DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

Today at "the Eleventh hour of the Eleventh Month" Canadians will once again stand with bowed heads around the monuments erected in honour of those who died in order that civilization should not perish from the earth.

IMPORTANT JUDGMENT

The judgment rendered by Mr. Justice Arsenault, non-suiting the case of the Bank of Montreal versus the makers of a promissory note given as collateral security for cash advances to the Canadian Farm Products Ltd., is a most important one.

THE MARITIME CONFERENCE

The recent annual meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade, held in Charlottetown was in many respects one of the most important meetings held in the Maritimes in recent years.

POTATO EMBARGO.

It is most unfortunate that at this particular juncture an embargo should be placed on our potato exports by the Boston and Maine Railway.

Notes By The Way

Mr. Meighen became Prime Minister of Canada in July, 1920, on the retirement of Sir Robert Borden from that position.

Mr. Mackenzie King had been a defeated candidate in North Waterloo in 1911 and again in North York in 1917, but had been chosen leader of the Liberal party at the convention in Ottawa, August, 1919, and was elected at a by-election in Prince, P. E. I., in October of the same year.

The above recital throws a lurid light upon Premier King's present decision to carry on the Government in face of his defeat at the polls.

Premier King appealed to the people a few weeks ago, admitting his inability to carry on the Government and pass his measures.

Mr. King is permitted by grace of the Governor General to carry on for a brief time only and under notable limitations.

The Senators so appointed with emasculated powers accepted their humiliation. Premier King accepts his own humiliation as the price of a brief extension of his term in office!

"The people of Canada have rendered their electoral verdict," said the Toronto Globe, the chief exponent of Liberalism, when the result was known.

Mr. Meighen and his colleagues will do well to recognize that the greatest source of strength to their campaign was the weakness of their adversaries—the lamentable failure of the Government to give larger and more courageous service to grapple more vigorously with pressing problems and to strive more zealously—and less platiudously—toward national unity.

Such is the verdict of the leading Liberal newspaper of the land, confirming the verdict of the people, in expressing their want of confidence in the King Government.

times, the conference at Winnipeg will deal, we believe, in a spirit of greater good of the greater number.

Chat Body of Hours

By James W. Burton, M.D.

AGE AND THE HEART

A physician who has made considerable study of heart conditions tells us of the three ages at which the heart seems to give trouble.

The first is that from birth to the age of thirty or thirty five, which he states is due to infection from bad teeth and tonsils.

There are more people dying from heart conditions than at any previous time, despite the knowledge of the cause and prevention of such cases.

Organizations known as heart societies are spreading all this knowledge. And yet, as a race we will go along our way trying to preserve infected teeth, to use a gargoyle on infected tonsils, to eat everything in excess, and take little or no exercise.

PRAYER.—Lord, may our faith never falter, and we shall then be doers of the Word and not hearers only and Thou wilt both purify our desires and satisfy them.

THE LITTLE THINGS

If any little word of ours, Can make one life the brighter, If any little song of ours, Can make one heart the lighter, God help us speak the little word, And take our bit of singing, And drop it in some lonely vale, To set the echoes ringing.

If any little love of ours, Can make one life the sweeter, If any little care of ours, Can make one step the fleetier, If any little help may ease The burden of another, God give us love and care and strength To help along each other.

If any watchful thoughts of ours, Can make some work the stronger, If any cheery smile of ours, Can make its brightness longer, Then let us speak that thought today, With tender eyes a-glowing, So God may grant some weary one Shall reap from our glad sowing.

Your Birthday

NOVEMBER 11.—You have a keen brain, and are not easily deceived. You always stand up for what you consider your rights, and will never be put upon. You do not like to be driven, but for love you will do much.

To keep clothes a good color when washing, a tablespoonful of turpentine can be put in the copper when it is filled, or a little blue water hole, if preferred, a small handful of powdered borax or a tablespoonful of ammonia may be added to the first rinsing water.

La Raison D'Etre

By H. K. S. Hemming.

Is it not strange that the English press of Canada should have treated so seriously the reasons given by Mr. King for retaining office pending a session of Parliament?

Although far from being a statesman, one must at least give Mr. King credit for being above all things a politician, which being the case, with ought to look forward to but a defeat in parliament and a crushing political defeat in the next election, he could hardly be expected knowingly to sacrifice his reputation in history as they now picture him as doing.

It is not more reasonable to suppose that, repudiated by the English press of Canada, Mr. King has placed himself unconditionally in the hands of his fellow supporters, through French Liberals of Quebec, and that their leaders have asked him to mark time while they try to evolve some plan whereby Canada, and particularly this Province, can be saved from the more than serious troubles that loom so ominously on the horizon?

Fortunately for the Dominion there are many French Canadians, men who until recently have been proud to call themselves Liberals, who refused to take part in the recent campaign. They know that only harm, most difficult if not impossible to undo even in a lifetime, could come from a policy of harking eight years back to a cry of war conscription, while their higher instincts forbade their countenancing such absurd and discreditable tactics as inventing a war "next week" between Canada and Turkey in which French lads were to be placed in the forefront of the battle in the event of Mr. Estey and Mr. Meighen being elected.

