NORAH WATSON
86 Drayton Ave., Toronto,
Nov. 10th, 1915.

A beautiful complexion is a handsome woman's chief glory and the envy of her less fortunate rivals. Yet a soft, clear skin—glowing with health—is only the natural result of pure blood.

"I was troubled for a considerable time with a very unpleasant, disfiguring rash, which covered my face and for which I used applications and remedies without relief. After using 'Fruit-a-tives' for one week, the rash is completely gone. I am deeply thankful for the relief and in the future, I will not be without 'Fruit-a-tives'."

MONDAY

CONGRATULATIONS are offered to Mr. Pate, the much thought of butcher of O'Leary, on the arrival of a son at his home.—W.

NEW PASTOR ARRIVES.—The Baptist Church, at Knutsford, etc. has secured a pastor named the Rev. Mr. Mellick. The Rev. gentleman led a service at Springfield on Sunday evening.—W.

TO REMAIN.—Rev. Hammond Johnson formerly stationed in Summerside has accepted an unanimous invitation of the congregation of Queen Square Methodist church, St. John, N. B., to remain pastor for another year.

STANLEY MAY GO.—It is probable, says the Pictou Advocate, that the services of the government steamer Stanley, will be required to take provisions to the Magdalen Islands, as the S. S. Amelia cannot handle all the cargo now offering.

FINISHED SEASON'S WORK.—The Roger Miller Co. finished their work for the season on Saturday at Borden Point. Superintendent Grady proceeds there today. Although the work has not yet been completed it is expected that an effort will be made to have the ferry take up the service there this winter.

BAPTIST SERVICE.—In the Charlottetown Baptist Church last night twenty-five persons received the right hand of fellowship as members of the congregation. Twenty-two of these were by baptism, having been baptized during the past couple of Sundays, one was by letter and two by experience. There was a large congregation at last evening's service, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Freeman, preaching an able sermon.

SUSTAINED LOSS.—Division No. 5 A. O. H. of Summerside was one of those who suffered loss by the recent fire in that town, having lost all their Hall Furniture, Regalia, Badges, Charter, valuable pictures, books, papers, and a lot of their Dramatic Club goods, which they had stored in the upper story of the Gourlies Ltd., building on Water St., and valued at $200.00, with no insurance. The L. A. A. O. H. who occupied the same Hall lost all their furnishings also. An estimate of their loss has not been ascertained.

At a meeting of the Government last week letters patent were granted to "The Wellington Milling Company, Limited," capital stock $10,000, head office Wellington; and to the "Canadian Fur Company, Limited," capital stock $36,000, head office Summerside. The latter was granted subject to change of name, as there are several companies with names very similar. Major Waldron B. Prowse, was appointed a commissioner for the taking of oaths and affidavits in England or France, in reference to this province. Messrs John Jackson and Douglas Aitken, both of Fortune Bridge, were appointed additional members of the Souris Board of Health.

In connection with the maintenance and care of insane soldiers and sailors returned from the war the Board of Pension Commissioners, Ottawa, have asked the Government if they would undertake to provide for the care and maintenance of a number at $250 per annum each. The Government decided that they would be willing to take over twenty-five, and that they should be placed in Falconwood Hospital.

POWERFUL SERMON IN ST. JAMES'.—In St. James Church last evening the pastor, Rev. Dr. T. F. Fullerton, delivered the fourth of his series of "War Time" sermons to a very large congregation—the largest attendance in the series—his subject being, "What Does the Soldier Meet on the Other Side of Death?" The sermon was a masterpiece. Powerful in delivery, brilliant in diction, and deep in thought, it compelled the closest attention of the audience throughout. The preacher, dealing with some of the many noble examples of self-sacrificing devotion which the present war has brought out, stated that the willingness of men to give up their possessions and even their lives today was an indication that the true spirit of Christ still inspired mankind as it did when men were prepared to die for their faith, and in a magnificent peroration emphasized the great truth that only he who would lose his life shall find it. The whole service was impressive, the organist, Mr. F. T. Watkins, at the close playing the Dead March in Saul in his masterly style.

NEW AUTO.—There arrived by the Car ferry last week a new automobile for Mr. R. H. Sterns, proprietor of the Victoria Hotel, a Grey Dord, to replace the one which he lost by fire in the autumn. A new body for one of the damaged ones also arrived last week.

PRESENTATION.—The members of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church, Summerside met on Monday evening last at the home of the President Mrs. (Dr.) Alex. MacNeill and presented her with a silver salver as a small token of their esteem and appreciation of her untiring efforts in making the Aid a success.

CHURCH PARADE.—The members of the drafts for the 10th Battalion and artillery units for overseas service paraded to Gace Church Sunday morning headed by the Fourth Regiment Band. They presented a fine appearance. An excellent sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Littlejohns, whose subject was "The Death of Militarism."

