ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.—The following recently appeared in one of the Brandon papers:—Mrs. J. A. G. Grantham, 215 Princess Ave., East announces the engagement of her daughter Ernie Frances K. to Sherman Lee Mellish, son of the late Mr. John F. Mellish and Mrs. Mellish of Montague, P. E. I., the marriage to take place August 1st.—J.

MUSICAL TREAT.—Aside from the splendid sermon which the Rev. Mr. Brown delivered in the Montague Methodist church on Sunday evening last, the congregation also had the pleasure of listening to a most beautiful rendering by the pastor and his amiable partner, Mrs. Brown. It is a rare thing to find a couple so musically gifted as in this instance and their willingness in giving of their musical abundance is certainly greatly appreciated.—J.

HORSE NOTE.—Nellie D. owned by Mr. Clarence White of Montague captured the 2.30 trot and pace at the race meet held in Georgetown on Saturday last. Mr. White always uses rare skill and judgment in any of his undertakings, and is undoubtedly the best "fitter" in Kings County. We feel sure that none of his sporting friends will envy him for having won such a splendid victory. At no time during the race was the game little pacer forced to the limit winning the race handsly. It is indeed fortunate for Montague when a man like Charlie can be numbered among its residents whose accomplishments are worthy of special mention in the columns of the press.—J.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Catherine Gillan, St. Patrick's Road is in the city today.

The condition of Mrs. A. McQueen of Montague remains much the same as during the past few months, not showing any signs of improvement.—J.

Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Mellish and their daughter of Vancouver, B. C., are at present on a visit to the former's old home in Montague. Mr. Mellish who is the son of Mrs. John P. Mellish notes a narrative position in the western city. Eleven years have passed since Mr. Mellish left his native province and naturally he sees a great many changes. They will remain until September.

The arrival in Montague of Miss Ada McLeod a few days ago ought to bring about a revival in musical circles. Miss McLeod, who is the daughter of Mrs. M. D. McLeod, was the guest of Mrs. M. D. McLeod where she spent her winter in Ottawa work. It is believed that our male quartette will take advantage of the return of this musical young lady and not remain dormant as they have done for the past year.—J.

AN APPROPRIATE TEXT.

An old clergyman sent his son to Oxford. The boy was not brilliant, and college did not improve him, but he cultivated what he believed was the correct Oxford drawl, and when he came down for the summer vacation his father was eager to hear him preach. The son was prepared to show him how to do it. In the morning after sundry posturings, he announced his text. "He that hath yaks to yah, let him yak." In the afternoon his text was, "Now Bawabbas was a Wobbah." At night the old man came on and took his text, "Lord have mercy on my son for he is a lunatic, and sore tormented."

ABLE HEAD EAST SCHOOL CLOSING

The closing exercises of this school took place Friday, June 29th and was attended by a large number of parents and visitors. The pupils were examined by their teacher and some of the visits, and showed a very satisfactory knowledge of the different subjects.

The pupils put on a very nice programme and treated their visitors to home made candy. Mrs. Hughes received many gifts from her pupils and a pretty and practical gift from the W. L. I. which she was a valued member. The following address was read by one of the pupils:

Dear Teacher,

Your pupils learn with regret that you are to be with us no longer and we cannot let you go without a few words of farewell.

You have been our teacher for two years and during that time you have won the love and respect of all your pupils.

We thank you for the ability and skill that helped us over the hazy paths of learning and help us to make the most of those golden days of youth to acquire knowledge and lay the foundation of a good honest character for the future.

Your kindly cheerful manner touched many a childish grief and your conscientious devotion to duty was an object lesson we shall not soon forget.

We know too that you were never content with merely doing your duty but your warm and kind heart expressed itself in many little gifts, which have endeared you to childish hearts.

You may be sure dear teacher that you will always have our best wishes for your success in your chosen profession.

Catherine MacDonald
Loretta Stewart.

The following address from the W. L. I. was read:

Dear Miss Hughes:

On this the eve of your departure the members of the W. L. I. feel it a duty and a pleasure to add to their fraternal leave taking a few words of appreciation and gratitude.

This institute which we hope to see expanding to a still greater field of usefulness, has been associated with you from the beginning and you have never spared yourself either trouble or pains to insure its success.

Further we are all glad to bear witness that during your term of office here you have won notable success as a teacher, for which on behalf of the parents and children of the district, we thank you.

We fully recognize that the value of an efficient and conscientious teacher to a district cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Socially you were always the kind cheerfulness and fun-loving friend of everyone in the district and they will long hold you in very pleasant memory.

