BEREAVED HOME - Irene Hume, aged 5 years, daughter of James Hume, passed away on Tuesday, August 3rd, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keenan, Wood Islands, P. E. I., after a lingering illness. The funeral services were held on Wednesday, August 4th, at the home of Mrs. Fred Fletcher, St. James' Church, Murray River Baptist Church.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS - Mr. E. L. Hardy, City, received a telegram from Boston Friday, August 5th conveying the sad news of the sudden death of his sister, Mrs. Lorne Stewart. She leaves to mourn her husband and two sons, Stanley aged sixteen, and Ralph nine years. Also an aged mother, one sister, Mrs. G. Crockett, and two brothers, S. L. and H. L. Hardy of this city.

WEDDING BELLS - The marriage was solemnized in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Wednesday morning at half past five, Rev. Monsignor McDonald officiating, of Florence King of Georgetown, to Cornelius Gaudet of this city. The bride wore a blue tulle and veil and was attended by her sister, Miss Ada King, while Mr. Ernest McParlane supported the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple left by the Borden train for a trip through the Maritime Provinces.

A NEW RESIDENT - Mr. John J. Loft has arrived in this city from Coventry, England, and it is pleasant to learn it is his intention to remain here. Mr. Loft is a former naval man having served with distinction in the late war and was in the famous Jutland engagement. He is the proud possessor of three decorations. Mr. Loft is the last of the family to take up their residence in Canada and he is the type of young man who will make friends and a success of any work he undertakes.

RETURNED FROM ROME - Rev. Gavan P. Monaghan, Ph. D., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Monaghan, Weymouth Street, has returned from Rome, where he spent the past two years taking a special course of study, and where he received his degree of Doctor of Philosophy with honors. He will be attached to the Faculty of St. Dunstan's University as Professor of Philosophy. Father Monaghan is being warmly welcomed home and heartily congratulated on his success in the Eternal City.

NEW PASTOR COMING - Mr. Murdoch Ross, representative Elder of Zion Presbyterian Session has received a communication from the Rev. Scott Fulton dated the 4th inst., stating that he does not intend taking honors. He is returning to the Old Country in the near future, his intention to start for Montreal from Toronto in about three weeks, so that he will be able to reach Charlottetown in September, therefore it is likely that Mr. Fulton will enter upon his duties at Zion Church as first announced in the month of September.

ENJOYING EUROPEAN VISIT - Letters from Mr. James Paton and Mr. E. R. Brown indicate they are having a delightful time in their respective visits to Europe. When writing Mr. Paton was in the Lake district of England with headquarters at Keswick. While Mr. Brown was "doing" Switzerland, with headquarters at Montreux. Mr. Paton writes: "We are delighted with the place and its surroundings. Wordsworth's Dove cottage; there are a great many beautiful drives, the mountains and lakes are magnificent, although not quite so grand as the lakes and mountains and heather hills of Scotland." Mr. Brown writes: "This is an ideal spot for jagged nerves; cool and quiet with beautiful scenery, right on the edge of Lake Geneva."

Mr. Ching at the age of seventy-two years. His wife and three daughters mourn the loss of a husband and a father who was all that a family could desire. One daughter, Miss Pearl, of the nursing staff of Prince Edward Island hospital predeceased him.

AWARDED PRIZE - Mr. Geo. Mackenzie a pupil of West Kent School has been awarded the sum of $10.00 as a prize for having led all pupils from the city in the recent examinations at Prince of Wales College. This prize is awarded annually by the Board of School Trustees, who also award a prize of $25.00 should a pupil lead the pupils from the whole island in the entrance examination. These prizes should be sought after by our city boys and girls. We congratulate Mr. Mackenzie on his good work.

GOOD ROADS - Contractor Nell P. Nicholson has completed his part of the work on the road project through New Perth and Summerside. Mr. Nicholson who has worked on most of the improved roads of the Province, needless to say, knows how to make a good road. He has with him on this project a Road Machine operator, Mr. John Thomas Power of Summerside who is considered by all parties to be one of the best operators of the road machine in the island and this road will be a lasting proof of the efficiency of both those men. The grades and fills are believed to be completed by road master Mr. Wm. Minchin who has a staff of good workmen employed.

ISLAND LADY DEAD - Mr. James Bryenton, City, received a telegram yesterday, Aug. 9th, conveying the sad news of the death of his sister, Commandant Lillie Bryenton of the Salvation Army, in Calgary, she leaves to mourn two sons and three daughters all residing in or near Framingham, Mass., viz: George and Brent, Mrs. Ralph Carter and another married daughter, and Miss Amy, who during her illness attended her mother.

