, Assistant Naval Attaché of the Netherlands Legation at Washington is spending a few days holiday on Prince Edward Island. This is his first visit to the Province and he decided to come here after looking over one of our tourist booklets which he picked up in an office in Washington. Previous to the outbreak of war Captain Blaauvoer was in command of various steamers in the Dutch East Indies and other parts of the South West Pacific. He has been in almost every large port in the world. For many years his headquarters were in Java which is a small country but with a population of over forty millions of people. Java is very rich in natural resources such as coffee, rubber, oil, tin, rice, etc. Previous to the Japanese occupation most of the large plants were destroyed. At the time Holland was invaded he was in Italy but managed to get to the United States. It is now over a year since he has had any word of his family.

AIRWOMEN - A group of airwomen, members of the Royal Canadian Air Force, women's division, arrived at Summerside Saturday night. They number 32 and are the advance guard of a larger number which will be stationed at the Summerside airport. More are expected this week. Earlier air women were stationed at Summerside but were transferred when No. 9 Service Flying Training School was moved to a new site in Ontario.

LAD TO REST - The funeral of Mrs. Stella Duffy, an employee of the Guardian Office is in hospital with serious injuries following an accident at Southport last night. She was struck by an unidentified car as she was about to board a bus. From Prince Edward Island Hospital authorities learned Mrs. Duffy's two legs were broken.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police said the car did not stop. An investigation is underway in the woman's effort to identify the car. Police said Mrs. Duffy hailed the bus at 9.25 last night. It stopped about 60 feet beyond where she was standing and as she walked to it a car going from the direction of Charlottetown struck her down and continued on without stopping. Another car which happened along rushed the injured woman to the Prince Edward Island Hospital. She had been at Southport yesterday visiting relatives.

Late last night Mrs. Duffy's condition was described as favorable. The injured woman has been employed for a number of years in the Guardian job printing office.