That your business and success in your new calling may be as great as your brightest dreams are pictures is the sincere wish of every member of the Institute.

MRS. PATRICK MCCARTHY, President.

INDIAN RIVER PICNIC

The picnic of St. Mary's Church, Indian River, held on the grounds adjoining the church, on July 25, was one of the successful events of the season. The day seemed to have been especially designed for the purpose, the sun mildly serenely, but not hot, a refreshing breeze with a faint saline odor chattered pleasantly among the shade trees that adorned the grounds, the adjoining pastoral scenes disclosing very evidence of natural vigor, and the rippling waters of Richmond Bay, that means mine for discolorator enthusiasts, all formed a scene that must dispose the mind to engagement in all legitimate diversion. The tables designed and stabilized by the efficient ladies of the parish would tempt an anti-puritan to indulge and the service was nicely in proportion. Mr. D. J. Gillis, D. D., the beloved pastor was omnipresent and exercised a healthy moderatiorship over the event. Music appropriate was furnished and enjoyed. But perhaps the most interesting part of the event was the nicely arranged and well conducted sports that were so cleverly controlled by Mr. James Pendercast.

BUDDHISTS PLAN DRIVE FOR WHITE CONVERTS IN HAWAII

HONOLULU, July 29.—An active drive for converts to Buddhism among the English speaking people of the Hawaiian territory is forecast as the result of action taken by Buddhist leaders in deciding to organize a Buddhist evangelic association in Hawaii with headquarters here.

The principal aim of the society will be to spread the teaching of the sect in English, and present plans call for the training of English speaking priests of Buddha, the publication of canonical books in English and the circulation of other publications in English regarding Buddhism.

Two men, graduates of a local high school or a Buddhist university in Japan will be invited to study for five years in a mainland university, on the understanding that they are to preach Buddhism in Hawaii on the conclusion of their studies.

The society in an outgrowth of the efforts of Archbishop M. T. Kirby of the Hongwanji mission, here, an Englishman converted to Buddhism in Japan, who has been in charge of churches here for some time.

FAREWELL ADDRESS

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of the Misses MacLennan on Saturday evening, June 30th, when a number of the young people of Fredericton and vicinity gathered to bid farewell to Miss Margaret Nicholson who had been teacher of Fredericton School for the past year.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in games, music and social intercourse. After a dainty lunch had been served to all present an address of appreciation was read by Miss Myrtle Cutcliffe and Miss Lolita Weeks presented her with a well filled purse. Miss Nicholson then in a few well chosen words thanked the people for this expression of kindness.

Following is the address:

Having learned that you are about to leave us we cannot allow this opportunity to pass without expressing our appreciation of your efficiency as a teacher. During the past year your skill as a teacher has made itself plainly felt, your patience and perseverance with the pupils has made their work in the school pleasant and interesting.

We therefore, feel that we cannot let the opportunity go by without remembering you in some tangible way and kindly ask that you

WATERLOO, ONCE TOURIST MECCA, GIVES WAY TO NEWER SHRINES

BRUSSELS, July 29.—Waterloo, until 1914, was the most frequented spot in Belgium. Victor Hugo's "dramatic poem" noted with monuments commemorating the battles taking part in the battle, topped by its colossal lion on the historic hill of Mont Saint-Jean, attracted countless foreign tourists, and on Sunday citizens of Brussels journeyed there in caravans.

Ancient mail coaches clattered up and down the streets of the Belgian capital, and their conductors, to the discordant tunes of obsolete brass instruments, invited tourists to Waterloo, 11 miles distant.

Guides flocked and thronged the Waterloo station for the remunerating privilege of escorting over the battle-field the numerous visitors which every train disgorged into the town.

Cafes, restaurants, hotels were doing a huge business. Today gaunt and sad guides await visitors in

Declares Unmarried Women Should Earn Own Living

NEW YORK, July 29.—Miss Margaret Wilson daughter of the former President of the United States, believes that every unmarried woman should earn her own living, as a duty to herself. Miss Wilson has entered the business world, joining an advertising agency.

"I believe," she says in an interview in Editor & Publisher, "that of all the professions open to women the greatest field is offered by advertising." She says that her father is thoroughly in sympathy with her new venture.

Waterloo is desolate. Deserted inn are closing up. A great souvenir is being wiped out; an industry going bankrupt.

Devastated Flanders fields are monopolizing the curiosity seekers. Newport, Dixmude, Ypres and the Yser, the most thickly populated war cemeteries of Belgium, also provide its greatest attraction for the living.

The Great War has killed Waterloo, and by half-destroying Flanders has resuscitated it.