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT - The death occurred at St. Peter's Bay Monday night after a prolonged illness, of Mrs. Hyndman, widow of Albert Hyndman, who died two years ago. She leaves to mourn two sons and three daughters all residing in or near Framingham, Mass., viz: George and Brent, Mrs. Ralph Carter and another married daughter, and Miss Amy, who during her illness attended her mother.

Funeral of the late Frederick Groom took place on Saturday and was largely attended. Rev. W. M. Ryan officiated. The remains were laid to rest in the Peoples Cemetery.

TO WORK AT HARVEST - Over five hundred men left this Province yesterday to work at the harvest in Western Canada. A large number from all parts of the island left in the morning to join the C. P. R. excursion train at St. John, and last evening two trains, consisting of seven and five cars respectively, left Summerside and Charlottetown on the C. N. R. excursor. The city yesterday was filled with young men preparing for the trip, and last evening, just before the train left at nine o'clock the station was the crowded scene of bustling activity.

VISITING PASTOR TO FAREWELL - Reverend Doctor Moore, who has been supplying in Zion Presbyterian pulpit for the past two months, will preach his farewell sermon in that church next Sabbath morning and evening. Doctor Moore is a native of Cambridge, Ohio, and has been in the ministry for the past thirty years. Naturally such a long and strenuous service at last necessitated a change for the province, it was to some extent at least, seeking to restore his usual health and vigor. Although he entered upon a task which under the circumstances strenuous work, just as strenuous as had been accustomed to, all will be glad to learn that the change has proved quite beneficial. Although not a Canadian but one of our American cousins, Doctor Moore has greatly enjoyed his visit to this beautiful island, and has fully appreciated the cordiality and hospitality extended to him.

WELCOME VISITORS - Mr. Alan S. Morrison, of the Dominion Express Co., Winnipeg, accompanied by his wife and two children, George and Catherine, and will remain until September 1st. Rev. Morrison, Bradabane. As it is sixteen years since Mr. Morrison left the island, and this is his first visit, he will see many changes. Mrs. Morrison is greatly impressed with the appearance of the island, and thinks it is away ahead of anything she has seen in the Dominion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Power and Mr. and Mrs. Framer Brynton, motored from their home in Milwaukee, Wis., to this island where they are camping. The young couples with their little families are greatly taken with the island. It is their first visit. They toured the eastern part for three days being accompanied by their friend, Mr. Ernest Sherren of Cape Verde. Now they are enjoying a few days in the west end of the Province. Their friends hope they will come soon again on another visit.

ENJOYED VISIT - Miss Ellen Conroy who for the past two weeks has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Conroy, Tighe, returned to Boston on Saturday where she holds a responsible position with the New England News Co. During Miss Eileen's stay at home her mother delightfully entertained her in honor of her daughter's number of the young people of Tignish and Alberton who pronounced this event up to the standard of other like events so pleasantly and memorably spent at the beautiful Conroy home "The Willows."

WEDDING BELLS - The East Point Baptist Church, Kingsboro, was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday evening, July 21, when Rev. W. R. MacWalker, united in marriage Marjorie Helen, daughter of Mrs. Alice E. Rose, of Lakeville, and Alexander J. Cameron of South Lake. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns and cut flowers by the friends of the bride. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her cousin James Robertson, of Kingsboro, to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from the Lohegrin, played by Miss Florence MacPhee of Pinette, intimate friend of the bride. The bride looked charming in a gown of white georgette with satin trimmings and wore the conventional veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister Miss Alberta who wore shell pink georgette with lace trimmings and picture hat to match. The groom was attended by his brother Stanley Cameron, Messers John and Walter Roberts, cousins of the bride acted as ushers. After the ceremony Rev. MacWalker presented the bride with white bible in token of the pledge her marriage vows in East Point Baptist Church. With the bride party left the church they motored to the home of the bride's mother where a reception was held in honor of the newly wedded couple. Over one hundred guests were assembled to offer congratulations to this very popular young couple. The gifts which included cheques, cut-glass, linen and silver, testified to the popularity of the bride and groom. Buffet luncheon was served to all present. Soon masked serenaders appeared to match to the hilarity of the evening and gave three rousing cheers for Mr. and Mrs. Cameron. As the guests departed they again extended their best wishes for future happiness. Previous to her marriage Mrs. Cameron was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Edmund Baker, Belmont, Mass.
