

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

SPENDS WEEK-END HERE - Group Captain H. R. Stewart, Director of Intelligence, R.C.A.F. arrived in Charlottetown last Friday evening to spend the week-end with his father, Mr. D. B. Stewart.

C.N.R. OFFICIALS - Mr. Maynard A. Metcalf, executive assistant to the President of the Canadian National Railways, Montreal, Mr. Robert G. Macmillan, General Manager of Hotels, were visitors to Charlottetown during the week-end and accompanied by Mr. Arthur Mould, manager of the Charlottetown, made some business calls during Saturday.

ATTENDING CATTLE SALES - Premier Walter Jones left yesterday morning to attend the Canadian National sales at Oakville, Ont., where one of his pure bred cows will undergo the hammer. From Oakville the Premier will go to Waukesha, Wisconsin, where two more of his cows will be sold. The Blue Ribbon Cattle Show will visit Ottawa on his way home.

NEW PORTFOLIO - The Ministry of Reconstruction, a portfolio created at the last session of the Provincial Legislature, was taken over on Saturday by Premier J. Walter Jones. No announcement has been made with regard to any steps taken to implement the Government's action plan of September, 1944, to establish in conjunction with the Ministry, a partisan committee of members and citizens on Reconstruction.

WRENS ENTERTAINED - A number of Wrens from H.M.C.S. Stadacona, Halifax, spent the week-end in Charlottetown, entertained by the Ladies' Navy Auxiliary, H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte. Yesterday afternoon they were taken for a drive about the city by His Worship, Mayor J. E. Blanchard. They left this morning for Halifax.

FUNERAL SATURDAY - The funeral of Miss Bertha Webster was held from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street, on Saturday afternoon. Services were held by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery, the pallbearers were Messrs. Angus MacEachern, James Smith, T. Currie, Mack MacKay, Neil MacLean, Urban Aitchison.

FUNERAL SUNDAY - The funeral of the late Reginald A. Ryan, formerly of Charlottetown, was held on Sunday at 11 o'clock from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street. Services were conducted by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Henry Douglas, Kelsey Brennan, William J. Ryan, Reginald Kemp, Finlay MacKinnon and J. MacDonell.

SLIGHTLY INJURED - Mrs. Claude Hopwood of Summerside was slightly injured last night about 10 o'clock when her car in which she was a passenger was in collision with another car from Lot 16. The accident occurred near the railway crossing at St. John's. Hopwood was driving one car and in addition to his wife was accompanied by their two children. Mrs. Hopwood was taken to the St. John's Hospital for a cut on her eye. After stitches were taken in the wound she was able to go home.

STILL MISSING - Pte. Joseph Francis Arsenault of Summerside was reported missing in action in France on June 7, 1944, and subsequently his name was placed on the Missing List of the Canadian Army. It was reported that he was a prisoner of war. On Saturday Mrs. Arsenault received a letter from her husband in which he advised her that this was an error and that he is still missing. He claims that he was with two men of the same name and that is how the error occurred. Pte. Arsenault is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fidelio Arsenault, Summerside.

BYRNE - KELLY - In St. Joseph's Church on Monday morning the marriage was solemnized of Miss Elsie Kelly, daughter of Mrs. John Kelly, and Mr. Leonard Francis Byrne, youngest son of Mr. John Byrne and Mrs. Mary Byrne. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and the groom wore a tuxedo. The wedding music was played by Mrs. J. O. D. F. scholarship. Rev. G. Carleton Webster officiated at the ceremony. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. Ernest Byrne. The wedding party included the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Byrne, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary Byrne. The ceremony was held at 11 o'clock.

