'Grand To Have Your Health'

ays Mrs. Jenny Evans, of Detroit, Mich. Few of us appreciate our health until we lose it. Mrs. Evans worked in a factory, but owing to weakness and pains in her back she was forced to give up work. She says: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me well. It is grand to have your health, to feel well all the time and to go around like other women without that awful torture of female troubles." Women who are suffering from such troubles should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the tried and true medicine, now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for female ills.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD FROG THAT CANNOT SWIM

SALOME, Ariz., June 14.—"Where she danced," is the way Dick Wick Hall, gasoline man, philosopher, and entire population of Salome, explains how his town got its name.

Dick Wick Hall is the editor and publisher of the mimeographed "Salome Sun."

The "Salome Sun" contains the latest news about Hall's celebrated Salome frog—the waterless frog of the desert.

"Seven years old, and though he can't swim yet, it isn't his fault," is the way Hall describes his frog. "He never had a chance, but he lives in hopes."

"Three years ago Fourth of July Palos Verde Pete set off a box of dynamite, and the frog, thinking it was thunder, chased the cloud of smoke ten miles down the road, thinking it might rain."

Hall uses the frog as a cloak for his quiet desert philosophy.

"The Love Pendulum"

As Fate swings the pendulum of our lives back and forth, from grave to gay, from sad to sweet—

All will be well—if Love is there.

The pendulum swings far to the one side and then far to the other. Each time it passes the level of happiness we hold our breath a bit, waiting to see if it will stop for us there—then we sigh a bit and rush on with what we call Life.

But some day Love comes—a love big enough to steady the swing of the pendulum for us and bring it down to the normal arc of lives well lived—and then we know true happiness.

Read how the pendulum swung in the lives of Constance Bennett, a butterfly of fashion, and Winthrop Taylor, a small-town man in
