YESTERDAY forenoon Joseph Conway, for drunkenness, was fined $2 or 10 days. The 1st Marshall, charged with vagrancy, was released to appear when required.

IN the appearance of the C. P. Flockton Comedy and Vaudeville Co at Georgetown on Thursday night it was found impossible to get the bigraph to work satisfactorily. The difficulty however has been remedied and everything will work smoothly for Monday night's performance in Charlottetown.

GENTLE WARNING.—On Kensington streets for many Sunday evenings the scenes were simply disgraceful. Well-known parties make a practice of racing on bicycles and in carriages, even during the hours of sacred services. The lives and limbs of law-abiding citizens are often endangered, and unless such conduct is stopped drastic measures may be resorted to.

THE Natural History and Antiquarian Society will go to Rocky Point by the 9.30 boat next Saturday. "Ringwood" will first visit; where Hon. F. de C. Brecken will give an address upon Col. Cumberland, Major Holland and their times. Next the old fort will be visited. Here Mr. Newson will point out the sites of the old historic buildings and Prof. Cayen will deliver a short address upon the French occupation. Lastly the party will proceed to Holland Cove, where the remainder of the day will be spent in field work, study and recreation. Particulars may be learned from the secretary to whom application must be made before Friday at 1 o'clock.

A SHORT time ago the ladies of the W. C. T. U. of this City held an informal meeting in their rooms Grafton Street for the purpose of organizing an institution similar to the Harbor Light, which was, as many people are aware, conducted successfully for some time in Charlottetown. On Monday evening next the adjourned meeting will take place for the purpose of making further arrangements and the making 'comfort bags' to be distributed among the sailors who visit our port. Many of our readers are acquainted with the workings of the deep sea mission on the Labrador coast and its helpful nature to the sailor. The 'comfort bag' is made of a strong material and placed in each bag are many articles for personal use, sewing material etc., and a New Testament, containing a Christian letter from the donor, and her address. The idea is to supply some things necessary to the sailor's comfort and use, and by this kind act win his gratitude and induce him to lead a moral and Christian life.

McMillan and wife, Mrs. N. and Miss R. Eubury, Arthur McDougall, M. J. McPherson, Norman Brown, Lawrence Murphy, Professor J. J. Hogan, Mary McKinnon, Miss Florence McDonald.

THE general passenger timetable of the Prince Edward Island Railway was issued yesterday afternoon. The folder is superior to any issued by the Island Railroad. Besides giving the railway arrangements it contains a schedule of steamship connections, ferries, stage connections, map of P. E. Island, list of hotels and rates charged, cuts of S. S. Northumberland, a farm scene of P. E. I.; scene on North Shore; Queen Square, Dalvey, Tracadie Beach, P. E. I. and other useful information to the tourist.

THE magnificent organization known as the C. P. Flockton Comedy and Vaudeville Co. make their appearance at the Opera House next week for four nights. The company includes the best talent that has visited our city for a long time, and will compare in strength with any that has ever appeared in the Charlottetown Opera House. Taken as a whole the company occupies a higher place than any other Comedy Company which has ever visited our City. Mr. Flockton deserves the hearty support of the theatre-going community and the performance will be one with the best efforts of the metropolitan stage. Mr. Flockton is well known to many of our citizens as a resident of Abel's Cape, Bay Fortune P. E. I. during the Summer months.

OBITUARY.—On the 12th of June, 1899, Jeannie Court, (adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Court), passed peacefully from earth, we believe to the better land. In Dec. 1898, the deceased was united in marriage with Mr. Peter Brodie, of Stanhope. After the marriage they went to Stanhope to live, where Mrs. Brodie successfully secured the affection of a large circle of friends. After remaining about one year at Stanhope, they returned to Black River to the former home of Mrs. Peter Brodie, where they remained until the time of her death. Mrs. Brodie, by her sweet disposition and uniform kindness won an unusually large number of friends, as was evidenced by the very large number of people who attended the funeral. By actual count there were 175 carriages in attendance. The services at the home and the grave were conducted by Rev. R. Opie, assisted by the Rev. I. Layton. (Patriot please copy.)

This semi-annual examination of the Long River school took place on the 20th inst, when quite a large number of parents and visitors were present. The pupils were examined in all their branches, and found well up in them. Sometime previous to the examination, a prize was offered by the teacher to the boy or girl who would make the most general progress in writing through the number five copy. The prize was competed for by seventeen, but however at the time of examination only twelve had completed them. And upon close examination it was found that Miss Jennie Fitzsimmons had made the most general progress, and was therefore awarded the prize. Rev. A. D. Sterling was present and took an active part in the examination. At the close, after expressing his appreciation as to the high standing of the school, he gave a very interesting and instructive address to the pupils; speaking of the importance of regularity etc. and on many other lines which they will find of great importance to them, during their scholastic terms. Addresses were also given by a number of the visitors present, all speaking in high terms of the excellent examination, progress made, and the untiring efforts made by their efficient teacher, Mr. William Green, to advance the pupils thoroughly and rapidly, and who has gained thereby a reputation which he well deserved. The distribution of candy and singing of the "National Anthem" brought the proceedings for the day to a close.

A Lady is Judged

By the task displayed in the choice of a perfume as much as in her choice of dress. If a loud, offensive, cheap odor is used. You at once put the person down as possessing the same characteristics. While if a choice French odor such as Vera Violette, Cedrela, Giroflee, Royal Heliotrope, or French Carnation Pink, is used, you at once class the user as a modest lady of the upper class. We sell all the odors mentioned above.
