HORSES FOR SALE by McNeil and Wood may be seen at Buntain & Bell's Stock Yard.

CRAPAUD. - At the Induction Service on Tuesday evening at 7.30, there will be special music rendered by friends from Charlottetown and the Archbishop will be the preacher. All are cordially invited to attend.

ST. DUNSTON'S CATHEDRAL - At the 9.30 services at the Cathedral yesterday morning, the Rev. Monsignor McDonald preached a very appropriate sermon on Intemperance, immorality and impurity, impressing upon the parents the importance of co-operating against these evils.

PETTY THIEVERY. - A great many cases of theft have recently been reported in Charlottetown. Among the latest is that of a spare tire taken from a Ford car outside the Navy League on Friday night. It is to be hoped that the offenders will be speedily brought to justice.

NURSES ENTERTAINED. - Mrs. Roderick MacDonald entertained the graduating class of the City Hospital at her home on Hillsborough Street on the evening of Tuesday, June 8th. A very delightful evening was spent in playing whist and a dainty luncheon was served.

CONFIRMATION IN ST. PAUL'S CHURCH. - A very impressive ceremony took place yesterday morning in St. Paul's Church, when the rector, Rev. H. D. Raymond presented to His Grace the Archbishop of Nova Scotia, eight candidates for Confirmation. Present was a large congregation and beautiful music was rendered by the choir. Following the ceremony, His Grace delivered an inspiring sermon on the purposes and benefits of confirmation. He pointed out that we receive three blessings, namely, protection, comfort and leadership from the presence of God. Each one of these comes into the life of every true Christian strengthening his soul and inspiring him with a true sense of religion. He concluded with a stirring appeal for more religion - above all religion combined with knowledge. Some men are endowed with the best education Nature can give them, yet without religion they may become addicts to the most foul and vicious crimes possible.

General Council

was conducted today, adjournment was looked for until next Thursday. However, matters may be speeded up tonight, and the council is expected to sit late.

The general council elected the following officers of the church for the coming two years: Treasurer, Dr. Robert Laird; secretary-treasurer, superannuation fund, Dr. S. W. Dean; secretaries of Board of Foreign Missions, Dr. James Endicott, Rev. A. E. Armstrong, Dr. J. H. Armp.

Secretaries Home Mission Board: Dr. J. H. Edmondson, Dr. C. E. Manning. Associate secretary, Board of Home Missions, Dr. Colin Young. Book steward, Dr. F. W. Fallis; associate book steward, Dr. D. M. Solandt.

Editors Named
 Editors of New Outlook, Dr. W. B. Creighton, Dr. G. S. Carson. Associate editors Sunday School Publications, Rev. George Little, Rev. Archer Wallace.

Secretary of literature and editor of Missionary Review, Dr. W. T. Gunn. Secretary of maintenance and extension fund, Rev. Peter Bryce. Secretary Young People's Forward Movement, Dr. F. C. Stephenson. Secretary of Board of Education, Dr. J. W. Graham.

Secretaries Board Religious Education - Dr. J. C. Robertson, Rev. Frank Taylor. Associate secretaries of Religious Education - Rev. C. A. Myers, Rev. Manson Doyle.

Secretary Board of Evangelism and Social Service - Rev. D. M. McLaughlin. Associate secretaries Board of Evangelism and Social Service - Dr. Hugh Dobson, Rev. John Colburn, Rev. Ernest Thomas, Rev. W. E. Millson and Rev. G. A. Campbell.

Dr. T. Albert Moore had already been appointed secretary of the General Council.

The nominations were presented by Dr. George Pidgeon and were unanimously adopted.

All the officers having been connected with the general offices of the church, the general council adjourned at 10:30 p. m. The addresses of the officers are: Dr. Hugh Dobson, Regina; Rev. W. E. Millson, London; and Rev. G. I. Campbell, Ottawa.

To a semi-humorous reception by the council, Dr. D. L. Ritchie, Montreal, declared that "one of the tendencies is for everything to be dragged in by the great octopus that dwells in Toronto."

Moderator (smiling) - "No disrespect language, please." Dr. Ritchie - "I have the greatest respect for the moderator and all who dwell there, but not so much for some of the politics emanating from there."

The remarks occurred during discussion of a motion, afterwards adopted, by which representatives of colleges attending the meeting of the board of education would have their expenses paid by the board instead of by their colleges. This was recommended so that colleges in eastern and western Canada would be on an equality with those in central Canada who had to pay their own expenses.

Mount Allison, in Sackville, N. B., and institutions in British Columbia were cited as examples.

The motion also provided that principals and professors could not be appointed to the board except as corresponding members, not even by conferences. The reason given was that they represented to some extent rival interests and therefore should not vote in the decisions of the board. There was a long debate on the matter, many upholding the right of conferences to name whom they wished to represent them.

IN MEMORIAM
 In Loving Memory of my dear friend, Marion Johnstone who departed this life June 21st, 1926.
 Friend after friend departs! Who hath not lost a friend? There is no fellowship of hearts
 But here must have an end; Where this vain world our only rest,
 Living or dying none were blest.

