—IS NINETY-ONE—Mrs. Strang of Cape Wolfe celebrated her ninety-first birthday on Monday, Dec. 13th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Collicutt and Mr. Collicutt. This dear old lady is in reasonably good health for such an advanced age and received the congratulations of her family and legion of friends at the prayer that God may allow her to see other happy anniversaries. Mr. Ross Strang of O'Leary is a son. Until she had a fall in the summer, Mrs. Strang was able to be up and around. She takes a great interest in the community happenings and church activities.—O.

—YOUNG WOMEN'S GUILD—At the annual meeting of the Young Women's Guild of the Summerside Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Connie Enman the 1948 officers were re-appointed for the ensuing year, as follows: President, Mrs. David Larkin; Vice-President, Miss Constance Enman; Secretary, Mrs. Hazel Dystant; Treasurer, Mrs. Mark Gaudet, Jr. Mrs. Henry Bishop was appointed lunch convener. Plans were made for a Social Evening to be held in the church hall on Tuesday evening, December 28th. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Balfour MacKay in serving the refreshments.—S.

—LADIES NIGHT AT A. A.—Never underestimate the power of a woman says a nationally known advertisement. Such is the sentiment of the Summerside Group of the Alcoholics Anonymous. Recently the members discussed at some length the problem of a ladies night for the purpose of introducing their better halves into the secrets of the A. A. programme. A programme was arranged and the ladies were invited. The results exceeded even the most optimistic expectations. The previous record attendance was 25 members. At this meeting 29 members were present. The programme was simple and varied. The male speakers made it plain with sincerity that AA was not an organization to be considered as just a "bunch of drunks" but a movement of men who believe that they have found a different way of life. The attendance proved beyond a doubt that the ladies, too, had found a different way of life exists also for them.—S.

—HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING—The annual meeting of the Home and School Association of Kensington was held in the Town Hall on Thursday, Dec. 17th. Mr. C. C. Baker, M.L.A., presided at the meeting opened by reading of the Creed. The treasurer gave the financial statement for the year, showing the many activities carried on by the Home and School for the welfare of the school children. Committees were appointed to look after the Christmas treat for the school children and also to see the theatre management about sponsoring a picture. It was announced that Mr. Ben Champion, proprietor of the Kensington rink, will donate a rink night to the Association for which the members are very grateful. The election of officers then took place with the following being elected: President, Mrs. F. R. Nauss; 1st vice president, Mrs. Gerald McLean; 2nd vice president, Miss Mary Reid; treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd Howard; recording secretary, Miss Evangeline Greenan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Pennington. A vote of thanks was extended to the retiring officers, moved by Mr. J. F. Profit and seconded by Rev. Louis Murray. After the business period Mrs. James Pendergast gave a short talk on her recent trip to Calgary, Banff, High River, Regina, Winnipeg, Toronto and Montreal. The meeting closed by singing God Save the King. K

—BRAE YOUNG PEOPLE HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY—Despite very slippery roads, there was a very large attendance at the Christmas party of the Brae United Church Young Peoples Union which was held on Monday night, Dec. 13th, at the home of Mrs. MacFadyen. The lovely spacious home was most appropriately decorated in keeping with the Christmas season and the center of attraction was a large and beautifully decorated Christmas tree. The Brae Y. P. U. were hosts to the forty (40) children of school age and pre-school age in the Brae district and old Santa Claus himself arrived, splendidly impersonated by Mr. Robert Oulton and gave each little one a gift (games or toy or book) with the compliments of the Young People. Many were the expressions of childish delight and wonderment when the jolly old patron saint of Christmas arrived. In addition every child received a well filled bag of candy, and generous helpings of candy were passed around repeatedly to all the adults present. Christmas games and contests were enjoyed under the leadership of the Minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary, and he was presented with a sum of money by Santa Claus from the Young People. Then delicious and bountiful refreshments were served and this delightful social evening closed with a short but impressive worship service conducted by the President, Mrs. Roy Oulton, after which all repeated the Mispah Benediction.—O

CAVENDISH AUXILIARY OF THE W. M. S.

The December meeting of the Auxiliary of W. M. S. was held at the manse Wednesday evening, December 8th. Meeting was opened by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Minutes of the November meeting were read and adopted. Twelve members responded to roll call by repeating a verse of Scripture.

The Temperance Secretary, Mrs. Ira McCoubrey read a letter from the Presbyterian Temperance Secretary.

The Auxiliary was invited to the home of Mrs. Ernest MacNeill for the January meeting, with Mrs. Lewis Toombs as devotional leader. Ms. Ira McCoubrey to choose and offer prayer for a missionary. Mrs. Olaf Stevenson and Mrs. Lorne MacNeill on the lunch committee.

A report of the nominating committee was read. The following are the officers for 1949:— President: Mrs. George Gough. Vice-president: Mrs. George Mc-

Coubrey. Treasurer: Mrs. Olaf Stevenson. Secretary: Mrs. Milton Green. Christian Stewardship Secretary: Mrs. Lewis Toombs. Associate Members: Mrs. Will Graham with Mrs. Alfred Moore as her assistant. Supply Secretary: Mrs. Alvah MacNeill. Community Friendship Secretary: Mrs. David Johnston. Literature and Press Secretary: Mrs. George Gough. Missionary Monthly and World Secretary: Mrs. W. A. Simpson. Finance Secretary: Mrs. Ira McCoubrey. Organist: Mrs. Lorne MacNeill. Mrs. Geo. McCoubrey and Mrs. Alfred Moore were appointed delegates to attend Presbyterian in Kensington Jan. 26 and 27th. The treasurer, being absent, it was impossible to get a correct statement of our financial status, but will be in advance of last year's givings. The Community Friendship Secretary reported 26 hospital calls, 24 sick calls and 8 cards sent. Prayer was offered for Miss Lillian Taylor of the nursing staff at University Hospital, Chengtu, China, by Mrs. Ernest MacNeill.

The beautiful Christmas carol service as given in the Missionary Monthly was led by Mrs. W. A. Simpson assisted by Mrs. Lewis Toombs and Miss Bernice Axworthy who read the story of the Nativity and the Shepherds and the Wise Men. Candles were lighted in recollection of our fellow Christians in North America by Mrs. Alfred Moore; in South America by Mrs. Geo. MacCoubrey; in Europe by Mrs. Lorne MacNeill; in Asia by Mrs. David Johnston; in Africa by Mrs. Milton Green. The prayer litany was led by the president.

A short meeting of the Ladies' Aid followed, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. George McCoubrey.