A HEAVY LOSS.—Mr. George H. Reddin, of this City, met with a heavy loss on Saturday when the mare Karsarvna, purchased by him for $500 at the Old Glory sale in New York gave birth prematurely to a foal sired by Guy Axworthy, sire of the famous Lee Axworthy with a mark of 1.58. Had the foal lived it would undoubtedly have proved a wonderful performer on the track.

FORTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY.—Last week Mr. George E. Hughes, M. L. A., celebrated forty-second anniversary of his occupancy of the well known "Apothecaries' Hall," corner of Sunnyside and Queen St. Forty-two years of successful business is a record of which Mr. Hughes may well feel proud and the Guardian joins with his many friends in congratulations on his record and good wishes for the future. Continuous success for forty-two years in any business is the strongest testimony of efficiency and competence and Mr. Hughes has his credentials in one of the best drugstores in the Maritime Provinces.

WITH THE FLYING CORPS.—The Moncton Transcript announces that N. R. ("Rollie") Norman who signed on with Captain Lord Inness Kerr at Toronto, for service with the British Royal Flying Corps, had landed safely in England. He was a passenger on the S. S. Corsican with Mrs. Captain Crichton and other Moncton people, who were going across to spend Christmas in the old land. "Rollie" was always a hot sport and many sporting men in the Maritime Provinces and elsewhere will be interested to learn that he has been accepted for the flying corps. The Royal Flying Corps, it might be remarked, is the military branch of the aviation service. The Royal Naval Air Service is a distinct division and is affiliated with the Royal Navy. Mr. Norman is well known in Charlottetown and throughout P. E. Island.

A meeting of the committee appointed by the directors of the Central Farmers Institute was held in this city on Friday afternoon, the 15th inst.

Rev. Dr. Gauthier, chairman of the committee presided and explained the object of the meeting. He emphasized the necessity of making co-operation more effective and suggested that the Central Farmers Institute might do more in this regard than they had been doing in the past. Perhaps the best co-operative organization on the Island said Dr. Gauthier, is represented by the Egg Circle. There is apparently no band of union existing among the several institutes, said he.

Discussion among the members of the committee followed and it was pointed out that the Central Institute had done many things for which they should receive credit. It must not be understood or supposed that the Institutes activities consist in boosting prices at the expenses of the consumers. The objection is the lack of understanding between the consumer and the producer which acts detrimentally to the latter; such a condition is engendered by the margin between prices received by the former and those paid by the consumer.

The work accomplished by the Institutes is a foundation upon which future operations could rest. Education and the activities of the younger were the two features pointing to future success.

It was agreed that loyalty to the principles advocated on the part of all members was absolutely necessary. On motion it was decided to hold the annual meeting on the 18th and 19th of January, 1917. It was suggested that Principal Cummings be invited to attend. Rev. Dr. Gauthier agreed to open a general discussion on marketing problems at this meeting.

TUESDAY

SUITABLY REMEMBERED.—Previous to the departure of Mr. Earl Bryenton for overseas last Saturday, his fellow employees on the Guardian staff presented him with a silver mounted safety razor, suitably engraved, a steel mirror, and a number of individual gifts. Earl was a general favorite, not only with the staff, but with the patrons with whom his duties brought him in contact and he leaves for the higher duties overseas with the best wishes of all.

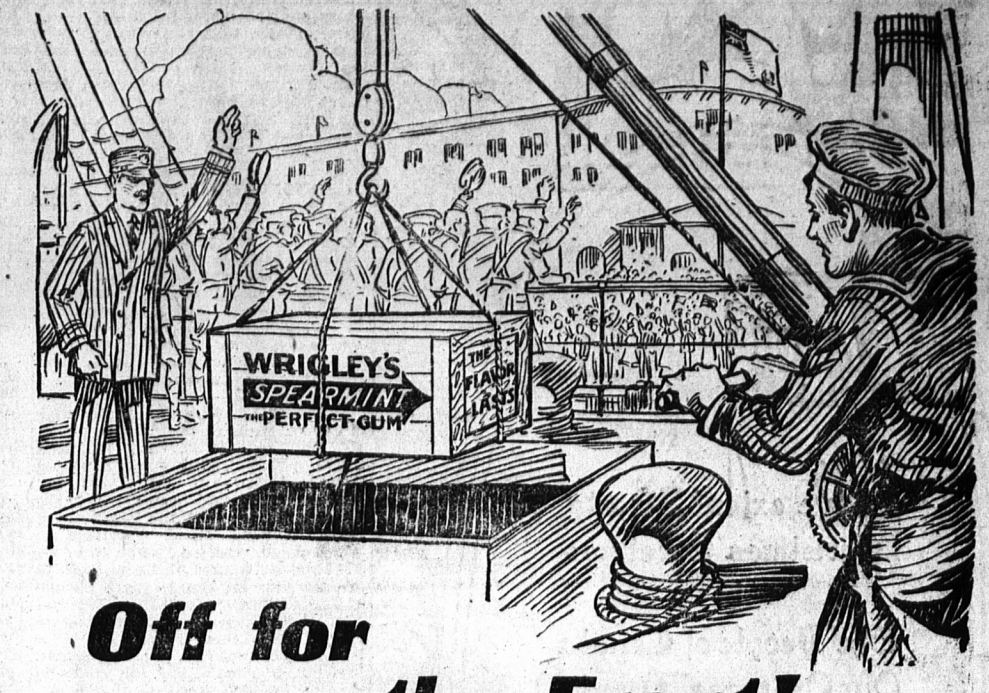

A WOMAN PATROL.—At a meeting of the ladies of a number of the different societies of this city, called by His Worship Mayor Brown, the matter of young children running about the town late at night was fully discussed. It was decided that the Societies represented call a meeting of each and recommend a lady who would be willing to act as a patrol and report back to the Stipendiary Magistrate or the Mayor, who would then consider the appointing of such a patrol.