FULLER - READ - Mr. Allan Rattenbury, son of Mrs. George Read and the late Mr. Read of Read's Corner, about three miles from Summerside, was informed over the radio when he was killed on October 27. When last heard from he was serving with the Canadian Army in Belgium. Fuller Read was 30 years old. He enlisted last December and went overseas in the spring. In addition to his mother he is survived by four brothers, David Read in Charlottetown, Benjamin Read, Martin Read and Ernest Read all at home. Before he enlisted he was employed with the P. E. I. Bag Company in Summerside.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER - A large crowd of friends and family gathered at the home of Mrs. Margaret MacEachern on Friday evening for a miscellaneous shower in honor of her daughter, Mildred, who is to be married to Mr. Ernest Byrne on Saturday. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. Ernest Byrne. The wedding party included the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret MacEachern, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary Byrne. The ceremony was held at 11 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY RECEIVES S.A.D. NEWS - Mr. Thomas Howat of this city has received a telegram advising him of the death on Monday of his sister, Miss Elmer Boyce of Waltham, Mass. She passed away after a short illness.

LEAVES FOR HALIFAX - Major W. Rogers, who recently returned wounded from overseas, leaves this morning for Halifax, where he hopes to be back here before being posted elsewhere.

ISLANDER DEAD - Mrs. Alexander Blue, of Little Sands, P. E. I., has just received the sad news of the death of her son, Mr. William H. Spencer, in Detroit, Michigan, on Nov. 3, 1944.

TO PLACE WREATH - At the Remembrance Day services on Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Helen G. Brown has contributed a large wreath in memory of the 87 English soldiers who lost their lives on the P.E.I. front during the war.

ART SOCIETY MEETING - The P.E.I. Art Society held its regular meeting last night at the home of Mrs. D.M. Gass, North Street. Mrs. Gass, president of the society, presided over the meeting. Plans were made for holding a Christmas party on December 15th.

OFFICERS INSTALLED - The officers of Summerside Council of the Order of the Knights of Columbus were installed at a special meeting on Sunday afternoon. The officers are: President, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Vice-President, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Secretary, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Treasurer, Mr. J. W. MacEachern.

HOME FOR WIDOW - Mr. Frank Gardner of Windsor, Ontario, arrived in Charlottetown last night to attend the funeral of his father, George W. Gardner. Mr. Gardner will take place from the MacLean Funeral Home this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FAMILY BEREAVED - Mrs. Mathilda Rose, formerly of Matilda, P.E.I., passed away at her home in New Glasgow, N.S., on Saturday. She was 82 years of age. Her husband, Mr. J. W. Rose, died in 1941.

LAD TO REST - The funeral of Mrs. Frank H. Driscoll, who died last night at her residence, Mount Heriot, was held on Sunday morning. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock from the MacLean Funeral Home.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of Mr. John F. McAleer was held yesterday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street. Services were held by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Albert MacEachern was held yesterday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street. Services were held by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery.

TRUCK STOLEN - A half-ton truck, owned by Miller Bros. music store in Charlottetown, was stolen about 10 o'clock last night. The truck was parked near the Rogers Hardware Store with the key in the ignition. It was not recovered until this morning.

HILLSBORO CHAPTER 1 O. D. E. - The regular monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Chapter 1 O. D. E. was held Monday evening in the Chapter rooms, Grafton Street. The meeting was presided over by the Chapter Master, Mr. J. W. MacEachern.

TRUCK STOLEN - A half-ton truck, owned by Miller Bros. music store in Charlottetown, was stolen about 10 o'clock last night. The truck was parked near the Rogers Hardware Store with the key in the ignition. It was not recovered until this morning.

COADY - A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized in St. Colman's Church, Brighton, Mass., when Anna Teresa Coady, daughter of Mr. Michael Coady, former of Charlottetown, was married to Mr. John J. Coady, son of Mr. John Coady, of St. John's, Newfoundland, and the Rev. Edwin McCormac, S.J., of St. Paul's College, Winnipeg. Also three daughters, Gladys (Mrs. O. P. Pinaud), Pictou, N.S.; Mae (Mrs. M. J. MacEachern), St. John's, Nfld.; and Sister Mary of the Good Shepherd, St. Louis, Mo., to all of whom sincere sympathy is extended.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER - A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack MacMillan on Friday evening, October 27th, when a large number of friends gathered for a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKinnon. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. Charles MacKinnon.