NEW CANADIAN GOLF RECORD
 CALGARY, Alta., June 19. - A hole in one by Billy Simonton, 11-year-old youngster of this city, is believed to have established a new Canadian golf record, so far as available statistics show.
 The lad performed the unique feat on a course at Elbow Park, playing with two older companions. The distance of the hole was 128 yards. Billy took up the game for the first time this spring and was playing with his mother's club when he realized the "golfer's dream."

STIRRING APPEAL

ers of His Church, state the great law of continuity of human affairs. To each age and generation comes the responsibility of carrying on to greater achievements the lines of effort of those who have gone before them. Dr. Moore seemed to see in the present time a tendency to evade this responsibility, to accept what has come to us from the past as a matter of course and even to exploit what we have received from the workers of the past as the occasion for present ease, luxury and indulgence. Instead of accepting the words of the text as a ringing call to greater effort and achievement, some would edit them to read: "Ye are entered into the fruits of their labors." This tendency is pardonable in children who have not yet arrived at a sense of responsibility, but even they must be led to give grateful recognition to those whose labors enable them to live care-free lives. Youth seems slow to outgrow this tendency today and must be called to a sense of responsibility to become worthy of the work of their predecessors in the work of the world.

It is good for us to count up our indebtedness to past workers. Our modern life with all its developments so conducive to comfort and so full of interest is the result of the labors of scientific educational and social workers of past ages. Our religious liberty and privileges have been developed through the ages and the wonderful institutions that safeguard our freedom and preserve our heritage from past workers. What shall we do with all this? Shall we make it the occasion for indolence, softness of living, avoidance of hard work and real sacrifice, or shall we hear Christ calling to us concerning their labors?"

The Crisis Which King's is Facing

Turning to the cause which he is presently advocating throughout the Maritimes, Dr. Moore said that the Maritimes of King's College is a heritage from the past. Founded by U. E. Loyalists pioneers in 1789 for Nova Scotia, which then included New Brunswick, this oldest University in the Empire outside the British Isles has been the "Mother of Higher Education in Canada".

For 137 years she has been giving her services to Canada. Always she has been pervaded by a rare spirit of culture, loyalty and service to Church and Nation.

President Moore then turned to consider the crisis which King's is facing today and to have the opportunity of now being offered to the Maritimes to place it upon a permanent basis for the future.

It is threatened with extinction for lack of funds. Since the disastrous fire of 1920 it has been kept alive by the great Carnegie Corporation of New York who gave $20,000 a year for two years and $30,000 a year during the past three years. This assistance ceases at the end of this month by which time the people of the Maritimes are asked to provide $400,000 for new buildings. When this amount is not provided for the July 1st next, this great Corporation will give $600,000 as permanent endowment for the teaching staff in Arts. No more generous offer has ever been made to a Canadian institution. Already nearly $250,000 of the $400,000 required to qualify for this offer is in sight.

The appeal that King's is now making, said Dr. Moore, is a challenge to Anglicans to the interest of their ambition of the previous young people to train for service. King's is a residential college and provides her life in a religious atmosphere.

Surely Anglicans were not going to confess failure where other communities are succeeding and send their students to sponge on the generosity of members of these other communions. In conclusion he asked his hearers to earn the joy of being pioneers for future generations by preserving their heritage, by improving the great opportunity that is now offered and by enabling this historic old institution to continue to send out an increasing supply of young men and women qualified to take their place as leaders in the life of Church and Nation.

Set Out From with Energy Entire Day

A Single Serving of this Delightful Food Gives You More Varied Nourishment than many a Hearty Meal.

GRAPE-NUTS is a wonderful food—deliberately designed by an expert in food values to supply to the body vital food elements which are essential to proper, balanced nourishment. Whether you eat a light breakfast or a heavy breakfast, eat Grape-Nuts for these essential food elements to carry you through the whole day: Dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for energy; iron for rich blood; phosphorus for strong, healthy teeth; protein for muscle and body-building; and the vitally necessary vitamin-B.

And you'll like having Grape-Nuts for breakfast. Its nut-like flavor, which is a combination of whole wheat and malted barley, is the favorite of millions.

The special baking process by which Grape-Nuts is made prepares it for quick, easy digestion. You won't know that bug-bear of modern living—indigestion; you won't be handicapped by that "heavy feeling", after eating this food!

Even the form of Grape-Nuts is a health advantage. You like to chew its crisp granules, and by so doing you give your teeth and gums the exercise which every dentist so strongly recommends.

All grocers have Grape-Nuts—in wax-wrapped packages. Four teaspoonfuls is sufficient for each person, and such a helping costs less than one cent. Pour Grape-Nuts right from the package into one side of bowl—milk or cream into the space beside it. Dip the Grape-Nuts into the milk or cream as you eat. In this way you will enjoy the delightful crispness to the full.

Get a package of Grape-Nuts to-day at your grocer's—or you may wish to accept the following offer.

"A Book of Better Breakfasts"
 -and two servings of Grape-Nuts, free!

Mail the coupon and we will send you two individual packages of Grape-Nuts free. We will send, also, "A Book of Better Breakfasts", which a former college physical director has prepared for us. You will find the delightful menu which this book contains a real help toward better health.