By all means there is a family cat, and a family dog. The dog bears the name of Carbon on account of his master's interest in chemistry at the time of his advent. Poor Carbon is but the mere remnant, the sole surviving member of a once large and lustrous family group.

U. S. Gov't Wins Awards In Case Against Britain

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Awards in favor of the United States government in three actions instituted against Great Britain for alleged unwarranted interference with fishing in Newfoundland waters have been returned by the British United States arbitration tribunal which has been sitting here since October 26.

The tribunal still has many matters to consider including claims of British citizens against United States arising in Hawaii and Philippine Islands. In the latter cases, return is sought from United States government for damages said to have been done to property at time of insurrection 25 years ago.

MRS. MEIGHEN AT HOME

(By C. R. A.) (Copyright 1925.)

No, Mrs. Meighen has not bobbed her hair.

So take heart all ye mothers in Israel who stand shivering and hesitating on the brink of indecision. Hold fast to your floating glory for there yet remain a sprinkling of the great and good at the root of whose flowing locks no destructive shears have been laid.

Isabel Meighen, wife of the Rt. Hon. Sir Arthur Meighen, is fitted to adorn any sphere, social, domestic and as later developments prove political.

Regarding her public utterances she is modest to a degree. "Well you see they say I chug chug along like a little old Ford until I get started, then I run quite smoothly for a time—a very limited time however."

She is bright, vivacious and the dark blue eyes, black hair, quick understanding and ready sympathy bespeak Celtic origin—four Irish grandparents—a proud racial ancestry. Born in Quebec, educated in Manitoba, domiciled in Old Ontario, she is three-fold Canadian and holds the east and the west in her understanding grip.

Crocheting, oh yes, now wouldn't you like to make an Afghan after the style of the one Mrs. Meighen made? Well, crocheting little centres of bright odds and ends of wool, full of grace and possibly a fur coat.

Says Six Men And One Woman Were Drowned

(Canadian Press) SAULT STE. MARIE, Nov. 10.—According to Capt. Hansen of the steamer Settler, who lost his tow, the Crane, six men and a woman were lost when the barge Crane foundered in Lake Superior Thursday night, but aside from the captain, Richard Griggs, he has no names. The Crane belongs to the O. W. Bloodgett fleet.

Italian Steamer In Distress

(Canadian Press) LONDON, Nov. 10.—A Lloyds dispatch from Oporto Portugal says the Italian steamer Carmel Opoliz is sending out constant S.O.S. messages calling for immediate assistance as she is in danger of sinking.

After using an egg whisk, wash it thoroughly in cold water and then put it in the oven for a short time in order that all moisture is dried up. This will prevent it from rusting.

Commendation of Merit

Historical

It too often happens that owing to innate modesty on the part of some public men, they do not receive that measure of commendation which they merit for their services. Nor is the value of their example always appreciated as a pattern for the youth of the Province to follow.

In the few remarks which follow under the above heading our aim will be to pen a few words of praise to a young man known to nearly all Islanders who has successfully climbed the ladder in business and public affairs. We refer to Hon. John A. MacDonald, member-elect for King's County. In business Mr. MacDonald has won an honorable position and set a worthy example for enterprise and success; and as a public man made an enviable record for honesty and ability in administering the chief spending department of the Provincial Government. Now that he has been justly raised up higher it can be said that he discharged his duty so successfully in the Provincial arena that his friends—and they are legion—can rely upon his faithful discharge of the duties pertaining to the federal sphere of usefulness. During the time he has been at the head of the Public Works here there has been little or no complaint of his conduct and not even a hint of anything improper having been done in his department. This is a proud boast to make, and as Mr. MacDonald is yet a young man we look forward to great achievements yet to be recorded of his public and private career. He is possessed of excellent ability as a debater and can be relied on to make his mark in the discussions of the House of Commons. He, moreover, goes to Ottawa with ripe experience as the head of an important local department. That the remainder of his career may be crowned with honors and rewards will be the sincere wish of all who appreciate talent, industry and trustworthiness.

In this connection it is pleasing to pay a deserved compliment to Premier Stewart who holds Mr. MacDonald in the highest esteem. The Premier has shown excellent judgment in the selection of his officers and deserves to be rewarded for his choice of departmental heads. Indeed he has already been receiving good results which augurs well for the future. It is many years since a local Premier has guided our local ship of state with such harmony and all-round satisfaction. The absence of rumors of discord among his colleagues and so few, if any criticisms, show that there is a steady hand at the helm.

The absence of criticism, as all will admit, spells contentment among the people. It also indicates keen attention to the affairs of the Province and no neglect or misdeemeanors. There is evidence, too, of the alertness of the Stewart Government in their efforts to save the province from bearing any burdens that should be placed where they belong. This was the policy promulgated during the recent election campaign by the Premier also by Hon. Dr. McMillan and other members of the Government, and which may be safely left to be solved by them.

In addition to the remarks made above we may mention the fact that there is a very broad smile beaming all over the Department of Agriculture at the work being carried on there and the high tide of prosperity now swelling the people's purses. Hon. Mr. Myers, the general Minister of Agriculture invariably wears a happy smile, but this season's beats all its predecessors. There is not a farmer or farmer's wife in the land that will not hope that his smile will return with all its present radiance for cycles to come.