EXPECTED HOME - Mr. Frank G. Carleton, who is expected to arrive in Charlottetown on Saturday, is expected to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. G. Carleton Webster, on Sunday.

PRIZE WINNERS - At the regular Monday night Knights of Columbus social evening prize winners were: Ladies, Mrs. Fred MacMahon; men, Mr. Allan Callaghan.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING - While a great deal of routine business was transacted at the regular monthly School Board meeting yesterday afternoon, the most interesting was the report on the findings of Dr. Branch. As a result of their deliberations the following resolution was adopted: That the undersigned juror duly empanelled and sworn to enquire into the cause of the death of Bernard Gillis, 33, of Summerside, on October 27th, 1944, do find that the deceased came to his death from acute alcoholic poisoning.

PRISONER OF WAR IN GERMANY - Mr. G. Carleton Webster, who was a prisoner of war in Germany from 1940 to 1945, is expected to return to Canada in the near future.

GYRO MEETS - The local Gyro Club meeting in the Charlottetown Hotel last night had an unusually large attendance. The speaker was Mr. J. W. MacEachern, who spoke on the subject of "The Gyro Club's Contribution to the Community."

TO REPRESENT PROVINCE - Billie MacDonald and John Gillis, of Summerside, will represent the province at the National Youth Conference in Ottawa, Ontario, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Ramsay, Northam, and their baby had a narrow escape from death in a fire which broke out in their home last night. The fire was caused by a gas leak and the baby was rescued by the fire department.

A most enjoyable social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. MacEachern on Friday evening. The evening was spent in the company of many friends and family.

The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday morning of Mr. George McCormac, of Alberton, who was widely known throughout the Province in connection with his work as an educator. Mr. McCormac was born at St. George's sixties-seven years ago.

On September 24, 1944, an aged and respected resident of Vernon, B.C., Mrs. Jennie McKenna, passed to her eternal reward. Her husband, Mr. J. W. McKenna, preceded her eleven years ago.

The late Mrs. McKenna was ever the mother and devoted wife. Her family, the charitable friend and the devoted mother, the self-sacrificing supporter of the Church and the welfare of the Church.

PO. Lloyd B. Grant of Mr. Edward Row Charlottetown, returned Sunday to rejoin his ship having spent a well-earned leave at his home after fifteen months of active service overseas with the Royal Canadian Navy.

WEDNESDAY RECEIVES S.A.D. NEWS - Mr. Thomas Howat of this city has received a telegram advising him of the death on Monday of his sister, Miss Elmer Boyce of Waltham, Mass. She passed away after a short illness.

LEAVES FOR HALIFAX - Major W. Rogers, who recently returned wounded from overseas, leaves this morning for Halifax, where he hopes to be back here before being posted elsewhere.

ISLANDER DEAD - Mrs. Alexander Blue, of Little Sands, P. E. I., has just received the sad news of the death of her son, Mr. William H. Spencer, in Detroit, Michigan, on Nov. 3, 1944.

TO PLACE WREATH - At the Remembrance Day services on Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Helen G. Brown has contributed a large wreath in memory of the 87 English soldiers who lost their lives on the P.E.I. front during the war.

ART SOCIETY MEETING - The P.E.I. Art Society held its regular meeting last night at the home of Mrs. D.M. Gass, North Street. Mrs. Gass, president of the society, presided over the meeting. Plans were made for holding a Christmas party on December 15th.

OFFICERS INSTALLED - The officers of Summerside Council of the Order of the Knights of Columbus were installed at a special meeting on Sunday afternoon. The officers are: President, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Vice-President, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Secretary, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Treasurer, Mr. J. W. MacEachern.