AN ISLAND LADY.—Mr. John McQuillan received a telegram from Cambridge, Mass., Sunday announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Livingston. She leaves to mourn a loving husband, two brothers and two sisters. John McQuillan, merchant of this city; James McQuillan, Cambridge, Mass.; Philip Coyle and Mrs. Michael Carragher of this city. The deceased who was fifty-six years of age, left Charlottetown thirty-five years ago. She had hosts of friends in the city who will mourn the loss of a kind and good neighbor. To her immediate relatives and friends is extended sincere sympathy.

The funeral service of Mrs. (Capt.) C. B. Merriam, whose death occurred in Boston, Mass. on Monday, Dec. 11th, took place at St. Bernard's Church, Moncton, at nine o'clock Saturday morning. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Savage. Mrs. Merriam was formerly a member of St. Bernard's Choir, and an honored member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H. The pallbearers were: Messrs E. D. Gillispie, Harry O'Neill, (Dr.) L. S. Doyle, J. T. Glynn, Charles McDonald and H. P. Brewster. Interment took place in the Catholic Cemetery on the Shediac road. Mrs. (Capt.) Wiley Smith of Parraboro, N. S., sister-in-law of the deceased, and Mr. Erle Henry, of the Staff of the Royal Bank, Charlottetown, P. E. I., came to Moncton and attended the funeral. The floral tributes were many and beautiful among which were the following:—Pillow—Husband, Broken Circle—Family, Pillow—Mr. C. D. Dennis, Amherst N. S. Wreath—A. R. Murray, Amherst, N. S. Wreath—Fred Carroll, Jr. Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Brewster. Cross—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Shaw, Boston, Mass. Wreath—N. J. Telephone operators. Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Peter McKinnon. Spray—Miss Freda LeBlanc. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roy. Wreath—Miss Helen O'Neill, Boston, Mass. Wreath—Miss Ethel Roberts, Amherst, N. S. Cross—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamb, Boston, Mass. Spiritual Bonquets—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allister, Mrs. Bell, Miss A. Foran, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Leo Thibodeau, Mrs. J. M. Brown, Miss W. Collins, Amherst, N. S., and Miss Kathleen Brown.

On Dec. 11th, after a lingering illness of about a year, they passed quietly away to her Maker the spirit of Mrs. John R. Larkin. Few residents of the western part of the Island were more widely known or esteemed than this good Christian woman and though she had survived the allotted span of the psalmist many who knew her well found it hard to believe that she was no more. They realize that her departure would leave a great void in the field of her sterling usefulness. Mrs. Larkin possessed the qualities of the genuine Christian woman, strong in Faith, buoyant in hope, and bountiful in holy charity. In her illness full of resignation, in her passing fully reconciled to God's will, she gave token how God comforts His faithful servants in the end and how peacefully his servants can depart. During her whole life she had been a very active woman, full of energy and business. What she undertook was filled with ever cheerful and youthful enthusiasm and burdens that worry human lives rarely rested heavily or deeply on her; she had ever the kind greeting and the glad hand for those who approached her, and the many little winning qualities that gold cannot buy or affection assume were her natural endowments. The beautiful things of the world were not lost on her; she saw reflected in them the beauty of the Infinite Artist; she loved the flowers, the woods and the sparkling country streams—things that seem to appreciate and repay if inanimate things can the affection that they claim. Mrs. Merriam, formerly Jennie McAllister was a niece of Mrs. Leslie Henry, City. She has many warm friends in Charlottetown who will sincerely mourn her sad death. With the passing away of Mrs. Samuel Morrison of this city, one is again reminded that here we have no continuing city but we seek one to come. Death under all circumstances is sad but particularly so when it removes from a home the beloved wife and mother. Mrs. Morrison suffered intensely for seven months on the early morning of December 5, 1916 God saw fit to take her for His own. Deceased was a woman of excellent character, respected by all who knew her. The funeral services which were held the following day were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Fullerton and were very largely attended. The pallbearers were Messrs. P. L. Smallwood, William MacKay, John Dalziel, John McAleer, Percy Down and Robert Dalziel.

Besides her husband there are left to mourn three children of tender years: Edith, Daniel and Kathleen to whom the sympathy of all will go forth. I leave the world without a tear. Save for the friends I hold so dear; To heal their sorrows, Lord, descend.
