

Could Not Sleep At Night.

Was All Run Down.

Had No Appetite.

FOOD WOULD NOT DIGEST.

Mrs. L. W. Warner, Riverdale, N.S., is glad there is such a remedy as Burdock Blood Bitters.

IT CURED HER AND WILL CURE YOU.

She says: "I wish to add my testimony to the many others who have spoken so highly as to the unfailing virtue of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was all run down, had no appetite, lost all ambition, could not sleep, much food had terrible headache and indigestion, and my food did not digest properly. I saw Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine, and concluded to give it a trial, thinking if it did me good it could do good for others. After using one bottle I began to feel better, and by the time I had used three bottles I was feeling like a new person. I am so glad there is such a remedy provided for suffering humanity, and cannot praise it enough for I think there is no medicine like it on the market."

LESSON VII, SECOND QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, MAY 17.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xxiv, 10-16, 24-26-Memory Verses, 14-16-Golden Text, Ps. xxiii, 4-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.] 10-12. Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

Five days after Paul had been placed under the care of Felix, the governor at Caesarea, the high priest and the elders and an orator named Tertullus arrived from Jerusalem, and Paul being brought forth, the orator delivered his accusation, and the Jews assented to it. Paul, being permitted to speak for himself, denies their accusations and says that they can prove nothing. It is the common story of things laid to our charge that we know not—the perversity of false witnesses (Ps. xxxv, 11). The Spirit, through Peter, reminds us that it is cause for thanksgiving if for conscience toward God we endure grief suffering wrongfully, that if when we do well and suffer for it we take it patiently God is well pleased and that it is better, if the will of God be so, that we suffer for well doing than for evil-doing (I Pet. ii, 19, 20; iii, 17).

13. But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets. It was his custom to expound and testify the kingdom of God and persuade people concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses and out of the prophets (Acts xxviii, 23). It was the custom of the Lord Jesus to begin at Moses and all the prophets and expound in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself and to assert that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses and in the prophets and in the psalms concerning Him (Luke xxiv, 27, 44). There is no one to follow fully but the Lord Jesus, and there is no better example of one who followed Him fully than the apostle Paul.

14. And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust.

When Paul was rescued from the mob by the chief captain and on the next day brought before the council, part Sadducees and part Pharisees, it was the topic of the resurrection which so stirred them that it seemed as if they would tear Paul in pieces had not the chief captain taken him by force from among them (chapter xxiii, 6, 10). It was the same night, in the castle, that the Lord appeared to him and assured him that as he had testified at Jerusalem so he must testify at Rome (xxiii, 11), thus indorsing his testimony and asking for more of it. All who now believe God believe in the resurrection of the dead, but not all believers accept the plain teaching of I Thess. iv, 16, 17; I Cor. xv, 23, 24; Rev. xx, 5, 6; Luke xv, 14; xx, 36, and other passages concerning the resurrection.

15. And herein do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of offense toward God and toward men.

His aim is plainly stated in such words as these: "According to my earnest expectation and my hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed;" "Not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts;" "Ye are witnesses, and God, also, how holily and justly and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you that believe" (Phil. i, 20; I Thess. ii, 4, 10). The Lord Jesus and His approval were more to Paul than the presence or approval of the greatest of earth's great ones. The result of Paul's speech was that Felix said he would wait until he had heard the chief captain's version of the affair, and he gave him in charge of a centurion, with orders to let him have liberty and also the fellowship and ministry of his acquaintances (verses 22 and 23).

24-26. And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance and judgment to come Felix trembled and answered: Go thy way for this time. When I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

This was in one of his many talks with Felix and on an occasion when his wife, Drusilla, a Jewess, was present also. The words of our Lord Jesus in John xvi, 8, are often confounded with these words concerning Paul, but our Lord in His words does not mention judgment to come. That which Paul set before Felix concerning righteousness may be easily inferred from Rom. iii, 19, 24; x, 1-10; THE III, 5; Phil. iii, 7-9. He would doubtless set forth our sinfulness by nature and practice, our need of righteousness to enable us to appear before God, God's abundant provision for that need in Christ Jesus and His free offer of it to every penitent sinner. That which he taught concerning temperance we may infer from Tit. ii, 12; iii, 8; II Cor. iv, 14, 15; Rom. vi, 11-14. He would show that when we become righteous in Christ by His finished work then we are to renounce self and sin and the world and the wholly unto God, who so freely justifies the penitent sinner; that as disciples of Christ we are to deny self and take up the cross daily and follow Him (Matt. xvi, 24). Concerning judgment to come He would probably speak as he did to the Athenians in Acts xvii, 30, 31. He might dwell upon the mighty words of Eccl. xii, 14, and set forth the matter as in Rom. xiv, 7-12; II Cor. v, 9, 10. He would make it clear, no doubt, that all who will not receive Christ and His righteousness are abiding under the wrath of God and already condemned (John iii, 18, 36), and if they die they can never be redeemed (John viii, 21, 24), but will finally come before the great white throne and be sent into the lake of fire (Rev. xx, 11-15), while if saved in Christ the judgment for sin is past, but there will be a judgment of works and rewards for service at the judgment seat of Christ (John v, 24; Isa. xliii, 25; Rev. xxii, 12).

STRIKE ON NEW YORK SUBWAY.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Pending the arbitration of their grievances most of the 6,000 strikers returned to work on the subway today. Twelve hundred members of one union of the rockmen and excavators refused to return because they would be assessed for the support of other members of the union who are on a strike from various buildings.

Dr. Chase's SYRUP

Of Linseed and Turpentine.

The virtue of this great prescription of Dr. Chase is so well known in Canadian homes that it seems useless to do more than remind you that it has a large sale and is curing more people than ever before.

Mrs. J. W. Lloyd, Albion street, Belleville Ont, writes:—

"In the beginning of last winter I took a very severe cold, accompanied with a bad cough, and was almost laid up for a time. I tried several remedies with in different results. On the advice of a friend I got a bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine and found that it relieved the cough at once. By the time I had taken the one bottle my cough was gone, and I can truly recommend it as a splendid remedy for coughs and colds."

Mrs. A. A. Vanbuskirk, Robinson street, Moncton, N. B. and whose husband is carpenter on the I. C. R. states: "For years I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for my children whenever they take cold. I used it first with one of my children suffering with a severe form of asthma. It seemed as though the least exposure to cold or dampness would bring on an attack of this disease. I began using this medicine and must say that I found it most excellent. We have never tried anything in the way of a cough medicine that worked so satisfactorily. It seemed to go right to the diseased parts and brought speedy relief." Do not be satisfied with imitations or substitutes. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase is on every bottle of the genuine, 25 cents a bottle, family size (three times as much) 60 cents, at all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co. Toronto.