HOME FOR WIDOW - Mr. Frank Gardner of Windsor, Ontario, arrived in Charlottetown last night to attend the funeral of his father, George W. Gardner. Mr. Gardner will take place from the MacLean Funeral Home this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FAMILY BEREAVED - Mrs. Mathilda Rose, formerly of Matilda, P.E.I., passed away at her home in New Glasgow, N.S., on Saturday. She was 82 years of age. Her husband, Mr. J. W. Rose, died in 1941.

LAD TO REST - The funeral of Mrs. Frank H. Driscoll, who died last night at her residence, Mount Heriot, was held on Sunday morning. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock from the MacLean Funeral Home.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of Mr. John F. McAleer was held yesterday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street. Services were held by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Albert MacEachern was held yesterday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street. Services were held by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery.

TRUCK STOLEN - A half-ton truck, owned by Miller Bros. music store in Charlottetown, was stolen about 10 o'clock last night. The truck was parked near the Rogers Hardware Store with the key in the ignition. It was not recovered until this morning.

HILLSBORO CHAPTER 1 O. D. E. - The regular monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Chapter 1 O. D. E. was held Monday evening in the Chapter rooms, Grafton Street. The meeting was presided over by the Chapter Master, Mr. J. W. MacEachern.

TRUCK STOLEN - A half-ton truck, owned by Miller Bros. music store in Charlottetown, was stolen about 10 o'clock last night. The truck was parked near the Rogers Hardware Store with the key in the ignition. It was not recovered until this morning.

COADY - A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized in St. Colman's Church, Brighton, Mass., when Anna Teresa Coady, daughter of Mr. Michael Coady, former of Charlottetown, was married to Mr. John J. Coady, son of Mr. John Coady, of St. John's, Newfoundland, and the Rev. Ed-

Newton, Mass. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Mervin Clark, who looked very lovely in blue velvet. The groom was supported by his cousin, Captain Philip Drake of the S. Navy. The ushers were Mr. Mervin Clark of the medical division of U. S. Army and Mr. William Haney of U. S. Navy. The altar was beautifully decorated with white gladioli and delphiniums. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at Hotel Sheraton. The bride and groom spent a short honeymoon in the White Mountains.

SHOWERED - A shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Sumner, on Thursday night for Miss Marguerite Blackmore, who is to be a November bride to Mr. Lawrence Sackler of Drake, Sask. The couple were married at the seat of honor by Mrs. Francis LeVie. An address was read by Mrs. Martin Peters and the bride gave a gift to each of the bridesmaids. The bridesmaids were Misses Annie and Emily Blackmore. The groomsmen were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peters. The ceremony was held at 11 o'clock.

HOSPITAL MEETING - The South Hospital W. A. meeting was held on Friday the 3rd. Total receipts for the month were $1,000.00. The following were the receipts: Membership, $25.00; rummage sale, $146.00; Red Cross, $10.00; $20.00; Priest Point, $10.00; $20.00; Ladies Institute, $20.00; Exhibition proceeds, $10.00; Mrs. Donald McEachern, $10.00; ex-donations, $216.63. Bank balance, $156.75. Balance of materials bought and received from the hospital, $10.00. Total, $1,000.00.

SLIGHT FIRE - The Fire Department was called yesterday morning at 10:30 to a fire at Brighton Dairy. Employees of the dairy were however, extinguished the blaze with a few buckets of water. The firemen arrived on the scene at 11:00.

WOUNDED SOLDIER IMPROVING - Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toole, Bonshaw, have received a telegram from Minister of National Defence stating that their son, Pte. Joseph Freeman Jackson, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from his wounds. He is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

WOUNDED IN ACTION - Mrs. Elsie Hill, widow of Pte. Frank H. Hill, who was wounded in action in Belgium, is now recovering from her wounds. She is expected to be discharged in the near future.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY - Friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. Patrick G. Gault to celebrate his birthday. Mr. Gault presented with a beautiful gift by his two married daughters, Mrs. Mervin Clark and Mrs. William Haney. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner with a large number of friends and family.

