MOUNT STEWART And Vicinity

Large amounts of potatoes are still being shipped from this vicinity. One farmer, and doubtless there are others, having shipped one thousand bushels to date and has not finished.

Miss Elizabeth Clark, teacher at Mount Vernon, spent Thanksgiving at her home here.

Miss Alice Jardine who has been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jardine, Hd. of Hillsboro returned to the U. S. on Wednesday the 10th inst.

On the evening of Tuesday the ninth inst., the Hd. of Hillsboro school-house was the scene of a well fought battle when the opposing forces met to debate the subject chosen previously, viz. Resolved that "The Girl of 1926 is not the Equal of the Girl of our Grand-mother's Day." Some young gentlemen present were moved to act as chairmen, but thought they were incapable, so Miss Mabel Jardine and Miss Hilda Douglas were then appointed to the position which they very capably filled.

The opening speaker, Mr. Geddie Douglas, spoke very convincingly of the Girl of 26's many superiorities but his arguments were refuted by Mr. Kimble G. Douglas, who very ably responded. Many able and interesting points both pro and con, were brought to bear by the speakers who followed, which kept the audience in a high state of enthusiasm from start to finish, and after due consideration of both sides the decision was given in favor of "The Girl of 26." The singing of the National Anthem, brought a very interesting evening to a close.

R. C. Clark, Gen. Merchant here, has purchased a new Ford Sedan. Through the owner of two high-class cars, he evidently knows what is what for the fall roads.

Mr. Mont McKay returned last week from a short visit to Monticton, N. B.

Extra freight trains ran Sunday last on the Georgetown branch as well as the Ch'town to Souris main line.

Miss Irene Douglas, Hd. of Hillsboro is spending some time with her aunt in Rosemeath.

A splendid meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. was held Sunday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Douglas, Hd. of Hillsboro. The meeting was led by Miss Mabel Jardine, and although it was the first meeting this young lady has been called upon to lead, it was led in a manner worthy of a person of greater experience.

Gas In The Stomach Is Dangerous

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called acid indigestion.

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of follies to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals, but with no more fear of indigestion.

To Assist By Theatrical Diplomacy

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 16.—"The hands across the sea" movement has taken on new life in the theatres this season.

Leaders in the movement believe that Theatrians behind the footlights can be used as successful ambassadors toward bringing about a feeling of brotherhood among the nations. Plays truthfully depicting the characteristics of Americans, for instance, would be presented in London by American actors, while English actors would similarly interpret British life through plays presented in New York. There would be none of the stage caricatures that feature the music halls of London and Paris, wherein foreigners are shown in an unfavorable light.

Basil Dean, London producer, is undertaking to link New York and London through "theatrical diplomacy." Means for carrying out the project already have been assured, don Choney, of the Independent Theatres Clearing House, is in Europe to arrange for the cooperation of those countries with the United States in this organization's work in behalf of the little theatres, community, and "art" theatres.

Broadway producers also are doing their share this season to present across the footlights, pictures of European life. Scarcely a ship arrives but brings either a foreign group of actors or a play by some European.

GIRLISH LOVE FOR MAN SHE RENOUNCED TO WED DUKE GIVEN AS REASON FOR ANNULMENT

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Daily Mail in its account of the Marlborough marriage annulment says it was stated before the divorce court of Southwark that when Consuelo Vanderbilt married the Duke of Marlborough she was in love with an American. The mother opposed their match and wished the daughter to contract a brilliant marriage. Part of the evidence submitted to the court, says the Mail, consisted of letters to Consuelo from her lover, whom, but for her mother's orders and other pressure, she would have married.

The Daily Mail goes on to say that the other, Mrs. O. P. Belmont, and other witnesses, corroborated this.

It is the understanding of the Mail that Consuelo wishes to marry Colonel Balsan in accordance with the rites of the Roman Catholic church, an annulment of her Marlborough marriage does not automatically sanction the existing Balsan marriage which was performed in a registrar's office and in an English church. It is therefore not valid from a Roman Catholic point of view inasmuch as the marriage of a Catholic and Protestant can be contracted only after a special dispensation by Rome.

The Catholic bishop of Southwark in a statement printed by the Evening Standard explained that Miss Vanderbilt never gave her free consent to marriage with the Duke of Marlborough, "being forced to it by commands, threats and importunities of her mother, under whose sole authority she was at the time of the marriage."

FAREWELL GATHERING

A very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. F. MacLeod, Valleyfield, when neighbours and friends gathered to bid farewell to Miss Hattie Campbell, who is leaving shortly for Boston.

Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, after which a bountiful repast of refreshments and delicious luncheon was provided and served by the ladies. Mr. Ben Weatherous was then appointed chairman and called upon Mr. Alex. MacLeod who read an address, while Miss Ruth Campbell presented her with a beautiful club-bag.

The evening was brought to a close at a late hour by singing: "Should old acquaintance be forgot." The following was the address:— Miss Hattie Campbell, Montague.

Dear Hattie: The occasion of this assembling of your friends though somewhat solemn, is not one for vain regrets or useless lamentations; rather it is with a spirit of joy and hope that we come to bid you good-bye, for a short time, although we know it is only a step of preparation for a longer journey, yet we cannot permit this opportunity to pass without expressing in some way our appreciation of your good friendship amongst us.

Your striking personality, and your unique qualifications to combine with people has made you popular with all.

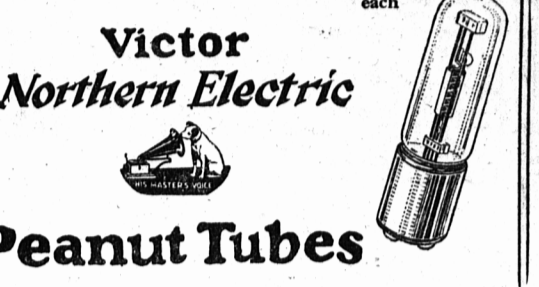

Words fail me to express how you will be missed at our social gatherings where you were always the life of the party. You will be missed no less in the home, but what is one's loss is another's gain.

In closing we want you to realize the esteem in which you are held, and as a slight token of unbounded friendship we ask you to accept this gift; and we hope that you may have many happy years among family and friends of this community.

Portrait Done By Wilson's First Wife

DALTON, Ga., Nov. 16.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, first wife of the war president, is the painter of a life-sized crayon portrait of the Rev. A. W. Gaston, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here from 1858 to 1890, which hangs in the ladies' parlors of the church.

The work, done in 1897 by Ellen Louise Axsen, who later was to become the first lady of the land, was presented the same year to Reverend Gaston, an intimate friend of her father, then pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Rome, Ga.

Only recently was it found among the late Dr. Gaston's effects, to become one of the church's most treasured possessions. The portrait is signed simply "E. L. Axsen."

As a girl, the late Mrs. Wilson had considerable artistic talent and is known to have done many canvases.

Lumbermen Now On Anticostic Island

(Canadian Press) QUEBEC, Nov. 16.—Anticostic Island, which was sold without reservation last summer by Senator Gaston Menier to important Pulp and Paper interests, for $6,000,000, will have its customary quiet broken this winter by the operations of two thousand lumbermen who are expected to cut 350,000 cords of pulpwood on the island between now and next spring.