KILLED IN ACTION - Word has been received by Mrs. Maud Stevenson, New Glasgow, P. E. I., that her grandson, Pte. James Francis Beveridge, 18 of the United States Marine Corps, has been killed in action in the Pacific area.

RECEIVES PROMOTION - Pte. Chief Angus MacEachern and Mrs. MacEachern have received word that their son, Pte. Officer Oliver (Buddy) MacEachern, has been promoted to Acting Officer. He is now on operational duty over Europe.

ALBERTON COURT - The adjourned sitting of the County Court at Alberton was completed on Tuesday, Oct. 31st. Judge L. A. MacEachern presided over the court. The following cases were heard: The case of Alfred Gaulton vs. William E. MacEachern, which the Judge dismissed the case without costs to either party. The case of William E. MacEachern vs. E.H. Strong, K.C., Summerside for the Defendant. The case of E.H. Strong, K.C. vs. E.H. Strong, K.C., Summerside for the Plaintiff and E.H. Strong, K.C. for the Defendant. The case of E.H. Strong, K.C. vs. E.H. Strong, K.C., Summerside for the Plaintiff and E.H. Strong, K.C. for the Defendant.

CHILD SCALDED - Little David Connell, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Borden Connell, Summerside, was badly scalded some time ago when he fell into a kettle of boiling water while the stove was on. The water was boiling over. The child was in hospital for a time where everything was done to relieve his pain. At last reports the child was improving.

OFFICERS INSTALLED - The officers of Summerside Council of the Order of the Knights of Columbus were installed at a special meeting on Sunday afternoon. The officers are: President, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Vice-President, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Secretary, Mr. J. W. MacEachern; Treasurer, Mr. J. W. MacEachern.

HOME FOR WIDOW - Mr. Frank Gardner of Windsor, Ontario, arrived in Charlottetown last night to attend the funeral of his father, George W. Gardner. Mr. Gardner will take place from the MacLean Funeral Home this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FAMILY BEREAVED - Mrs. Mathilda Rose, formerly of Matilda, P.E.I., passed away at her home in New Glasgow, N.S., on Saturday. She was 82 years of age. Her husband, Mr. J. W. Rose, died in 1941.

LAD TO REST - The funeral of Mrs. Frank H. Driscoll, who died last night at her residence, Mount Heriot, was held on Sunday morning. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock from the MacLean Funeral Home.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of Mr. John F. McAleer was held yesterday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street. Services were held by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Albert MacEachern was held yesterday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home, 222 Grafton Street. Services were held by Rev. G. Carleton Webster. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery.

TRUCK STOLEN - A half-ton truck, owned by Miller Bros. music store in Charlottetown, was stolen about 10 o'clock last night. The truck was parked near the Rogers Hardware Store with the key in the ignition. It was not recovered until this morning.

HILLSBORO CHAPTER 1 O. D. E. - The regular monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Chapter 1 O. D. E. was held Monday evening in the Chapter rooms, Grafton Street. The meeting was presided over by the Chapter Master, Mr. J. W. MacEachern.

TRUCK STOLEN - A half-ton truck, owned by Miller Bros. music store in Charlottetown, was stolen about 10 o'clock last night. The truck was parked near the Rogers Hardware Store with the key in the ignition. It was not recovered until this morning.

COADY - A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized in St. Colman's Church, Brighton, Mass., when Anna Teresa Coady, daughter of Mr. Michael Coady, former of Charlottetown, was married to Mr. John J. Coady, son of Mr. John Coady, of St. John's, Newfoundland, and the Rev. Ed-

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.

DEATHS - Mr. J. W. MacEachern, 80 years of age, died on Sunday morning at his home in Charlottetown. He was a well-known resident of the city and was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary MacEachern, and several children. The funeral was held on Monday morning from the MacLean Funeral Home.